

Partition Suit No. 386 of 2025

Order No. 02 dated 15/05/2025.

Record is put up today by the plaintiffs to move their injunction application for an ad interim injunction.

As per endorsement of Sheristadar, no caveat is pending.

Accordingly, the record is taken up for hearing of plaintiffs' prayer for ad interim injunction.

Heard Learned Advocate S.M Mainul Haque appearing for the Plaintiffs. Perused the injunction petition and the documents filed by the plaintiffs.

On consideration of the submission of learned advocate for the plaintiffs, the contents of their relied documents, It appears that there is substantial contradiction in between the pleading as well as the documents relied by the Plaintiffs as to their claim of acquisition of the suit property by the Plaintiffs. As such I do not find enough prima facie case as well as strong urgency which may justify passing of an ad interim order without affording an opportunity to the other side to contest the prayer for injunction.

Accordingly I do not inclined to pass any ad interim order of injunction as prayed for and the same is consequently refused at this stage.

Issue notice upon the principal defendants asking them to file show-cause within 15 days of receiving the same, as to why the Plaintiffs' prayer for temporary injunction shall not be allowed.

Fix 13-06-2025 for awaiting SR of injunction notice and further order.

Documents may be returned to the plaintiffs, on usual undertaking to refile the same, if called for.

Plaintiffs to file requisite at once.
