

ORDER BELOW EX.35

IN MACP NO.1705 OF 2023

1. Today Smt. Shilpa Ashok Jangale an official from Regional Transport Office, Pen, Dist. Raigad is present before the court. She has filed her identity card, the authority letter which is issued by RTO, Pen, Raigad dated 23.7.2026 along with an intimation stating that the summons was served upon the Regional Transport Office.

2. It is evident from the record that the learned counsel for the Insurer has filed an application vide Ex.33 for issuance of summons to Ehsan Khan, driver of the Motor Tractor No.MH-01-CR-8942 residing at Madhala Pada, near Hanuman Temple, Dolvi, Vadakhil, Taluka Pen, Dist. Raigad-402 107 which came to be allowed and the summons were issued to the concerned person named in the application and the summons were taken Humdast by the Insurer.

3. It is to mention that the summons issued by this court was intended to be served upon the driver of the offending vehicle at the address which was mentioned in the application at Ex.33 so also in the summons at Ex.34.

However, the summons which was obtained is served upon Regional Transport Office, Pen, Raigad instead of effective service upon the driver. Consequently, the RTO official has remained present before the court today since morning causing unnecessary inconvenience to a public servant and disruption of official work.

4. On being queried the Learned Counsel for the Insurer submitted that the presence of the said official is not required.

5. In view thereof the authority letter, identity card and intimation submitted by the RTO official are taken on record. Her attendance is dispensed with and she is permitted to leave.

6. The Learned Counsel for the Insurer is expected to exercise due care while taking Humdast and affecting service of summons so that unnecessary inconvenience to the government officials or witness is not caused. A copy of this order be kept on record.

7. The Learned Counsel for the Insurer is cautioned to be more careful while affecting service of Humdast of summons. Any repetition of such lapse may invite appropriate orders including cost.
