

Order dated: 24.07.2026

Today is fixed for argument and judgment.

The accused person is present. Case record is taken up for argument with the consent of both sides.

Heard the argument by both sides.

I am ready for delivery of Judgment.

Judgment is ready in prescribed form in four pages.

It is sealed, signed, pronounced and delivered in open Court. I am ready for delivery of Judgment.

Having gone through the entire prosecution evidence on record I am of the view that the prosecution has miserably failed to prove the case against the accused person.

The operative portion of the judgment is read over and explained in the presence of all which is as follows:

Hence, it is

that the accused person namely Abhijit Das is found not guilty of committing any offence punishable under sections 189/ 506 of Indian Penal Code, 1860. The accused person is acquitted from this case as per provisions of section 255(1) of criminal procedure code and the accused person is discharged from his bail bond at once.

Any amount seized in connection of this case be disposed of as per the provision of law after endorsing the name of the receiver of the amount.

Dictated and corrected by me.
