Later

The sole accused along with his Ld. Advocate and Ld. A.P.P are present before this Court.

The case record is taken up for delivery of judgment.

The judgment is ready in separate sheets under my seal and signature and is pronounced in Open Court today in presence of both the sides.

Let it be kept with the record.

The ordering portion of the judgment is as follows:-

“Hence, it is

that the accused namely 1. Tufan Sk. (A1) is found not guilty of the offence punishable under section– 341/326 of I.P.C and accordingly, the above-named accused is hereby acquitted under section 248 (1) of Cr.P.C from this case.

In view of Sec. 437-A Cr.P.C. the accused having presented a petition to permit him to remain on the terms and conditions of the previous bail bonds, the prayer is allowed. He is permitted to remain on self same bond for the next six months with direction upon him to appear before the Appellate Court as and when any appeal is filed against this judgment within such period.

Seized articles, if any, be disposed off, as per law after the appeal period is over.

In compliance with the direction of the Hon’ble High Court in Sabitri Bhunya— Vs--The State of West Bengal and Others in CRA 266 of 2020 (decision on 29-03-2022), it is hereby endorsed by this Court that the victim has the right to prefer an appeal under proviso to Section 372 of Cr.P.C and if necessary, to avail free legal assistance through the legal services authorities concerned to prefer and prosecute such appeal.

Let a copy of this judgment of acquittal be forwarded to the District Magistrate, Nadia and District Legal Services Authority, Nadia for due intimation to the victim in compliance with the aforesaid direction of the Hon’ble High Court.”

Thus, petition filed u/s- 437-A of Cr.P.C by the accused, after pronouncing the judgment, stands disposed off accordingly.

D/A is directed to upload the softcopy of this judgment and this Order in “C.I.S” at once so as to enable the parties and the Ld. Counsels to access the same from e-courts website and necessary noting be made in the relevant register accordingly.
