Criminal Misc. Case No. 576 of 2026

Order No. 02
25-03-2026

The application for anticipatory bail U/s 482 of the BNSS filed on behalf of accused/petitioners, namely, (1) Kinkar Saha @ Kingkar, (2) Koushik Saha, (3) Krishna Kar and (4) Akash Sarkar @ Banti who apprehend arrest in connection with Santipur P.S. Case No. 339/2026 dated 06.03.2026 under sections 126(2)/115(2)/117(2)/118(2)/109(1)//3(5) of the BNS, is taken up for hearing along with LCR and CD.

Heard Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioners as well as Learned Public Prosecutor.

At the outset, Learned Advocates of both sides state that no similar bail application is preferred, pending before or rejected by any Higher Court of law.

Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioners, while moving the application under section 482 of the BNSS, submits before the Court that accused petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. It has been stated that father of the injured lodged this case against these accused/petitioners over the issue of assault upon his son with iron rod. There is hardly any ingredients to attract the offence under section 109 of the BNS. So, on any condition, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the accused/petitioners should be allowed.

On the other hand, Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail referring to the injury report and other materials in CD.

Considered the submissions of both sides.

Perused the materials on record and CD.

Having heard, the submissions of both sides, as aforesaid and perusing the materials in LCR and CD, injury report and other materials placed before me, it appears that these accused/petitioners are named in the FIR. There has been allegation against these accused/petitioners with regard to assault upon the victim but from the injury report it appears that he was assaulted with fists and blows.

However, considering the materials on record as well as C.D. and also considering the injury report, I am inclined to allow the prayer for anticipatory bail filed under section 482 of the BNSS to the accused/petitioners, above-mentioned.

Hence, the prayer for anticipatory bail under section 482 of the BNSS stands allowed.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, in connection with the above-mentioned case, each of the accused/petitioners, stated above, shall be released on bail on furnishing bond of Rs. 4000/- with two sureties of Rs. 2000/- each, subject to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and on conditions as is envisaged under Section 482(2) of the BNSS with direction upon the accused/petitioners to meet the Investigating Officer as and when called for and they must co-operate with the Investigating Officer during investigation.

CD and LCR be returned.

Criminal Misc. Case, is, thus, finally disposed of.
