The anticipatory bail application of petitioners is taken up for hearing in presence of both sides.

Ld. Advocate for the accused / petitioners submits that no such application u/Sec.482 BNSS is neither pending nor rejected before any superior Court.

Ld. Advocate for the accused / petitioners has submitted that his clients are innocent and have falsely been implicated in this case. Ld. Advocate submits that his clients have complied with the notice u/Sec.35(3) of BNSS and met with the IO. Thus he prays for bail.

Ld. Special PP-in-Charge raised objection against the prayer for bail.

Heard the Ld. Advocate for the accused / petitioners and the Ld. Special PP-in-Charge. I have also perused the materials in CD.

Considering the nature of allegation as reflected in the complaint as well as the materials available in CD and also considering the fact that the present petitioners / accused persons have complied with the notice u/Sec.35(3) of BNSS and met with the IO, I think that there is no need for custodial detention of the present accused / petitioners.

Accordingly, I am inclined to allow anticipatory bail of the accused / petitioners. In the event of arrest in connection with the above referred case accused/petitioners namely 1. Motish Roy @ Raju Roy, 2. Manasi Pramanik @ Manashi Pramanik and 3. Anup Pramanik may find bail of Rs. 5,000/- (rupees five thousand only) each with two sureties of Rs. 2500/- (rupees two thousand and five hundred only) each to the satisfaction of arresting officer with condition that they shall cooperate with I.O during investigation and shall also comply all the requirements as enumerated under section 482 (2) BNSS.
