MR Maintenance Case No. 68 of 2020

Present: O.T. Lepcha

Dated : 22-03-2021

The record is taken up today as the date fixed is holiday.

Petitioner, Anu Mojumdar, 4 yrs, is represented by her grand mother Suparna Mojumdar. She seeks interim maintenance u/S. 125 of Cr.P.C. from the OP to the tune of Rs. 7,000/- per month. She alleges that OP has utterly neglected his minor daughter to maintain her who is now residing with her grand mother. The minor petitioner's mother is no more and a case is pending against the OP accusing him u/s 498A/304/34 IPC. It is submitted that the minor child of the OP has been neglected to such an extent by the OP that it is finding hard for her guardian to maintain her. OP as per the petition runs a business from where he earns approximately Rs. 20,000/- per month and that he has neglected to maintain the petitioner.

Having gone through the submission of Ld. Advocate and the fact that petitioner is living with her grand mother and that she is required to be looked after by the OP pending this case. In view of such position, OP is duty bound in law to maintain the petitioner. Hence, prayer is accepted. I am of the view that, considering the present position, I find that it would be fit and proper if OP be ordered to pay interim maintenance to the tune of Rs. 2000/- to the petitioner.
