Order No.03 dated 14.07.2026

The application for anticipatory bail U/s.482 BNSS filed by the petitioners as named above is taken up for hearing this day on the strength of a put up petition filed by learned counsel on behalf of the accused petitioners.

It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the petitioners that no such application for bail on the selfsame cause of action has ever been filed before or rejected by the Hon'ble Court, Calcutta to which, the Ld. P.P. expressed his agreement.

I have heard both sides.

This is a case of matrimonial cruelty and murder.

The accused petitioner no. 1 is the father-in-law of the deceased and accused petitioner no.2 is the married sister-in-law of the deceased and she stays at her matrimonial house.

The mother of the victim has confined her allegations to the husband of the deceased in the statement recorded U/S 183 of BNSS.

The husband is in custody.

The Port-Mortem examination report notes abrasion over the face and haematoma over forehead in addition to the ligature mark, but does not record any opinion as to the cause of death.

Considering these aspects of the matter, the mother's statement U/S 183 of BNSS and the omnibus nature contained in the written complaint, I am of the view that the present accused petitioners may be granted anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest of the petitioners as named above in c/w the above noted P.S. case, they shall be released on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 2,000/- each with two sureties of Rs. 1,000/- each subject to the satisfaction of the I.C./O.C. of the concerned P.S.

If released on bail, the petitioners are directed to comply with the conditions mentioned in Section 482(2) of BNSS.

Return the T.C.R and the C.D.

The Crl. Misc. Case is thus disposed of.
