Today is fixed for show cause by the applicant.

A hazira has been filed on behalf of the applicant but none has appeared on behalf of the applicant on calls.

It would appear that series of adjournments have been given to the petitioner to adduce evidence and thereafter on 29-08-2025 a hazira was filed on such date which was fixed for exparte hearing but none had moved for the applicant. This tribunal had directed the applicant to show cause and had fixed 15-11-2025 for show cause. On that date a petition was filed showing cause but none moved such. Even today none has moved for the claimant. It appears that the claimant is not inclined to proceed with the claim petition diligently. It appears that the claimant has come to regard this tribunal only as a drop box. Such non diligent litigants should not be allowed to proceed with the case. J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.10 dated 31-01-2026

Today is fixed for passing orders in respect of the application as filed by the accused seeking discharge.

The sole accused is absent and by a petition has prayed for time to appear. Ld PP in-charge is present. The prayer for time stands allowed.

I proceed to pass orders upon the application filed by the accused seeking discharge. Considered the submission of the Ld advocate for the accused and the Ld PP in-charge and the materials in record and in the CD.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that following a suomoto complaint made by ASI Nikhil Mondal of Bakhrahat Out post under Bishnupur PS, Bishnupur PS Case no. 638 dated 28-09-2022 was started u/sec 272/273 IPC read with section 46 AA of the Bengal Excise Act. It was alleged that on 28-09-2022 at about 9.25 a.m. the complainant received a source information that one person was selling I.d liquor to the public and thereafter a raid was held and it was found that one person was selling id liquor from his house. The raiding party tried to cordon the house but the public fled away and only the accused was apprehended. The accused admitted his guilt that he was selling id liquor to the public to earn money. No document could be shown to justify such possession and thereafter the seizure was effected and the alamsats were duly levelled.

It would appear that the seizure list dated 28-09-2022 goes to show that one plastic bottle containing id liquor was collected from the plastic jarican which contained 40 liters id liquor and such sample fluid was marked Ext.A1. On perusal of the application filed seeking discharge it would appear that the accused has stated that no forensic test report was obtained by the IO or submitted before this court till date and in absence of such report, no charge can be framed u/sec 46 AA of the Bengal Excise Act or u/sec 272/273 IPC. I have perused the entire CD and it appears that Ext.A-1 being the sample fluid had been sent to the director chemical examination laboratory by the IO but thereafter no further attempt was made by the IO to seek the Chemical examination report. The IO had also stated that supplementary charge sheet shall be submitted against the accused persons after receipt of such report. It is true that in absence of such report it cannot be determined as to whether the fluid as seized falls under the ambit of the Bengal Excise Act or not. However it is also to be considered that there is dearth of such laboratories and it takes immense time to furnish the chemical report. It would appear that section 272 IPC and section 273 IPC are triable by the Court of the Ld Judicial Magistrates. The offences under various sections of the BE Act are also triable by the Court of the Ld Judicial Magistrates save and except section 46 AA of such act which came into force by virtue of WB excise amendment Act 2012. Section 46 AA of the said act lays down that Whosoever mixes or permits to mix with liquor or any intoxicating drug any substance which is likely to cause disability or death to human beings shall punishable with imprisonment for life, or imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, and also liable to a fine. Therefore, the investigating agency must show that any intoxicating drug was either mixed by the accused or was permitted to be mixed by the accused with liqour and thereafter put to sale which endangered human life. No instrument used for mixing or any such intoxicating drug has been seized from the accused and there is also no material in the CD to show such. The only allegation that has been raised is that the accused was selling ID liquor. It was also all throughout asserted by the prosecution that the accused was only guilty of selling ID liquor. When such has not been brought forth through investigation, no charge can be framed under section 46AA of the Bengal excise Act. The rest of the alleged offences are triable by the Court of the Ld Judicial Magistrates.

