This is a case u/s.13 of the Hindu Marriage Act,1955.

The case of the petitioner in brief, is that, her marriage with the respondent was solemnized on 17.01.2000 as per Hindu rites and customs and after the said marriage she started residing with the respondent as husband and wife and their marriage was duly consummated and in the said wedlock three children were born, namely, Soundarya Bhadra, Sanjukta Bhadra and Rajdeep Bhadra and they are now living with the petitioner/wife. After few days of their marriage petitioner noticed some change in the behaviour of her husband and her in laws. They started inflicting torture physically and mentally on demand of more dowry. The respondent is a drunkard and every night used to come home in drunken state and assaulted the petitioner. With the intervention of local people and her other family members reconciliation was made but no fruitful result is yielded. On 03.08.2019 the petitioner was driven out from her matrimonial home with her children. Thereafter on 04.08.2019 petitioner reported the matter to Gobordanga P.S. and lodged a GDE. The respondent has no love and affections towards the petitioner and also to the children and after the said incident the respondent did not provide any single penny for the petitioner and her children. Finding no other alternative petitioner compelled to file a maintenance case under Section 125, Cr.P.C. before the Ld. CJM, Barasat vide M. Case No. 188/2021. On 10.01.2025 the petitioner along with her son went to her matrimonial home to ask about their future but the respondent denied to meet with them and also abused them. Finding no other alternative petitioner filed the instant suit praying for decree of divorce.

The respondent made his appearance on 19.01.2026 but thereafter did not turn up for which this Court fixed the matter for ex parte hearing.

To substantiate her contention, the petitioner adduced evidence as PW1 and her mother adduced as PW2.

From the unchallenged and corroborated testimony of PW1 and PW2 it appears that she had successfully proved her case and entitled to get the decree of divorce.
