

Partition Suit No. 186 of 2024

Order No. 08 dated 01.06.2026

Today is fixed for hearing of plaintiffs' temporary injunction petition and awaiting S/R and appearance of proforma defendant no. 2 and 3.

Plaintiffs are present by filing a petition supported by an affidavit, praying for extension of the ad-interim order of injunction.

Defendant no.1 filed two petitions praying for further time to file written statement and written objection. It appears that said defendant appeared on 08.04.2024 and thereby the statutory period available to himself to file written statement, as per provision of Order 8 Rule 1 of Civil Procedure Code, has already elapsed.

Considering the above circumstance I find no reason to grant further time to the above defendant to file written statement and accordingly the petition today filed by them praying for further time to file written statement and written objection is considered and rejected.

Hence, the suit shall be proceeded exparte against defendant no.1.

Received SR of summons issued upon defendant no. 2 namely State of West Bengal has duly served on 08.08.2025.

Since despite of due service none appeared for said defendant even after expiry of almost one year, I find no reason to further drag the suit and decided to proceed exparte against said defendant also.

Hence, the suit shall also be proceeded against proforma defendant no. 2 namely State of West Bengal.

Received no SR in respect of proforma defendant no. 3.

Today plaintiffs also filed requisites for issuance of fresh summons upon proforma defendant no. 3 namely Block Land and Land Reforms Officer, Murshidabad – Jiaganj Block (through post only).

D.A. to issue the same, if otherwise found proper.

Fixed 07.09.2026 for exparte hearing of plaintiffs' temporary injunction petition and awaiting S/R and appearance of proforma defendant no. 3.

The ad interim order of injunction dated 07.03.2024 is hereby further extended till next date.