Now as regards section 272 IPC and 273 IPC till date the investigating agency has not collected the forensic report. The accused is under the litigation for years that has mercilessly trampled upon the right to speedy trial. When the State has put a person under a criminal litigation, it is also the duty of the State and its investigating agencies to act with due diligence and ensure that all materials aimed at proving the guilt of the accused are duly collected. In the instant case, the IO seems to have absolutely forgotten that his duty did not end with the mere submission of the chargesheet. Moreover, a charge can be framed on the basis of the materials collected and cannot be framed only on the assumption that further incriminating materials shall stand collected. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Ram Prakash Chadha Versus The State of Uttar Pradesh and cited in 2024 LiveLaw (SC) 475 was pleased to hold as follows:

"An accused will be made to stand the ordeal of trial only if 'the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith' discloses ground for proceeding against him. When that be so, in a case where an application is filed for discharge under Section 227, Cr.PC, it is an irrecusable duty and obligation of the Court to apply its mind and answer to it regarding the existence of or otherwise, of ground for proceeding against the accused, by confining such consideration based only on the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith and after hearing the submissions of the accused and the prosecution in that behalf. To wit, such conclusion on existence or otherwise of ground to proceed against the accused concerned should not be and could not be based on mere suppositions or suspicions or conjectures, especially not founded upon material available before the Court,"

A pertinent question that whether the seized liquid was only a form of harmless fluid or any fluid that attracts the rigours of the BE act or section 272 and 273 IPC remains unanswered in the instant case on the materials brought forth. It has been opined in the judgment cited above that a charge should not be framed on mere conjectures and surmises. Without answering the question that the fluid seized was one which attracted the BE act or section 272 or section 273 of the IPC, no charge can be framed under such sections. Doing so would be the result of a surmise that the chemical report would speak in favour of the investigating agency.

I also find it proper to respectfully reiterate the observation of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as passed in the case of TUHIN KUMAR BISWAS @ BUMBA VERSUS THE STATE OF WEST BENGAL and cited in 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 1159 wherein it was held as thus:

"In a society governed by rule of law, the decision to file a chargesheet should be based on the Investigating Officer's determination of whether the evidence collected provides a reasonable prospect of conviction. The Police at the stage of filing of Chargesheet and the Criminal Court at the stage of framing of Charge must act as initial filters ensuring that only cases with a strong suspicion should proceed to the formal trial stage to maintain the efficiency and integrity of the judicial system."

In the instant case, on the materials collected, no strong suspicion can be raised against the accused. Even if the materials as collected by the investigating agency stands un rebutted, it would not entail a conviction in absence of the chemical report.

Hence, on the above considerations, it is hereby that the prayer seeking discharge is allowed.

The accused persons are set at liberty. The sureties stands released from their bail bonds. The seized articles be disposed off in accordance with law after expiry of the statutory period within which the State might approach the Higher forum being aggrieved.

Order no.4 dated 30-01-2026

The record is put up upon the submission of the Ld advocate for the revisionist who submitted that the name of the revisionist in the first page of the judgment has been stated as Sukumar Maity but he is the father of the revisionist namely Moloy Maity. Ld advocate for the revisionist also submitted that being aggrieved by the judgment passed by this court the revisionist is willing to approach the higher courts and prayed that necessary order be passed.

It does appear that the name of the revisionist is Moloy Maity but due to an inadvertent error the name has been stated in the judgment as being Sukumar Maity. Such an error can be rectified u/sec 362 Cr.P.C. Hence, the name of the revisionist be inserted in the original judgment before the name Sukumar Maity and it also be inserted that such revisionist is the son of Sukumar Maity. The clerk in-charge of the copying department is also duly directed to furnish a fresh copy of the judgment to the revisionist or to insert the alteration as finds place in the original judgment into the certified copy already issued.

The direction be complied at the earliest considering that the revisionist has expressed the intention to assert the legality of the judgment before the higher forum.

Order no.05 dated 28-01-2026

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

All the six accused are present with their ld advocate. Ld PP in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld PP in-charge.

Perused the materials in record and in the CD.

Considered.

On perusal of the record it appears that the defacto complainant namely Dinobondhu Mondal had made a complaint stating that on 12-12-2018 at about 2.30 p.m. all the accused persons had trespassed into his land and was taking away his crops and when he along with his son objected to such. It is further alleged that all the accused persons armed with various weapons surrounded them and assaulted them. It is further alleged that the accused persons with an intent to commit murder had tried to assault his son on his head but such caused an injury on his nose. The wife of the defacto complainant also came to rescue them and when the accused persons also assaulted her and outraged her modesty. The complaint was registered as FIR and Sundarban Coastal PS Case no.245 of 2018 dated 13-12-2018 was started u/sec 447/323/325/307/506/34 IPC and on completion of investigation charge sheet was submitted u/sec 447/323/307/506/34 IPC against six accused persons. Cognizance was taken and following commitment the record has been transferred to this court for trial and disposal.

