Heard Learned Advocate for the petitioner as well as Learned Public Prosecutor.

At the outset, Learned Advocates of both sides state that no similar bail application is preferred, pending before or rejected by any Higher Court of law.

Rummaging the materials so far available, I find that the FIR was registered on 18.02.2026 over the incident happened on that date.

Defacto complainant is the BL & LRO. It is serious allegation against the present petitioner and others that they produced false deeds and documents even death certificate and tried to record the their names in respect of the land, in question.

Father's name of the present petitioner is altogether different, as per the investigation report.

It is submitted by the Learned Advocate for the petitioner that pin-point allegation is against the husband of the present petitioner and he was in custody for a considerable period and thereafter, has been enlarged on bail.

Objection is been raised by the Public Prosecutor.

Considered the submissions of both sides.

Perused the materials on record and in CD.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, the materials available in the CD and being conceived by the submissions made by both sides and also considering that the present petitioner is a lady, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner, above named, under section 482 of the BNSS stands allowed.

The petitioner, above named, is directed to surrender before the Learned JM, Nabadwip within ten days from this day of passing the order.

In case the petitioner, above named, surrenders before the concerned Learned Court, he may find bail of Rs.10000/- with two sureties of Rs.5000/- each, one of them must be a cash surety by way of fixed deposit certificate, NSC certificate, etc., subject to the satisfaction of Learned JM, Nabadwip and on conditions as is envisaged under Section 482(2) of the BNSS, with further direction upon the petitioner, above named, that she will cooperate with investigating officer for the purpose of investigation, till the submission of report by the investigating officer.
