

Ejectment Suit 61 of 2023
(CNR No. WBPS01-000114-2023)
Before Shri. Ashutosh Kumar Singh, Ld. Chief Judge

09.
02-02-2024.

Today is fixed for taking steps by the plaintiff.

On call Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff is found present by filing hazira along with a petition u/o 5 Rule 20 read with section 151 of C.P.Code.

The petition u/o 5 Rule 20 read with section 151 of C.P.Code is taken up for hearing.

Heard Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff. Perused the petition and materials on record.

Considered.

By filing the instant application, plaintiff has prayed for an order for service of summons upon the defendants by way of substituted service.

At the time of hearing, Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff submitted that plaintiff has filed the instant suit for eviction against the defendants praying for eviction and the summons of the suit through Court as well through registered post have been sent to the defendants, but summons could not be served upon the defendants in ordinary manner, therefore by filing the instant petition, the plaintiff has prayed for an order for service of summons upon the defendants in substituted manner.

It reveals from Order No 07 dated 07-10-2023 that as per bailiff report dt. 08-08-2023, summons returned unserved as the defendant's room was closed under lock and key.

One postal envelope with A/D has been arrived with endorsement "D/L".

So, considering the above facts and circumstances, it appears that summons in this suit cannot be served upon the defendants in the ordinarily way and the prayer of the plaintiff appears to be justified and the same is required to be allowed.

Hence,

Ejectment Suit 61 of 2023