It appears that save and accept section 307 IPC, all the other alleged offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrates. I have perused the statements as recorded and especially that of the victim but such does not bring forth any act of the accused persons which can constitute an offence u/sec 307 IPC. The statements as recorded goes to show the commission of an offence of section 323 IPC along with other sections but does not go to show the commission of any offence u/sec 307 IPC. There is no statement recorded that the accused persons had attempted to assault the son of the defacto complainant on his head. Even though the nature of injury is not material to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC, what is material is the intention of the accused coupled with any overt act. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of S.K. Khaja V State of Maharashtra and cited in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 715 was pleased to hold as follows " what is important is an intention coupled with the overt act committed by the appellant/accused". Further more, it is not alleged that there had been any repeated or severe blows. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Sivamani V State represented by Inspector of Police and cited in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 1024 was pleased to rely upon several land mark cases including Jageram V State of Haryana (2015) 11 SCC 366 and stated that the intention of the accused can be ascertained from the actual injury if any, as well as from surrounding circumstances. Taking note that there were no repeated or severe blows and also that the injuries were simple in nature the Hon'ble Supreme Court had set aside the conviction under attempt to murder. Therefore, considering all the above observation and consideration it appears that there is no material to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC. The rest of the sections levelled are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Hence, it is hereby,

Ordered

that the record be sent to the Court of the Ld Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Alipore being the committal court. All the six accused persons to appear before the Ld ACJM Alipore on 27-03-2026.

Order no.02 dated 22-01-2026

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld PP in-charge is present.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking discharge.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld PP in-charge over such prayer seeking discharge.

Considered the submission and the materials in record and in the CD.

Before entering into the merits of the petition I find it proper to reiterate the circumstances leading to preference of the petition under consideration.

The defacto complainant made a complaint at Maheshtala PS stating that for about six years she had a love relation with the accused and such accused during such period had promised to marry her and had sexual relation with her. It is also alleged that the defacto complainant and the accused used to reside as husband and wife. It is also alleged that due to such sexual relations, she became pregnant and when she pleaded with the accused to marry her the accused sought time on various pretext. The defacto complainant gave birth to a son on 17-07-2022 and since thereafter the accused had been threatening the defacto complainant/victim.

The first ground set forth by the accused is that the victim did not render any statement and also denied to give sample of blood for DNA profiling. As regards the refusal of the defacto complainant to render a statement, it does not give rise to any adverse presumption against her. It must be taken into consideration that the victim is a woman who is not acquainted with the investigation and court procedures and it might be that due to her unresolved apprehension, she had refused to render a statement. Further more, her refusal to give sample blood cannot have any effect on the point of consideration of charge. The sample blood was required only to resolve the question of paternity and therefore the refusal of such cannot render any sort of fatal blow to the prosecution.

The second ground set forth by the accused is that the medical officer who had examined the victim has not been enlisted as a charge sheet witness. Such cannot be a ground seeking discharge. If the IO has omitted to enlist any relevant witness in the charge sheet, the court is empowered to seek attendance of such witness. Hence, such a ground is also not a cogent ground.

The third ground set forth by the accused is that the defacto complainant being the victim had filed an affidavit before the Ld ACJM Alipore and wherein she has stated that she does not desire to proceed with the case. Such an affidavit has absolutely no bearing on the point of charge. The affidavit does not have any iota of weight-age under law. Even if such an affidavit is taken into consideration it would appear that the defacto complainant has nowhere stated that she had made the allegation over misunderstanding. The defacto complainant has simply stated that the disputes had been settled. Therefore, such an affidavit does not bring forth any cogent ground to discharge the accused.

