Criminal Misc. Case No. 293 of 2026

Order No. 02
06-03-2026

The application for anticipatory bail U/s 482 of the BNSS filed on behalf of accused/petitioners, namely, (1) Anowar Hossain Mondal @ Kalu who apprehends arrest in connection with Tehatta P.S. Case No. 836/2012 dated 21.11.2012 under sections 382/395/412 of the IPC is taken up for hearing along with LCR and CD.

Heard Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioner as well as Learned Public Prosecutor.

At the outset, Learned Advocates of both sides state that no similar bail application is preferred, pending before or rejected by any Higher Court of law.

Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioner, while moving the application under section 482 of the BNSS, submits before the Court that petitioner is not named in the FIR. C.S. has been submitted in this case. He has further submitted that some accused persons was enlarged on bail and some accused persons are still abscond. So, on any condition, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the accused/petitioner should be allowed.

On the other hand, Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. It has been stated that charge sheet has been submitted showing the present accused person absconder.

Considered the submissions of both sides.

Perused the materials on record and CD.

Having heard submission of both sides, as aforesaid and perusing the materials in LCR and CD and other materials placed before me, it appears that in the instant case allegation is serious and there has been prima facie case made out. Investigation is completed and charge sheet has been submitted showing the present accused petitioner absconder.

However, considering the materials on record as well as C.D. and also considering the nature of offence, I am not inclined to allow the prayer for anticipatory bail filed under section 482 of the BNSS to the accused/petitioner, above-mentioned.

Hence, the prayer for anticipatory bail under section 482 of the BNSS stands rejected.

CD and LCR be returned.

Criminal Misc. Case, is, thus, finally disposed of.
