

Criminal Misc. Case No.834 of 2026
C. N. R. No. - WBJP01-002244-2026
J. O. Code - WB00977

Order No.03, Dated 20.07.2026.

The application for u/s 482 of the B.N.S.S. filed by the accused-petitioners, namely, 1. Manjit Oraon, 2. Smt. Gandheswari Oraon and 3. Smt. Anjali Oraon, praying for anticipatory bail in connection with Matelli P.S. Case No.56/2026, dated 20.05.2026 u/s 117(2)/82(1)/85 of B.N.S., 2023, is taken up for hearing.

Learned Advocate for the accused-petitioners submits that no bail application filed by the accused-petitioners is either rejected or pending by or before any upper forum including Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta in connection with the instant case.

The bail application filed before this Court by the accused-petitioners also reflect the same and the Ld. Public Prosecutor, Jalpaiguri concedes to such facts.

Ld. Advocate for the accused-petitioners submitted that the present accused-petitioners are the husband, mother-in-law and sister-in-law of the victim wife and they have been falsely implicated in this case out of personal grudge and vendetta out of political rivalry over the family dispute. No such incident as alleged in the written complaint has ever occurred. On all such grounds, it is submitted that anticipatory bail should be granted to the accused-petitioners.

On the other hand, Ld. Public Prosecutor, Jalpaiguri raised objection.

Heard both sides.

Perused the materials on record and C.D.

On perusal of the materials available before this Court, it appears that investigation in this case has progressed to a considerable extent and statements of vital witnesses have already been recorded. As per F.I.R. the victim sustained injury on her body but no such injury report is lying in the C.D. to substantiate the allegation made in the F.I.R. against the present accused-petitioners. Allegations as made in the F.I.R. are all generalized in nature.

Considering all the above facts and circumstances, I do not find that custodial interrogation or detention of the present accused-petitioners is required in this case and accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail for the present accused-petitioners is allowed.

Hence, in the event of arrest, the accused-petitioners, namely, 1. Manjit Oraon, 2. Smt. Gandheswari Oraon and 3. Smt. Anjali Oraon be released on furnishing bond of Rs.5000/- each with two (2) sureties of Rs.2500/- each, subject to satisfaction of the arresting officer and due compliance with usual provisions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S.

Let a copy of this order along with T.C.R be sent to the learned C.J.M., Jalpaiguri, for information and taking necessary action.

Return the C.D.

Thus, the Criminal Misc. case is disposed of.