The fourth ground set forth by the accused is an observation passed by the Ld ACJM at Alipore. Ld advocate for the accused submitted vide order dated 18-10-2024 the Ld ACJM Alipore was pleased to grant bail to the accused and had opined that "but the contention made in the written complaint is ambiguous and does not come in conformity to that of rape". I have perused the order. This court refrains from entering into the question as to whether the Ld ACJM Alipore was within the jurisdiction to opine on the merit of the case and also whether the affidavit could be taken into consideration while determining the prayer for bail. Notwithstanding such, the opinion of the Ld ACJM Alipore is, with all respect, not binding upon this court.

Therefor, none of the grounds taken up by the accused is cogent enough to allow the prayer for discharge. I find it pertinent to also mention that it was never asserted by the Ld advocate for the accused that the allegation were absolutely false or that the materials collected did not justify the framing of a charge.

It might be argued that where the victim has herself stated that she and the accused had love relation and thereafter had sexual intercourse is a ground enough to discharge the accused. It must be taken into consideration that even though the victim had stated that there was a love relationship, only such is not a ground enough to discharge the accused. A question lingers as to whether the accused had induced the victim to enter into a so called love relation only with the intent to satisfy his lust. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Pradeep Kumar Kesarwani V the state of UP and another and cited in 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 880 was pleased to hold that "there is a clear distinction between rape and consensual sex and in a case where there is a promise of marriage, the court must very carefully examine whether the accused had actually wanted to marry the victim, or had malafided motives and had made a false promise to this effect only to satisfy his lust, as the later false in the ambit of cheating or deception". In the instant case at this stage there is nothing which can allow this court to reach the conclusion that the accused had actually wanted to marry the victim. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Dipakbhai Jagdishchandra Patel V Stae of Gujrat and another (Criminal Appeal no.714 of 2019) was pleased to hold that "however, a strong suspicion must be founded on some material. The material must be such as can be translated into evidence at the stage of trial. The strong suspicion cannot be the pure subjective satisfaction based on the moral notion of the judge that here is a case where it is possible that accused has committed the offence. Strong suspicion must be the suspicion which is premised on some material which commends itself to the court as sufficient to entertain the prima facie view that the accused has committed the offence". I have perused the statement as recorded. It must also be determined as to whether she was under any sort of coercion which compelled her to swear the affidavit. Therefore on all the above consideration it is hereby,

Ordered

Order no.13 dated 22-01-2026

Today is fixed for further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

All the three accuse are absent and are allowed to stand represented by their Ld advocate. Ld advocate for the accused has also filed a petition under 231(2) Cr.P.C.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with PW 1 and who is examined in-chief in full.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the present witness along with CSW 8 and CSW 9 are near relatives and if the cross-examination of PW 1 is commenced today the defence shall stand disclosed and for which the accused has filed the petition u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C.

Ld PP in-charge has not raised any objection.

Further more, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Kerala V Rashid (Criminal Appeal No.1321 of 2018) was pleased to lay down that the exercise of discretion has to take place on a case to case basis. It was also held that the guiding principle u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. is to ascertain whether prejudice would be caused to the party seeking deferral if the application is dismissed.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India was also pleased to lay down the factors required to be considered while deciding an application u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. It appears that Ld PP in-charge did not assert that if the prayer was allowed there might be a possibility of undue influence on witnesses or possibility of threats to witnesses or loss of memory of the witness or delay in the trial.

Hence, I find that the prayer should be allowed.

Hence, the cross-examination of PW 1 stands deferred u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C.

Today is fixed for appearance, opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

All the 05 accused are present with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted a copy of the death certificate of the accused Sk Liyakat Ali S/O Daud Sk and also submitted the original for perusal of this court.

I have perused the same and it does appear that the accused Sk Liyakat Ali has died. No objection to the veracity of the death certificate was also raised by the Ld PP in-charge.

Hence, the instant case stands filed forever against the accused Sk Liyakat Ali.

Ld PP in-charge also fairly submitted that another date be fixed for consideration of charge enabling him to peruse the CD. I allow such.

Today is fixed for hearing upon the petition filed by the revisionist on 05-01-2026.

No steps taken by the opposite parties.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Ld advocate for the revisionist is present and submitted that the matter in dispute has been amicably settled and for which the revisionist is not willing to proceed with the revision and has also filed a petition to that effect.

