5. After hearing learned counsel for the accused/applicant, learned Addl. PP for State and perusal of the record, it reflects that in the present case, FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant Chamkaur Singh and perusal of said complaint of Chamkaur Singh reflects that there was some dispute going on between complainant and Bahadar Singh with respect to the purchase of some plot. On the relevant date it is fact that Gurjinderpal Singh, Gobind Singh, Bhupinder Sharma alongwith other persons were present in the house of the complainant. It is also reflected that some dispute raised and due to which, Bohar Singh who was loaded with 12 bore rifle has fired and Gurjinderpal Singh has been injured Manga Singh also fired from his pistol, but no one was hurt. Accused Sherjit Singh was present in the house being the son of Bahadar Singh and Navdeep Kaur daughter of said Bahadar Singh was also present at the spot alongwith her mother Balwinder Kaur. Further qua to accused Balwinder Kaur and Navdeep Kaur, there are allegations that they had raised their voice and told their father the present applicant to teach lesson to Chamkaur Singh. It is also fact that qua to accused Sherjit Singh, there is attribution with respect to the lalkara. It is fact that in the present case as reflected from the prosecution version, present applicant/accused has been arrested on 08.09.2024 and since then behind the bars. As per version of the complainant, dispute between the parties is between complainant and the present applicant/accused Bahadur Singh. Accused Manga Singh also shown to be loaded with pistol. Further as per version of the prosecution, .12 bore rifle belongs to present applicant/accused, though, there is no such document reflected on the police file. It is fact that in the present case, complainant has received fire arm injury and offence committed is serious in nature. So, at this stage, this Court do not find any satisfactory ground to grant concession of bail to the present applicant/accused as there are chances if applicant/accused is given any relief, then he could put pressure upon the complainant party or tamper with the evidence. Accordingly, present bail application is dismissed. File be consigned to the record room.

Pronounced in open Court.
