

In the Court of Addl. District Judge, Raghunathpur, Purulia

Present : Sri Tarak Nath Bhagat

Addl. District Judge, Raghunathpur, Purulia

Matrimonial Suit No. 110 of 2025 (Reg. No. 110 of 2025)

(CNR No. WBPU05-000287-2025)

J.O. Code No. WB00564

Anjali Paramanik -versus- Satyajit Bhandari

Dated 02.06.26

Today is fixed for reconciliation and hearing.

Both the petitioners are present by filing hazira.

Now the record is taken up for reconciliation and hearing.

According to section 23(2) of the H.M. Act 1955 it is the mandatory duty of the court to make every endeavor to bring about a reconciliation between the parties. So, this court inclines to take the matter for reconciliation at first.

Both the petitioners are present before the court for reconciliation.

In spite of sincere endeavor of this court for reconciliation of dispute between the parties, the reconciliation is failed.

This is a case under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 filed on 29.08.25 by the parties seeking divorce on mutual consent. By filing the application, the parties contended that their marriage was solemnized on 03.06.24 according to Hindu rites and customs. After the marriage they lived together as husband and wife. Due to misunderstanding and differences of opinion likings and choices, the parties have been living separately since 11.06.24 and it would not be possible for them to live together as wife and husband and they have mutually agreed that their marriage should be dissolved by a decree of divorce on mutual consent. Marriage of the parties solemnized within the jurisdiction of this court.

Parties have submitted their examination in chief on affidavit and they were tendered and discharged. The attested copy of the identity proof of the petitioners along with the marriage invitation card are filed. From the evidence of the parties I find that their marriage was solemnized and after marriage they lived together as wife and husband and they have been living separately for more than one year and the cooling period of six months has been expired.

Since there is no collusion, coercion and undue influence in filing this application and both parties have filed the application voluntarily, so the prayer for mutual divorce be allowed as all the ingredients of Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 have been fulfilled.

C. F. paid is correct.

Hence, it is,

ORDERED

that the instant application under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 is allowed on mutual consent. The marital tie in between the parties namely Anjali Paramanik and Satyajit Bhandari solemnized on 03.06.24 is hereby dissolved from this date. There shall be no order as to cost.

Copy of the order be supplied to the parties free of cost.