Heard.

Even though a criminal revision cannot be dismissed for non appearance of the revisionist, there is no bar to withdrawal of the same.

Hence, the petition stands allowed.

Today is fixed for further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

Sole accused on court bail is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld. P.P. In charge is present with PW 1 and submitted that there is no other question to be put to the witness and prayed for closure of the examination-in-chief.

Hence the examination-in-chief of PW1 stands closed.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the Ld conducting senior advocate was not able to attend court today and prayed for an adjournment and also filed a petition stating such. It appears that the evidence of such witness is being recorded in piecemeal fashion. Considering the ground I allow the prayer but with a direction upon the accused to ensure that the cross-examination of PW1 is duly concluded on the next date.

J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.2 dated 21-01-2026

Today is fixed for hearing.

Ld advocate for the revisionist is present. Ld advocate for the O.P is also present.

Ld advocate for the OP has filed a petition stating that the TCR be called for to be produced from the Ld trial court and has also prayed through the same petition that the revisionist be directed to implead the state as a opposite party.

Heard Ld advocates over such petition.

Ld advocate for the revisionist has raised objection stating that the entire certified copies have been filed and the revision can be well adjudicated upon based on such certified copies. Ld advocate for the OP submitted that the TCR would be required for due adjudication. I have perused the petition under consideration and also the instant record and the certified copies as filed. It appears that through the previous order this court had spelt out the reason as to why there is no necesity to call for the TCR.

Moreover, it appears that the OP has sought two different reliefs through the same petition and which cannot be allowed considering rule 13 of the Cr.R.O.

Considering such the petition stands rejected. Following such rejection, Ld advocate for the OP fairly submitted that he was ready to argue upon the matter. Hence, I proceeded to hear the Ld advocates over the criminal revision.

The judgment shall be passed today later.

Order no.16 dated 21-01-2026

Today is fixed for further cross-examination of PW 3.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present and has filed a petition stating that the criminal revision preferred before the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta is running in the daily list of today and prayed for an adjournment.

Ld P.P in-charge is present and has raised vehement objection to such prayer.

It appears from the record that the cross-examination of PW3 was deferred on 25-08-2025 and on such date this court had rejected a prayer preferred by the accused u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. It also appears that being aggrieved by such order the accused had preferred a criminal revision before the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta and on prayer of the accused the proceeding have stood adjourned till today. This court has given enough opportunities to the accused to bring forth any specific order of stay. No such order of stay has been filed today. It appears that adjourning the proceedings any further in the absence of any specific stay order would not be conducive to the interest of justice. As no witness is present today I fix up the next date for cross-examination of PW 3.

The prosecution to ensure the presence of PW3 on the next date fixed.

The Ld advocate for the accused to note that no adjournment shall be granted on the next date fixed and if any is prayed for this court shall be compelled to pass necessary order and might also take recourse to the direction imposed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in special leave petition (criminal) diary no.48856 of 2024 (Patteeswaran v State represented by the Inspector of Police).

J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.32 dated 20-01-2026

Today is fixed for hearing upon the petition dated 21-07-2025.

Ld advocate for the claimant has filed hazira.

Ld advocate for the OP/Insurance Company has also filed hazira.

The petition dated 21-07-2025 is taken up for hearing.

Heard Ld advocates.

Perused the record.

Considered.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the claimant had filed two petitions on 21-07-2025. One of such petitions has been filed u/sec 151 CPC stating that the claimant had adduced evidence and thereafter such was closed and that the claimant has filed another application under order 23 rule 4 CPC read with section 151 of the same code. It appears that it has been stated that the police personnel of Kasba PS had submitted the attested true copy of the FIR and the charge sheet relating to Kasba PS FIR No.435 of 2016 dated 27-09-2016. It has been prayed that such two documents be admitted into evidence and marked as an exhibit.

Ld advocate for the claimant submitted that considering the nature of the instant case and also considering the beneficial legislation, the two documents be admitted into evidence and marked as an exhibit. Ld advocate for the O.P/Insurance Company submitted that he has objection to such as the FIR has been registered long after the date of the accident.

