First Bail application under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023

Present: Proxy for Sh.Ashwani Kumar Thakur, Advocate for accused/applicant.
Sh.Rupinder Singh, Addl. P.P. for the State.

Order:-

1. Statement of ASI Tarlochan Singh, Investigating Officer regarding antecedents of applicant, present bail application being first bail application, recovery etc. has been recorded and report of Ahlmad regarding present bail application being first application perused. Police record seen and returned.
2. Heard on the first regular bail application moved on behalf of accused/applicant under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023.

3. In support of his application, learned Counsel for the applicant/accused submitted that applicant is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in the present FIR. Neither he ever dealt in drugs/narcotics nor he ever remained in possession of any prohibited article. The police has falsely implicated him on the basis of a false disclosure statement of accused Satnam Singh, which is not even admissible in evidence. The police has also not collected any evidence establishing the link between present applicant and Satnam Singh. Nothing was recovered from the possession of present applicant despite thorough interrogation. Co-accused of the applicant namely Vaibhav has already been extended benefit of bail by Hon'ble High Court. The applicant is in custody since 09.02.2026 and his further detention is not required for the purpose of investigation and trial. Thus, learned Counsel for the applicant prayed for granting the benefit of regular bail to the applicant.

4. In reply, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State submitted that there are serious allegations against the applicant that he has been dealing in drugs and illegal weapons at a very high scale. On 06.02.2026, police party headed by ASI Amarjit Singh on the basis of suspicion apprehended accused Satnam Singh, who was found carrying a polythene bag containing 523 grams Ice and two 9 MM glock pistols. During interrogation, he suffered disclosure statement that Love had arranged consignment of drugs and weapons from Pakistan and he was going to deliver the same to present applicant Raman Kumar and others. On the basis of said disclosure statement, applicant was apprehended on 09.02.2026 and he suffered similar disclosure statement with regard to his involvement in the crime.

5. It has been further argued that in view of the serious allegations of dealing in narcotics at commercial level, the applicant does not deserve to be released on bail. He further added that in case applicant is released on bail, he is likely to abscond and return to his illegal trade. With these submissions, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State concluded his arguments and finally prayed for dismissal of the application.

6. Rival submissions of learned Counsel for the applicant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State considered and record has been perused.

7. Perusal of the police record reveals that from the possession of co-accused of applicant, heavy quantity of Ice i.e.523 grams and two imported unlicensed weapons, were recovered. As per the case of Investigating Agency, the accused was going to supply said psychotropic substance and weapons to present applicant and others. Thus, there are serious allegations against the applicant. At this stage, on the basis of police record, it cannot be safely said that applicant is not guilty of any such offence or that he would not commit any such offence, in case he is released on bail. Thus, in view of the provisions of Section 37 (1) (b) of the NDPS Act, 1985, this Court cannot order the release of applicant on bail in view of allegations of having committed offence punishable under Section 22 (c) read with Section 29 of the NDPS Act. Accordingly, the applicant cannot be extended the benefit of regular bail.

8. In view of above discussion, the present bail application stands dismissed.

9. Further in compliance to the directions issued by Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in Suo Moto Writ Petition (Criminal) No.4/2021 titled IN RE: POLICY STRATEGY FOR GRANT OF BAIL, Ahlmad is directed to send the soft copy of this order to the Central Jail, where the applicant is confined, so that applicant is made aware of refusal of bail.

Anything observed herein would not amount to comments on the merits of the case. Record of bail application be attached with pending remand papers.
