Criminal Misc. Case No.2516 of 2026

Smriti Ranjan Mridha V/s The state.

Order no. 02 dated 16.07.2026:

The instant application u/s. 483 of B.N.S.S filed by the petitioner, Smriti Ranjan Mridha in c/w Madhyamgram P.S. case No.872/2025 dated 04.11.2025 u/s. 318(4)/319(2)/111(2)/308(6)/61(2) of B.N.S and 66C/66D of I.T. Act is taken up for hearing and order.

T.C.R. has been received. C.D is produced.

Heard the learned advocate for the petitioner accused and the learned P.P In-charge.

Ld. Advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been languishing in custody for a considerable period of time. He further submits that only mobile phone and sim card have been seized and no other article has been recovered and that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and that no such incident as alleged ever took place. In view of that, there is no need for further custodial detention and at this stage, he may be enlarged on bail under any conditions. Ld. Counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is a local person who will not abscond and he is ready to face the trial diligently and considering the same in any stringent terms and condition, the accd may be released on bail. He further submits that no such application of this petitioner has either been moved before or rejected by the Hon'ble Court on any previous occasion. Hence, he prays for grant of bail of the accused petitioner on any condition as deemed fit.

Ld. P.P in charge raises objection and submits that the statements recorded under Section 180 of B.N.S.S are lying with the C.D. He also submits that many complaints were lodged against the present petitioner.

Hd. Perused. Considered.

There is allegation of inter state cyber crime in which the on-line portal of the victim has been hacked and a huge amount of money has been siphoned off to the different bank accounts. There is an allegation of an organized cybercrime network functioning under the guise of a non—profit or charitable trust. Numerous complaints have been lodged against the present petitioner. Investigation is in full swing and there is overwhelming materials against this accd person as well.

Considering the seriousness of the allegation, it does not appear to be a fit case for granting bail though he is detained in custody for about 50 days. Hence, his bail prayer is rejected.

T.C.R. be returned.