It appears that the officer-in-charge of Kasba PS was summoned to produce the attested true copy of the FIR and charge sheet relating to Kasba PS case no.435 dated 27-09-2016 and in compliance to such the police personnel had only filed the certified to be true copies of such documents. First and foremost it appears that there is no embargo to admit the certified to be true copies of public documents. Moreover, section 169 lays down that in holding any enquiry u/sec 168 this tribunal may, subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, follow such summary procedure as it things fit. Further more, it would appear that the motor accident claim tribunal is not strictly bound by the technical rules of evidence as such are quasi judicial bodies focused on providing just compensation, operating under the beneficial legislation of the Motor Vehicles Act and such tribunal instead follows the principle of natural justice and balance of probabilities, allowing flexible evidence to determine fare compensation. Therefore, on the above consideration and discussions it appears that there is no embargo to admit such documents which shall aid this tribunal in its quest for determination of just compensation.

Hence, it is hereby,

Ordered

that the certified to be true copy of the formal FIR and the certified to be true copy of charge sheet are marked as Ext.7 collectively. As fresh evidence has been brought into record in the form of such documentary evidence, I find it proper to grant the O.P/Insurance Company an opportunity to bring forth any other evidence to counter the documentary evidence.

To 19-03-2026 for further DW if any.

Order no.4 dated 20-01-2026

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge. The sole accused is present today with his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the record and the CD.

On perusal of the complaint it would appear that the defacto complainant had stated that she and her colleague being recovery agents were following the accused for debt recovery on 24-01-2025. They were going to the premises of the accused for talking with the accused but the accused threatened them. The defacto complainant requested him to accompany her to the nearest PNB Branch and the accused agreed. The defacto complainant asked the accused to provide his current mobile phone number and following such the accused verbally abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted her and also tried to sexually harass her. She also stated that following such incidents, she lodged the complaint.

The complaint was registered as FIR and Lake PS case no.23 of 2025 dated 25-01-2025 was started u/sec 75/79/115(2) BNS and on completion of investigation charge sheet was submitted under such sections against the sole accused. It would appear that among the sections levelled section 75 deals with the offence of sexual harassment and is a Sessions Triable offence. The section 79 BNS and 115(2) BNS are also triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Therefore this court has to look into the question as to whether the allegation and the materials collected during the course of investigation justifies the framing of a charge u/sec 75 BNS.

Section 75 BNS lays down as follows:

(1) A man committing any of the following acts

(i) physical contact and advances involving unwelcome and explicit sexual overtures;

or

(ii) a demand or request for sexual favours; or

(iii) showing pornography against the will of a woman; or

(iv) making sexually coloured remarks, shall be guilty of the offence of sexual harassment.

(2) Any man who commits the offence specified in clause (i) or clause (ii) or clause (iii) of sub-section (1) shall be punished with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

(3) Any man who commits the offence specified in clause (iv) of sub-section (1) shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both. The written complaint on the face of such does not contain any act of the accused which might constitute an offence of sexual harassment as envisaged u/sec 75 BNS. I have also perused the statement as recorded of the victim and it appears that the victim had stated about assault and verbal abuse. The witness had stated that her wearing apparels were torn but such a statement does not find place in the complaint. Moreover it would appear that no torn wearing apparel had been seized during the course of investigation. The statement as recorded of the witnesses also does not justified the framing of a charge u/sec 75 BNS. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Sashikant Sana V The State of UP and cited in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 1037 was pleased to hold that ".....there is also a long line of precedents that from the admitted evidence of the prosecution as reflected in the documents filed by the investigating officer in the report u/sec 173 CR.P.C., if the necessary ingredients of an offence are not made out then the court is not obligated to frame charge for such offence against the accused".

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Tuhin Kumar Biswas @ Bumba V the State of West Bengal and cited in 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 1159 was pleased to hold that "the police at the stage of filing of charge sheet and the criminal court at the stage of framing of charge must act as initial filters ensuring that only cases with a strong suspicion should proceed to the formal trial stage to maintain the efficiency and integrity of the judicial system". It appears palpably that no charge can be framed u/sec 75 BNS. The rest of the offences alleged to have been committed by the accused are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

that the sole accused person to appear before the Ld CJM Alipore on 11-03-2026. The date is informed to the Ld Advocate in presence of the accused in open court.

