

IN THE COURT OF CIVIL JUDGE (JR. DIVN.) LALBAGH, MURSHIDABAD

TITLE SUIT – 134 OF 2024

PRESENT BEFORE : AMRITA DEY

JO CODE : WB01380

Order No. 10 Dated : 17.03.2026

Today is fixed for exparte injunction hearing & SR and AD.

Both parties are present by filing haziras.

Plaintiff files a petition praying for extension of ad-interim injunction order.

Heard. Considered.

Defendant files a petition praying for vacating exparte order.

Learned Counsel for the defendant submitted that as the advocate could not take the date, the defendant could not take proper steps and as such, this court was pleased to fixed this case as exparte hearing. Ld. Counsel also submitted that this court may for the interest of natural justice be set aside the exparte order and give a chance to the defendant for contesting the suit.

Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff raised vehement objection against the petition filed by the defendant and prayed for rejection of the same.

Having heard the submission of both parties and going through the record, this court is of the view that for the principle of natural justice, the defendant should get a chance to contest the suit as the defendant has already filed the W/O and W/S.

Therefore, on the basis of the above observation, the petition so filed by the defendant for vacating the exparte order is hereby allowed on contest without cost.

Extension petition being redundant is thus disposed of.

TITLE SUIT – 134 OF 2024

Later:- (dated 17.03.2026)

Today is fixed for injunction hearing.

Both the parties are present by filing hazira.

Having heard the submission of Ld. Counsels for both parties and after going through the documents filed by both parties, this Court is of the modest understanding that, both the parties of this suit have been able to show their respective status over the suit property. Therefore, on the basis of the above observation it will not be possible to ascertain or presumed the real status of the parties of this case at this stage, as both of them submitted documents in support of their contention. So, on the basis of the above mentioned grounds, this Court is of the opinion that, to keep the subject matter of this case in the same nature, character and possession the following order is being passed.

Hence, it is,

ORDERED

That the application for temporary injunction filed by the petitioner is disposed of on contest but without cost.

All the parties of this case are hereby directed to maintain status quo in respect of nature, character and possession in regard to the schedule mentioned property, as its stands today till disposal of this case.

Fix 06.06.2026 for framing of issues.
