

PS 481/2024
CIS No. PS 481/2024

Order No.9

Dated 05.06.2025

Today is fixed for hearing.

Both parties are present by filing hazira.

Defendant no.1 to 3 already filed a petition u/o 12 rule 6 for passing judgment on admission.

The matter has been referred for mediation. Mediation report received in affirmative form and all the individual parties of both sides are present and expressed their consent in written form through settlement agreement. The settlement agreement of mediation dated 05.06.2025 has been received and kept with the record.

Plaintiff has filed e-LR plot information of plot no.2476 and 2479 of mouja Bharatpur. Plaintiff also filed original registered sale deed being no.203/1965 and gift deed being no.7709/1972.

Defendant has filed some documents in photocopies.

By filing this petition and before Ld. Mediator, defendant no.1 to 3 admitted the pleading as well as the claim of the plaintiff and categorically stated that plaintiff has 6.5 decimal of land in plot no.2476 and 6 ganda in plot no.2479 of mouja Bharatpur.

In plaint, plaintiff also claimed the same.

Record speaks that the defendant no.4 and 5 are Govt. and their presence is not necessary to decide this suit.

Hence it is ordered

that the suit be and the same is hereby decree on admission.

That the plaintiff has 6.5 decimal of land in plot no.2476 and 6 ganda in plot no.2479 of mouja Bharatpur.

Both parties are directed to partition the suit property amicably within next 90 days, failing which party will accrue the right to prefer final decree application.

That the suit is disposed of on admission.

All the interlocutory petitions become infructuous and accordingly disposed of.

Note in the CIS and register.

DA is directed to draw up the decree on admission.

D/C by me,

Civil Judge (Sr. Div), Kandi,
Murshidabad

Civil Judge (Sr. Div), Kandi,
Murshidabad
JO Code : WB01271