Vs.

Inspector of Police,
Manapparai P.S., Trichy Cr.No. 306/2026

...Respondent

This petition coming before me for hearing, on this day, in the presence of Thiru. P. Savarimuthu, Public Prosecutor for the State and of advocate Thiru. S.. Veeramani, for the petitioners in Cr.M.P. No. 2000/2026 and 2001/2026 and after hearing both sides and considering these necessary materials, this court today passed the following:-

COMMON ORDER

These 2 applications are for bail filed u/s. 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

FIR was registered against the petitioners and other accused for the offences u/s. 191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) and 324(5) of BNS, 2023. The petitioners are A1, A5 to A8 in this case. The occurrence happened on 23.05.2026. The petitioners have been in judicial custody from 24.05.2026 onwards.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned counsel for the petitioners contended that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any such offence and hence, prays to grant bail to the petitioners.

On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that the injured were discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners and the investigation is pending and hence objected to grant bail to the petitioners.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records would show that when the defacto complainant and his co-brother returned to their home town after completing their work, the accused who came in four two-wheelers waylaid the car and attacked the defacto complainant punched on his nose and attacked his co-brother with a wooden log and thrown a stone on his car and caused damages his car and gave life threats and caused injuries to them and the injured were discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. The occurrence happened on 23.05.2026. The petitioners have been in judicial custody from 24.05.2026 onwards. Considering the period of custody of the petitioners and also considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners in both petitions on bail with the following conditions ;

1. The petitioners/accused in both petitions are ordered to be released on bail on executing their own bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai.
2. The petitioners/accused in both petitions shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M., until further orders.
3. The petitioners/accused in both petitions shall make themselves available for interrogation by the police officer as and when required.
4. The petitioners/accused in both petitions shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
5. The petitioners/accused in both petitions shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
6. The Magistrate/Trial court on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners/accused in both petitions in accordance with law as if the conditions has been imposed and the petitioners/accused in both petitions were released on bail by the Magistrate/Trial Judge himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala {(2005) AIR SCW 5560}.

7. If the petitioners/accused in both petitions thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered u/s. 269 of BNS, 2023.

Pronounced by me, in the open court, on this the 5th day of June 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge, Tiruchirappalli.

Copy to:

1. The Petitioner through petitioner's counsel.
2. The Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai, Tiruchirappalli.
