Order No.03 dated 14.07.2026

The application for anticipatory bail in respect of present accused petitioner No.4 Akash Halder stands rejected being not pressed.

The application in respect to petitioner No.1 to 3 and 5 to 9, as named above, is taken up for hearing.

It is submitted by the Ld. Advocate for the petitioners that no such application for bail on the selfsame cause of action has ever been filed before or rejected by the Hon'ble Court, Calcutta or by this Court, to which the Ld. P.P., Murshidabad expressed his agreement.

I have heard both sides for and against the application for anticipatory bail.

I have gone through the available materials on record including the Medical papers.

The Medical papers do not support the allegation of serious cut on the finger or head injury.

Hospitalization was for one day but there is no opinion of the doctor regarding either the nature of injuries he may have noted or the reason for hospitalization.

The incident, at best, would have been a case of general assault without any premeditation to endanger human life.

In view of above, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioner No.1 to 3 and 5 to 9 U/s.482 of BNSS stands allowed.

In the event of arrest of the accused petitioner No.1 to 3 and 5 to 9 as named above, in c/w the above noted P.S. case, they shall be released on furnishing bail bond of Rs.1,000/- each with one surety of like amount each, subject to the satisfaction of the O.C. / I.C. of the concerned police station.

If released on bail, the petitioner No.1 to 3 and 5 to 9 are directed to comply with the conditions mentioned in Section 482(2) of BNSS.

T.C.R. & C.D. be returned.

The Crl. Misc. Case is thus disposed of.

Dictd. & Cortd.
by me.
