

Misc Case 05/2025

Order dt.28.02.25.

The record is put up today as the petitioner files one application praying for the leave to submit the main application afresh on the ground that in the application already on record she has failed to disclose some vital points which have bearing upon the merit of the case. It is also submitted that although the record was fixed for S.R & A/D, she has not yet filed the requisites. She added that in the instant application she has also articulated the schedule of the proposed amendment.

Heard.

Considered.

Perused the instant application, specially the schedule above mentioned, the main application, the materials on record.

On being asked BC-I disclosed that the notice has not yet been issued.

Considering the above facts and circumstances, I think in order to avoid unnecessary complications the prayer should be allowed.

Hence, the application is hereby allowed.

The petitioner is hereby given the liberty to file the application afresh incorporating the proposed amendment by the next date.

To date.
