Plaintiff files hazira along with an application praying for time as stated therein.

Heard, perused the application from which it reveals that this is a changed brief and the proprietor of the plaintiff has been suffering from chronic ailment and due to the same is under strict medical supervision for at least six weeks as stated in para 3 and 4 respectively of the said application.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I am of the view that plaintiff may not have total remediless. Hence, time prayer is considered and allowed to meet the ends of justice and plaintiff is to take necessary steps positively on the date fixed.

Fix 05.03.2024 for necessary steps by plaintiff positively as no further adjournment shall be entertained under any circumstances.
