Cri. Bail Appln.No.428/2026.
Venkat Lahane Versus State.

ORDER BELOW EXT.1.

1. The applicant has presented this application for grant of regular bail under Section 483 of the BNSS in Crime No.211/2026 registered at Police Station, Kingaon, Tah. Ahmedpur, Dist. Latur for the offences punishable under Sections 109(1), 118(2), 324(5), 115(2), 3(5) of the BNS, 2023.

2. Brief facts of the prosecution are as under :

- The informant run a cloth shop by residing with his family members in Latur. The informant alongwith his uncles, aunts, brother and two step brothers with parents hold 55 acres land out of that 18 to 20 acres land was allotted to the step brothers of informant. However, the step brother Tukaram destroyed the soyabin crop standing in the farm land of brother-in-law of the informant by ploughing with tractor. The informant rushed to the field. The said tractor left, hence the informant was proceeding towards village. The accused Tukaram and applicant came in a tractor in the opposite direction. The applicant-Vyankat attacked on the informant with axe. Applicant- Vyankat inflicted the blow with axe to informant. Accused Tukaram alighted the tractor and slashed with the axe on the throat of informant causing him bleeding injury. The informant thereafter taken to the hospital wherein he is taking medical treatment.

3. In the aforesaid backdrop, the applicant has prayed for bail materially on the grounds that the applicant is implicated in the present crime due to previous property dispute. The applicant was arrested long back whereas the investigation is already almost completed. The applicant is resident of the territorial limits of this court. He is ready to abide with terms and conditions of bail. He may therefore be released on bail.

4. The I.O. and A.P.P. have presented their common reply vide Ext.8 materially by reiterating aforementioned prosecution case. They further submit that the dispute on account of partition of the ancestral property is going on. The applicant will pressurize the prosecution witnesses and flea away from justice, if gets bail. Yet material evidence is to be seized and recovered. The applicant is in habit to commit the evidence against body repeatedly. Therefore, the present application needs to be rejected.

5. I have heard arguments of Id. Adv. Mr. M.B. Jadhav for the applicant and Id. APP Mr. V.V. Deshpande for the State. They have reiterated the aforementioned respective cases. After perusing the record, the points arise for determination are answered for the reasons as under :

Sr. No.	P O I N T S	F I N D I N G S
1)	Whether the applicant is entitled for grant of bail under Section 483 of the BNSS ?	Yes.
2)	What is order ?	: As per final order.

R E A S O N S

As to point No.1 :

6. The record reveals that the present informant and applicant alongwith their respective family members are involved in the dispute of landed property since long. The present incident was also held allegedly on that ground. But here the applicant is attributed role as he had beaten the informant with the handle of axe. Allegedly, his brother slashed the throat of informant with axe as well as caused other bleeding injuries to him. At this stage, no direct involvement of the present applicant is seen in the alleged offence of attempt to commit murder of the informant. He has some criminal antecedents which are not much serious in nature. Still his repeated involvement in the criminal case is cause of concern. Therefore, certain restrictions can be imposed upon him. However, the applicant is entitled for grant of bail in the present situation. Therefore, I answer point No.1 in the affirmative.

As to point No.2 :

7. The applicant has succeeded to prove present application. Hence, I pass the order as under :
