Criminal Misc. Case No. 370 of 2026

Order No. 02
06-03-2026

The application for anticipatory bail U/s 482 of the BNSS filed on behalf of accused/petitioners, namely, (1) Raja Ghosh, (2) Bablu Ghosh, (3) Chayna Ghosh @ Chaina, (4) Asish Ghosh and (5) Puja Ghosh who apprehend arrest in connection with Tehatta P.S. Case No. 86/2026 dated 06.02.2026 under sections 85/115(2)/109/3(5) of the BNS, 2023 is taken up for hearing along with LCR and CD.

Heard Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioners as well as Learned Public Prosecutor.

At the outset, Learned Advocates of both sides state that no similar bail application is preferred, pending before or rejected by any Higher Court of law.

Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioners, while moving the application under section 482 of the BNSS, submits before the Court that petitioner no. 1 being the husband and petitioner no. 2 to 5, being the in-laws of the complainant and they have been falsely implicated in this case. The allegation against these accused/petitioners are totally false. There is nothing in the injury report to attract Section 109 of BNS. So, on any condition, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the accused/petitioners should be allowed.

On the other hand, Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. It has been stated that there has been allegation of assault upon complainant by petitioners and they tried to kill her by throttling.

Considered the submissions of both sides.

Perused the materials on record and CD.

Having heard submission of both sides, as aforesaid and perusing the materials in LCR and CD and other materials placed before me, it appears that there has been allegation that the accused assaulted and tried to kill the complainant by throttling and on hearing her hue and cry para people came to rescue but from the C.D. it appears that one witness has been examined but he did not state that on hearing hue and cry he along with other para people came and rescued the complainant. No injury report is found as the victim was never treated by any doctor.

However, considering the materials on record as well as C.D., I am inclined to allow the prayer for anticipatory bail filed under section 482 of the BNSS to the accused/petitioners, above-mentioned.

Hence, the prayer for anticipatory bail under section 482 of the BNSS stands allowed.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, in connection with the above-mentioned case, each of the accused/petitioners, stated above, shall be released on bail on furnishing bond of Rs. 4000/- with two sureties of Rs. 2000/- each, subject to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and on conditions as is envisaged under Section 482(2) of the BNSS with direction upon the accused/petitioners to meet the Investigating Officer as and when called for and they must co-operate with the Investigating Officer during investigation.

CD and LCR be returned.

Criminal Misc. Case, is, thus, finally disposed of.
