Heard the parties.

Petitioner no. 1 and petitioner no. 2 are the wife and husband by relation, whose marriage was solemnized on 12.11.2011 according to Hindu Rites and Customs. After marriage the parties started leading happy conjugal life and out of their wedlock one female child was born. Thereafter several dispute arose between them because of difference of temperament, habits culture and contumacious manner cropped up between the parties and it was increased day by day. The said dispute could not be reconciled by their families and friends. Hence, the instant suit u/s. 13B of Hindu Marriage Act is filed with a prayer for granting divorce on mutual consent.

This case was filed on 07.07.2025 and now comes up for hearing on 05.06.2026. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, the petition for divorce and the evidence adduced by the parties it appears that due to their difference of temperament, habits culture and contumacious manner which has been increased day by day parties are unable to live together and they are residing separately on and from 18.10.2018. In view of the deteriorating conjugal relation, they ultimately decided to terminate such relationship by praying for mutual divorce and accordingly filed this application u/s- 13B of Hindu Marriage Act by their respective Lawyers.

It is established through their respective unchallenged testimony on oath that their consent is free, voluntary and not obtained by exercising undue influence, fraud and coercion. As such the prayer of the petitioners should be allowed.
