Order no. 28, dt. 03.2.18

The sole accused Abdul Alim Ansari is present by filing hazira. Today is fixed for evidence of prosecution witnesses.

Ld. PP in charge and ld. Defence counsel both are present. Ld. Prosecution submitted that five witnesses have been examined and remaining witnesses have not yet examined. Ld. Defence counsel submitted that the case is pending for a long time, but prosecution failed to produce its witnesses.

Heard ld. Advocates for both sides. Perused the record and it appears that the prosecution has examined five witnesses. The complainant of this case inspector Goutam Bhattacharyee, D.E.O- I, Murshidabad did not turn up for giving deposition in this case on repeated summons but his evidence is necessary for proper adjudication of this case. As per submission of ld. PP in charge today is fixed for examination of Goutam Bhattacharyee and message has been given to him. No information is received from the concerned P.S. regarding service of message upon Goutam Bhattacharyee. The case is old one and pending for a long time. Thus prosecution is directed to issue summons upon the witnesses for procuring their attendance.

A fresh schedule of evidence is framed herewith :
