

*In the Court of Sh. Rakesh Kumar
Additional Sessions Judge,
Ferozepur.*

Bail Application No.363/10.07.2018

Internet No. BA 1437/2018

Date of order 17.07.2018

CNR No.PBFZO100-3720-2018

1. Rakesh Kumar aged 53 years son of Amar Lal, resident of House No.34, Subash Colony, Zira, District Ferozepur Adhar No.817262483085,
2. Ruffi aged 30 years son of Rakesh Kumar, resident of House No.34, Subash Colony, Zira, District Ferozepur, Adhar No.946691315130.

.... Applicants.

Versus

State of Punjab.

.... Respondent.

FIR No. Nil Dated Nil

Under Sections 15/18/21/22/61/85 NDPS Act

Section 307/353/326/308/379/148/149/379-B

/420/465/467/468/471/474/499/409/406/407/408/120-B of

IPC Section 3-4 of SC & ST Act, and 25/27/54/59 of Arms Act, and 107/151 Cr. P.C.

PS: City Zira, Sadar Zira, Mallanwala and Makhu.

Present: Sh. G. S. Gill, Advocate for the applicants;
Sh. B. S. Kamboj, Additional PP for the State.

ORDER

Arguments have been heard on bail application of above referred applicants in the above referred case.

2. The counsel for the applicants has contended that applicant is the staunch supporter of Akali Dal Party and BJP. Now when the guard of government had been changed in the state and the opposite party/congress party was threatening to involve the applicant in false criminal case. He has further contended that there was no chance of absconding or tempering with the prosecution evidence.

3. Reports from PS Makhu, Mallanwala and PS City Zira received. As per reports no FIR is registered against the applicants. In view of the report made in the applications, the present application is dismissed. However, the police authorities/IO are directed to issue five days prior notice in case they choose to effect the arrest of the present applicants in any circumstances. File be consigned to record room.

Pronounced

17.07.2018

Vikas Stenographer Gr.-II

(Rakesh Kumar),
Additional Sessions Judge,

Ferozepur.
UID No.-PB-0138