04.02.2026

1. Today is fixed for appearance and further consideration.
2. The learned Advocate for the plaintiff appears and files hazira along with affidavit of service enclosing the postal receipt and the track report.
3. The learned Advocate for the defendant appears by filing fresh Vakalatnama and an adjournment petition, praying for time to file written statement on the grounds stated therein. Copy not served.
4. Heard the learned Advocates appearing for the plaintiff and the defendant. The postal receipt filed today in the affidavit of service reveals that service upon the defendant was effected on 22.01.2026 under consignment no. EW342814070IN.

The prayer for adjournment of the proceedings for today is considered and allowed for the ends of justice. However, the defendants are at liberty to file their written statement in accordance with law within 30 (thirty) days from the date of service of summons, extendable up to 120 (one hundred twenty) days with the leave of the Court and subject to terms, in terms of the proviso to sub-rule (1) of Rule 1 of Order V of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as applicable under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015.

5. Since the Vakalatnama filed today have not yet been e-filed as per the mandatory online filing procedure, the defendant is hereby directed to comply with the e-filing requirements and e-file the same within fortnight.
6. Fix 30.03.2026 for appearance and further consideration.
