

Ram Singh vs State of Punjab

F.I.R.No.90 dated 18.08.2025

Under Sections : 115(2), 118(1), 303(2), 190, 191(3) of BNS
(old Sections 323, 324, 379, 148, 149 of IPC) (offence U/s 118(2) of BNS (326 of IPC added later on)
Police Station: Rureke Kalan.

Present: Sh. KS Mann, Advocate counsel for applicant/accused.
Sh. Gagandeep Bhardwaj, Public Prosecutor for the State.
Sh. JS Dhaliwal, Adv, counsel for the complainant.

Police record produced and perused. Ld.counsel appearing on behalf of applicant contended that applicant has been falsely implicated in the present FIR. That the offence under Section 118(2) of BNS has been added later on. That as per allegations, the injury attributed to the applicant is on the little finger of right hand, however the same is simple in nature. That the civil dispute is also pending qua the alleged piece of land. That applicant does not have any criminal antecedents. That co-accused Kuldeep Singh has already been granted interim protection. That applicant is ready to join the investigation and to cooperate in the investigation with regard to the recovery as well.

On the other hand, ld.Public Prosecutor on instructions from ASI Bhola Singh has not controverted the fact that the injury attributed to the applicant is simple in nature. That the offence under Section 118(2) of BNS has been added later on. That applicant does not have any criminal antecedents. That the civil dispute is also pending qua the alleged piece of land. That co-accused Kuldeep Singh has already been granted interim protection.

Ld.counsel for the complainant has stated that there are specific allegations against the applicant and keeping in view the nature of allegations, the applicant does not deserve the concession of anticipatory bail.

After considering the above, since co-accused Kuldeep Singh has already been granted interim protection. The applicant does not have any criminal antecedents and civil dispute is also pending between the parties. Furthermore, it is contended that applicant is ready to join investigation and to cooperate in the investigation with regard to the recovery as well, matter is adjourned to 23.09.2025 and in the mean time interim protection is granted to the applicant and applicant/accused is directed to join investigation with Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer and to cooperate in investigation with regard to the recovery as well. It is made clear to the Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer that in the event of arrest of the applicant, he shall be released on interim bail on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Investigating Officer/Arresting Officer. The applicant shall be abide by the terms and conditions incorporated U/s.482 (2) of BNSS.

Let, record be now produced on 23.09.2025.
