

MACC Ex 05 of 2025

Order No.04

09.04.2025

The petitioner files hazira.

However, no requisite of notice is filed for the Jdr.

The Id lawyer for the petitioner submits that since the instant case is filed within two years from the date of order no notice is required to be served upon the Jdr.

Heard.

It is, however, found that there is no material indicating pendency of any appeal against the order put in execution before the Hon'ble Court. To avoid any sort of controversy, this Court is of the opinion that a notice of the application should be served upon the Jdr.

Hence, the petitioner is hereby directed to put requisite of notice for the Jdr in both ways on the next date positively.

To 24.04.2025 for requisite of notice for the Jdr.
