

State vs Mohkam Singh etc.

CIS No.CHI-195/2017

Present: Sh.Vijay Kumar, learned APP for State.
Accused on bail with counsel Sh.G.S.Dhillon, Adv.
Complainant Dilbagh Singh with counsel Sh.Jawahar Chandan, Adv.

Heard on application moved by complainant Dilbagh Singh for permission to get the offences compounded in the present case.

Challan in this case has been presented under Sections 323, 325 of the Indian Penal Code. Offence under Section 323 of the Indian Penal Code is compoundable at the instance of person injured i.e complainant Dilbagh Singh without permission of the Court, whereas offence under Section 325 IPC is compoundable at the instance of person injured i.e. complainant Dilbagh Singh with permission of the Court.
Complainant has also placed on record original compromise. Parties have arrived at a compromise in order to bury the hatchet. The basic object of criminal law is to keep peace and harmony in the society. Hence, the offences are hereby compounded and accused are acquitted. Their bail bonds and surety bonds stand discharged.

File be consigned to Judicial Record Room, Sri Anandpur
Sahib after due compliance.

Pronounced in the open Court:
Dated: 28.09.2017
Jaswinder Singh STG-II

Sachal Babbar, PCS,
Judicial Magistrate Ist Class,
Sri Anandpur Sahib.