Order no 7 dated 19-01-2026

Today is fixed for appearance and consideration of charge.

The sole accused is present it is ld advocate. Ld public prosecutor in charge is also present.

The record is taken up for consideration of charge.

Perused the materials on record and in the CD.

Considered.

On perusal of the written complaint it appears that the de facto complainant had alleged that on 31st of May 2023 she and her family had dinner and thereafter went to sleep and at about 11:30 PM a person entered into her house and embraced her and began to touch her private parts. The de facto complainant began to shout and hearing such her husband came to her rescue but such person also assaulted him. The de facto complaint identified the accused and tried to catch hold of him but he showed a firearm and threatened her and thereafter fled away.

The written complaint was registered as FIR and thereafter investigation commenced and on completion of such chargesheet was submitted under sections 456/354A/354D/323/506 IPC and also under 376/511 IPC. It would appear that among the sections mentioned in the chargesheet it is only the section 376/511 IPC which is triable by the Court of sessions. A differentiation must be made between the offences that fall within the contours of section 354 IPC and the offences that bypasses the contours and enters into the realm of section 376/511 IPC. It would appear that in the allegations on the face of the complaint are considered, there is no allegation that the accused had also taken out his private part and had tried to have forceful sexual intercourse with the victim. The only allegations that finds place is that the accused had embraced the victim and thereafter had touched her private parts. It has also been stated that there was a scuffle between the victim and the accused when such incidents took place. It appears that no wearing apparel of the victim or of the accused which might bear any marks of the scuffle has been seized during the course of investigation. Moreover, if it be that the accused had touched the private part of the victim and a scuffle ensued while attempting to commit rape, in all reasonability the victim would have suffered visible marks of injury, howsoever insignificant such marks might have been. It would appear that the victim had refused the medical examination of her on 25th of June 2023. Prior to that it appears that the victim had went to Chhoto Mollakhali PHC on first of June 2023 and it appears that the attending doctor had noted the short history of the case stated by the patient and such does not speak of any sexual assault or any sort of attempt to commit rape. Therefore, the materials collected by the investigating officer during the course of investigation does not justify the framing of any charge under section 376/511 IPC.

To differentiate between preparation and attempt I find a proper to rely upon the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Madhya Pradesh vs Mahendra Alias Golu | LL 2021 SC 590 and wherein it was held as follows:

1. There is a visible distinction between 'preparation' and 'attempt' to commit an offence and it all depends on the statutory edict coupled with the nature of evidence produced in a case. The stage of 'preparation' consists of deliberation, devising or arranging the means or measures, which would be necessary for the commission of the offence. Whereas, an 'attempt' to commit the offence, starts immediately after the completion of preparation. 'Attempt' is the execution of mens rea after preparation. 'Attempt' starts where 'preparation' comes to an end, though it falls short of actual commission of the crime. (Para 12)
2. It is a settled preposition of Criminal Jurisprudence that in every crime, there is first, Mens Rea (intention to commit), secondly, preparation to commit it, and thirdly, attempt to commit it. If the third stage, that is, 'attempt' is successful, then the crime is complete. If the attempt fails, the crime is not complete, but law still punishes the person for attempting the said act. 'Attempt' is punishable because even an unsuccessful commission of offence is preceded by mens rea, moral guilt, and its depraving impact on the societal values is no less than the actual commission. (Para 11)

J.O Code :- WB01070

3. However, if the attributes are unambiguously beyond the stage of preparation, then the misdemeanours shall qualify to be termed as an 'attempt' to commit the principal offence and such 'attempt' in itself is a punishable offence in view of Section 511 IPC. The 'preparation' or 'attempt' to commit the offence will be predominantly determined on evaluation of the act and conduct of an accused; and as to whether or not the incident tantamounts to transgressing the thin space between 'preparation' and 'attempt'. If no overt act is attributed to the accused to commit the offence and only elementary exercise was undertaken and if such preparatory acts cause a strong inference of the likelihood of commission of the actual offence, the accused will be guilty of preparation to commit the crime, which may or may not be punishable, depending upon the intent and import of the penal laws. (Para 13)

