CNR No: PBBT01045872025

CIS No: BA-1474-2025

Date of Order: 01.05.2025

Gurdeep Singh, son of Surjeet Singh, resident of village Khokhar, near Gurudwara, Tehsil Phul, District Bathinda.

Versus

State of Punjab

FIR No.15 dated 01.04.2025
under Sections: 115(2)/118(1)/190/191 of BNS 2023
Police Station: Balianwali, District Bathinda

Bail application under Section 482 BNSS, 2023

Present: Sh. Ritesh Singla, Advocate for applicant/accused Gurdeep Singh.
Sh. M.S. Sidhu, Addl.PP for the State.

ORDER:

1. Applicants Gurdeep Singh has filed this application for grant of pre-arrest bail under Section 482 BNSS in the afore mentioned case and vide this order, I will dispose of the same.

2. The facts in brief as are necessary for just & effective disposal of the present bail application are that the present case has been registered on the basis of statement of complainant Amandeep Singh alias Amna son of Beant Singh to the effect that he is an agriculturist and doing B.Ed at Mai Bhago Education College, Ralla. On 30.03.2025, he was going towards his house at about 10:15 p.m. after watching Kabaddi tournament organized in his village. When he had reached little ahead of the house of Surjit Nambardar, then a car make Verna of black colour bearing No.PB-13BT-5389 hit against him and suddenly Gurdeep Singh alias Vicky armed with iron rod, Davinder Singh armed with Dah, Gursimran Singh alias Kalu armed with iron rod, Manna Singh armed with iron rod and Kalu Singh empty handed, came out from the said car and Gurdeep Singh gave a blow of iron rod at his head and again gave blow of the same at which he raised his hands to save himself and the said blow landed on his left arm. Thereafter Davinder Singh gave a blow of Dah on his head. Gursimran Singh alias Kalu gave a blow of rod which landed on his right arm, then Manna Singh gave a blow of rod on his right leg as well as on his left leg. He fell down and Kalu gave kick and fist blows upon him. He raised hues and cries, at which his cousin Gurdeep Singh reached at the spot. He also raised hue and cry. On seeing people gathering at the spot, the said persons ran away from the spot alongwith their weapons. Thereafter, on the basis of above said statement of complainant, this case was registered and police proceedings were initiated.

3. Notice of the bail application was issued to the State, as a result of which learned APP for the State put in appearance on behalf of State. Record of concerned police was also requisitioned, which was received.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant argued that the accused has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any alleged crime. He also argued that nothing is to be recovered from the applicant and he is ready to join the investigation and as such, he may be granted anticipatory bail.

5. On the other hand, the learned Addl. PP for the State argued that the bail-applicant alongwith his other co-accused have committed serious offence of voluntarily inflicting serious injuries on the person of complainant and his custodial interrogation is necessary and thus, this bail application may be dismissed.

6. Perusal of the record reveals that there is only one injured in this case namely complainant Amandeep Singh who is having 6 injuries on his person, only two of which are sharp in nature. However as per the medical record, none of the said injuries has been declared to be grievous in nature. There is also an alleged delay in lodging of FIR whose effect is to be seen at the trial stage. The bail applicant at this stage is ready to join the investigation. This court is of the opinion that custodial interrogation of the accused/ bail applicant is not indispensable at this stage and the purpose of furtherance of the investigation can be achieved by directing the bail applicant to join and co-operate in the investigation. Further no other FIR is stated to be there against the applicant. His co-accused has already been granted anticipatory bail in this case. Thus, in view of the said factors and without commenting upon the merits of the case, applicant Gurdeep Singh is directed to surrender before the Investigating/Arresting Officer within 07 days from today and assist/co-operate the investigation agency and further on their surrender within above stipulated period, he shall be admitted on interim bail on furnishing the bail bonds and surety bonds subject to the satisfaction of the concerned Investigating/Arresting Officer. On failure to comply this order within that prescribed period by the applicants/accused, this order shall stand vacated. This order of interim bail to the applicant/accused is subject to the compliance of necessary provisions of Section 482 (2) of the BNSS by him. Police record be returned forthwith.

7. Let compliance report and further progress report qua that investigation proceedings be awaited for 12.05.2025.

Pronounced in open Court.
