1. Today is fixed for hearing on the point of acceptance of the written statement and for further consideration.
2. The learned Advocate for the plaintiff appears and files a hazira along with an extension petition, supported by an affidavit, registered as I.A. No. 02/2026, praying for extension of the ad interim order, which remained in force till today. A copy of the said application has neither been served upon the defendant nor enclosed with the record.
3. The learned Advocate for the defendant appears and files a hazira along with an adjournment petition praying for time to file a written objection to the application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure on the grounds stated therein. A copy of the said petition has neither been served upon the plaintiff nor enclosed with the record.
4. The matter is taken up for hearing on the point of acceptance of the written statement. The learned Advocate for the defendant submits that, since the summons was received on 19.06.2026, the written statement has been filed within the statutory period of 30 days as prescribed under the proviso to Order V Rule 1(1) of the Code of Civil Procedure, as applicable to commercial disputes under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015, and accordingly prays for its acceptance.

The learned Advocate for the plaintiff fairly concedes that the written statement has been filed within the stipulated period of 30 days.

Perused the record. The affidavit of service, along with the postal tracking reports, filed on 02.07.2026, reveals that summons was duly served under Consignment Nos. EW004165481IN and EW004163052IN on 19.06.2026 and 20.06.2026, respectively. The written statement was filed on 02.07.2026, which is well within the prescribed statutory period of 30 days.

Accordingly, the written statement filed by the defendant on 02.07.2026 is accepted and taken on record.

5. The adjournment prayer made on behalf of the defendant for filing a written objection to the injunction application is considered and allowed. The defendant is at liberty to file its written objection to the application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure after serving an advance copy upon the plaintiff at least 15 days prior to the next date of hearing.
6. Fix 05.10.2026 for hearing of the injunction application.
7. Let the ad-interim order be extended till the next date of hearing, i.e., 05.10.2026.
