At 2.00pm

Present: None for the parties despite repeated calls.

Perusal of the record reveals that complainant has been given several opportunities to furnish fresh address of the accused.

On the last date of hearing and in the morning session, the complainant had been given one final final opportunity to furnish the fresh address of the accused, however, the complainant has neither complied with the directions of the court, nor has he appeared, despite several calls, till 2.15pm.

In these circumstances, it appears that the complainant is not interested in pursuing the present complaint case. Hence, the present complaint case is dismissed in default u/s 256 Cr.PC for non prosecution.

File be consigned to the record room after necessary compliance.

Personal bond/ surety bond, if any, stands cancelled and surety, if any, stands discharged. Endorsement on any document, if any, be canceled. Original documents of surety, if any, be returned, against proper receipt. Concerned authorities be intimated.
