

Order no 28 dated 27/11/17

Today the date is fixed for hearing of amendment petition dated 15.05.13 filed by the defendants.

Ld advocate for the plaintiff is present and ready.

Ld advocate for the defendants filed an adjournment petition praying for time on the ground that Ld advocate could not prepare in hearing of the petition. But none move the petition.

Ld advocate for the plaintiff raised vehement objection.

On perusal of the case record it reveals that the petition was filed on 15.05.13 after shifting the case record from the P board. Thereafter about 14 adjournment were granted to the defendant, but they failed to move the petition. As such, I am not inclined to allow the petition.

The adjournment petition is rejected. And the amendment petition dated 15.05.13 filed by the defendants, is also rejected for default.

To _____ for further evidence of PW1.
