ORDER

Perused application and reply. Heard both the sides. It is claimed in the application that the applicants are the accused in Crime No. 405/2026, registered with Kurar police station, and they were released by this Court vide Order dated 15.05.2026 in Cri. Bail Appln No. 435/2026. This Court allowed the provisional cash bail for the period of eight weeks and accordingly applicants have deposited the provisional cash bail and presently they are on bail. The applicants are unable to find the proper surety within the period of eight weeks. The applicants are trying to find the surety however could not furnish it within the period granted by the Court. Hence the application.

2. Application has been resisted by the prosecution stating that sufficient time was given to the applicants to furnish surety. Therefore prosecution has prayed for the rejection of the present application.

3. Perused record of the case. By virtue of Order of this Court dated 15.05.2026, the applicants were released on bail. They have furnished the provisional cash Bail. Therefore I am inclined to consider the present application.
Hence the Order.

1. Cri. Misc. Application No.275/2026 is allowed.

2. The time of 8 weeks is hereby extended for the applicant for furnishing the surety as per order passed by this court dated 15.05.2026 in BA No.435/2026 in CR No.405/2026 registered with Kurar Police station.

3. The accused/applicants to abide by the rest of the conditions of bail order dated 15.05.2026.

4. Cri. Misc. Application No.275/2026 stands disposed of accordingly.
