Matrimonial Suit No. 139 of 2025 (Reg. No. 139 of 2025)

(CNR No. WBPU05-000413-2025)

J.O. Code No. WB00564

Sonali Adhikary -versus- Bidhan Adhikary

Order No.3 Dated 06.06.26

Today is fixed for reconciliation and hearing.

Both the petitioners are present by filing hazira.

Now the record is taken up for reconciliation and hearing.

According to section 23(2) of the H.M. Act 1955 it is the mandatory duty of the court to make every endeavor to bring about a reconciliation between the parties. So, this court inclines to take the matter for reconciliation at first.

Both the petitioners are present before the court for reconciliation.

In spite of sincere endeavor of this court for reconciliation of dispute between the parties, the reconciliation is failed.

This is a case under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 filed on 04.12.25 by the parties seeking divorce on mutual consent. By filing the application, the parties contended that their marriage was solemnized on 20.05.2012 according to Hindu rites and customs. After the marriage they lived together as husband and wife and they are blessed with two children. Due to misunderstanding and differences of opinion likings and choices, the parties have been living separately since 20.04.24 and it would not be possible for them to live together as wife and husband and they have mutually agreed that their marriage should be dissolved by a decree of divorce on mutual consent. Both the parties last resided together within the jurisdiction of this court.

Parties have submitted their examination in chief on affidavit and they were tendered and discharged. The attested copy of the identity proof of the petitioners along with birth certificate, aadhar card of the children are also filed. From the evidence of the parties I find that their marriage was solemnized and after marriage they lived together as wife and husband and they have been living separately for more than one year and the cooling period of six months has been expired.

Since there is no collusion, coercion and undue influence in filing this application and both parties have filed the application voluntarily, so the prayer for mutual divorce be allowed as all the ingredients of Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 have been fulfilled.

C. F. paid is correct.

Hence, it is,

ORDERED

that the instant application under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 is allowed on mutual consent. The marital tie in between the parties namely Sonali Adhikary and Bidhan Adhikary solemnized on 20.05.2012 is hereby dissolved from this date. There shall be no order as to cost.

Copy of the order be supplied to the parties free of cost.
