

11.5.2015 Present: Sh. R.K.Dhanotia,Adv. For the complainant.

Heard. Record perused.

This court does not hold territorial jurisdiction to try present complaint in view of law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court by judgment dated 1.8.2014 in Criminal Appeal No.2287 of 2009 titled as Dashrath Rupsingh Rathod vs. State of Maharashtra & Anr.

Present cheque has allegedly been drawn by the accused on an account maintained by him with Central Bank of India Branch Main Bazaar Santokhgarh, Una, Distt. Una, H.P. Accordingly, present complaint is ordered to be returned to the complainant after due endorsement for its presentation before appropriate court of jurisdiction, if so advised and desired. Complaint in original along with all documents be returned to the complainant and copy of complaint, copy of documents and other papers of this court be consigned to record room.

Announced.
11.5.2015

(Baljeet)
JMJC-II,Amb, Distt, Una.