State of Punjab

Vs.

Ravinder Kaur aged about 25 years, wife of Vikram Singh, village Mahilpur, Haveli, Mahilpur, Hoshiarpur, Punjab, 146105.

FIR No. 108 dated 06.06.2022,
Under Section: 21, 22/61/85 NDPS Act, 1985
Police Station: Mahilpur, District Hoshiarpur.

Bail application U/s 439 Cr.P.C.

Present: Sh.Parmodh Sidhu, cl for the applicant.
Addl. PP for the State.

ORDER:

1. This order disposes off bail application of accused described in detail herein above. Accusation leading to the registration of this FIR is that SI Gurnam Singh along-with other police officials received secret information that Jasvir Kaur @ Fojan along-with her family used to sell heroin and other intoxicants in large quantity and on believing the information to be true Ruqa was sent to the police station and the police party went to raid the house of Jasvir Kaur @ Fojan, accused. As such, on raid accused Sukhdeep Singh @ Kaka was found in possession of 35 gram intoxicant powder and accused Ravinder Kaur was found in possession of 25 gram intoxicant powder alongwith drug money of Rs.27,500/-.

2. It is alleged on behalf of Petitioner that she is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case, whereas she has not committed any offence. That, petitioner/ accused is in judicial custody since 06.06.2022 and challan has not yet presented and this process may take long time and there is no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused/ applicant behind bars.
3. The bail application has been opposed. Ld. APP for the State argued that the offence is a very serious offence not against the State but against the human race, capable of killing not one or two individuals but in mass. Ld.APP further argued that accused is a habitual offender and this time 25 gram intoxicant powder and Rs.27,500/- drug money is recovered from the accused. Ld.APP further argued that already FIR No.12 dated 5.12.19 u/s 22/61/85 of NDPS Act, PS Mahilpur and FIR No.12 dated 13.2.21 u/s 21, 29/61/85 of NDPS Act, PS: Mahilpur, are registered against the accused.
4. I have heard counsel for the applicant/accused and Addl. PP for the State besides going through the record. Perusal of the record shows that in this FIR drug money of Rs.27,500/- and 25 gram intoxicant powder is recovered from the accused and accused is a habitual offender because already two FIRs under NDPS Act have already been registered against the accused. So keeping in view the material facts of the case, nature of crime, recovery, gravity of offence and the manner in which it is alleged to have been committed, no ground is made out to enlarge the accused/applicant on bail.
5. As a result the application for grant of regular bail moved by the applicant/accused Ravinder Kaur u/s 439 Cr.P.C. stands dismissed.

Papers to be consigned to the record room.

Pronounced. Dated: 13.7.2022	Sandeep Singh Jossan PB0150 Judge, Special Court, Hoshiarpur.
