

Amrik Singh Vs. State of Punjab

F.I.R.No.144 dated 17.10.2021
Under Sections : 353,332,186,34 of IPC
Police Station: Dhanoula.

Present: Sh.Pankaj Kumar Advocate counsel for applicant/accused.
Mrs.Sukhraj Kaur Addl.Public Prosecutor for State.

Learned counsel for applicant contended that the applicant is not named in FIR. That main allegations are against co-accused Kulwinder Singh, who has already been arrested. It is alleged that unknown person was accompany Kulwinder Singh, who had abused the complainant. That allegations are that applicant alongwith co-accused allegedly obstructed complainant in discharging official duty, whereas as per contents of FIR, complainant had already checked the house and thereafter while standing outside the house, alleged incident has taken place. That third party motive has been attributed.

On the other hand, learned Addl.Public Prosecutor on instructions from SI Manjit Singh, Investigating Officer has not controverted the above facts and has specifically submitted that the main accused Kulwinder Singh has already been arrested.

After considering the above, as nothing is to be recovered from the applicant and that main accused has already been arrested, interim protection is granted to the applicant till next date of hearing and applicant/accused is directed to join investigation with Investigating

Officer/arresting Officer and it is made clear to the Investigating Officer/arresting Officer that in the event of arrest of the applicant, he shall be released on interim bail on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Investigating Officer/arresting Officer. The applicant shall abide by the terms and conditions incorporated U/s.438 (2) of Cr.P.C.

To come up on 16.01.2023.
