Kanwarjit Singh Versus Union of India etc Exe-282-2023

Present: Sh. Deep Chand Goyal Advocate for the decree holder.
Sh. Mithu Ram Gupta Advocate for JD Nos.1 and 2.
JD No.3 proceeded against ex-parte vide order dated 20.12.2023.

Today, learned counsel for the decree holder has suffered a statement to the effect that this execution has been wrongly filed in this Court. However, this Court has no jurisdiction to hear and try this execution application. The jurisdiction vests with the learned District Judge, Faridkot. So, a prayer has been made that original execution application along with all documents may be returned to applicant to file the same before learned District Judge, Faridkot.

Heard. Considered. In view of the statement recorded by learned counsel for the decree holder, the original execution application alongwith all documents attached with the file are ordered to be returned to the decree holder against proper identification and receipt after retaining copies thereof, as per rules. Remaining, file be consigned to the Judicial Record Room, Faridkot, after due compliance.
