

Present : APP for the State.
Sh. K.C. Jain, Advocate for accused-applicant.

An application for bail has been moved on behalf of the applicant stating that applicant has been falsely implicated by the police and he has not committed any offence. It is further pleaded in the application that investigation has already been completed and accused-applicant is no more required by the police. The trial of the case shall take time and as such a prayer for bail has been made.

Notice of the bail application was given to the learned APP who orally opposed the bail application but did not file any written reply.

Heard. Accused-applicant is in custody since 04.12.2018 The presentation of challan and trial of the case is likely to take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the accused-applicant in custody rather it will be a burden on the state exchequer. As such, accused Sukhdev Singh @ Dev is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of the like amount, subject to following conditions:

1. The accused/applicants shall remain present before the Court on each and every date of hearing, without fail, failing which he shall be prosecuted under section 229-A of IPC.
2. The accused/applicants shall not influence the witnesses of the prosecution nor shall try to intimidate or threaten the witnesses of the prosecution, failing which, he shall be prosecuted under section 195-A of IPC.
3. The accused/applicants shall not leave India, without intimation and prior permission of the Court.
4. The accused/applicants shall not commit similar kind of offence during the pendency of the present case.
5. The accused/applicants shall not seek any kind of adjournment for cross examination of the prosecution witnesses, without any reasonable grounds.

Bail application stands disposed of accordingly. Bail bond and surety bond not furnished. Now file be put up on 19.12.2018 the date already fixed. .
