Criminal Misc. Case No.1349 of 2026

Order No.04
16.07.2026

The application for anticipatory bail U/s 482 of the BNSS filed on behalf of accused/petitioner Bhola Das who apprehends arrest in connection with Taherpur P.S. Case No.194/2025 dated 29.04.2025 under sections 126(2)/117(2)/115(2)/3(5)/74/76/3(5) of the BNS, 2023 is taken up for hearing along with LCR and CD.

Heard Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioner as well as Learned Public Prosecutor.

At the outset, Learned Advocates of both sides state that no similar bail application is preferred, pending before or rejected by any Higher Court of law.

Learned Advocate for the accused/petitioner, while moving the application under section 482 of the BNSS, submits before the Court that the accused/petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case, owing to the dispute between the party. Moreso, charge sheet has already been submitted. So, on any condition, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the accused/petitioner should be allowed.

On the other hand, Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail referring to the materials available in CD. He further submits that charge sheet has been submitted in the meantime.

Considered the submissions of both sides.

Perused the materials on record and CD.

Having heard submission of both sides, as aforesaid and perusing the materials in LCR and CD, confidential statement of the victim and other materials placed before me, it appears that there is allegation against the present petitioner with regard to outraging of modesty. However, it is evident from CD that by this time, charge sheet has been submitted.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the materials available in the CD and that charge sheet has been submitted in the meantime, I do not find any justification requiring the custodial interrogation of the accused/petitioner, above-mentioned, for the sake of investigation and as such, I am inclined to allow the prayer for anticipatory bail filed under section 482 of the BNSS to the accused/petitioner, above named.

Hence, the prayer for anticipatory bail under section 482 of the BNSS stands allowed.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest, in connection with the above-mentioned case, the accused/petitioner, stated above, shall be released on bail on furnishing bond of Rs.5000/- with two sureties of Rs.2500/- each, subject to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and on conditions as is envisaged under Section 482(2) of the BNSS.

CD and LCR be returned.

Criminal Misc. Case, is, thus, finally disposed of.