4. Section 511 IPC is a general provision dealing with attempts to commit offences which are not made punishable by other specific sections of the Code and it provides, inter alia, that, "whoever attempts to commit an offence punishable by this Code with imprisonment for life or imprisonment, or to cause such an offence to be committed, and in such attempt does any act towards the commission of the offence, shall, where no express provision is made by this Code for the punishment of such attempt, be punished with imprisonment of any description provided for the offence, for a term which may extend to onehalf of the imprisonment for life or, as the case may be, onehalf of the longest term of imprisonment provided for that offence, or with such fine as is provided for the offence, or with both. (Para 14)
5. What constitutes an 'attempt' is a mixed question of law and facts. 'Attempt' is the direct movement towards the commission after the preparations are over. It is essential to prove that the attempt was with an intent to commit the offence. An attempt is possible even when the accused is unsuccessful in committing the principal offence. Similarly, if the attempt to commit a crime is accomplished, then the crime stands committed for all intents and purposes. (Para 20)

it would appear that no further overt act of the accused has been attributed to him save and except the alleged act of touching the private part of the victim. Therefore even though such an alleged act might constitute an offence under section 354 of the Indian penal code, such does not transgress the boundary and enter into the realm of the offence punishable under section 376/511 IPC.

Hence, it appears that there is no reason to frame a charge u/s 376/511 IPC. The rest of the offences as alleged to have been committed by the accused constitutes offences that have triable by the court of the Ld judicial magistrates.

Hence, it is hereby;

ORDERED

Order no.9 dated 16-01-2026

Today is fixed for TCR and hearing.

Ld advocate for the appellant is present. Ld advocate for the respondent no.1 has filed hazira.

Ld P.P in-charge representing the respondent no.2/State is present.

The TCR pertaining to AC 59 of 2020 has not been received from the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate, 2nd Court, Alipore.

The present record represents a very unfortunate scenario.

It appears that this court had requested the Ld trial court to send the TCR vide order dated 01-04-2025, 02-06-2025, 01-07-2025, 16-09-2025 but till date for reasons unknown the TCR has not been sent.

The Ld trial court has also not shown any courtesy by seeking time to trace out the TCR if such as remained misplaced. Vide order dated 16-09-2025 this court had sought intervention of the Ld CJM Alipore and had sent a copy of the order to the LD CJM Alipore but inspite of such the TCR has not been submitted. The notification as to case flow management rules of the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta states that the instant appeal should be disposed within six weeks. Such a direction is being violated only due to absence of the TCR.

The Ld CJM Alipore is expected to take note of the same and direct the Ld trial court to personally ensure that the TCR is sent to this court on the next date fixed.

SENTENCE

Dated : 15/01/2026

All the six convicts namely A1) Matiur Mahim Chisti, A2) Rahul Amin Mahim Chisti, A3) Mokkadar Mahim Chisti, A4) Niyaz Mahim Chisti, A5) Rafikul Mahim Chisti and A6) Atiul Mahim Chisti. are produced from JC. Ld Advocate for the convicts is present. Ld PP in charge is also present.

Now, the case record is put up for hearing argument on the question of sentence. Heard the Ld advocate for the convicts who submitted that convicts does not have any criminal antecedent and also prayed that this court takes into consideration that the parties have settled thier disputes. Ld advocate for the convicts submitted that considering the circumstances, minimum sentence as permissible under law be imposed. Heard Ld PP in charge who submitted that even though the parties themselves have settled the differences such would not wipe out the commission of the offence and prayed for imposition of adequate sentence.

Rule of law requires that the sentence imposed must be proportionate to the offence. There are three penology goals viz., (i) reformation; (ii) denunciation by the community or retribution; and (iii) deterrence. It must also be considered that matrimonial amity has been restored. Furthermore, whatever acts appears to have been done by the convicts seems to arise out of matrimonial differences between the spouses.

Hence, on the above discussions, it is hereby ordered,

All the six convicts namely A1) Matiur Mahim Chisti, A2) Rahul Amin Mahim Chisti, A3) Mokkadar Mahim Chisti, A4) Niyaz Mahim Chisti, A5) Rafikul Mahim Chisti and A6) Atiul Mahim Chisti are hereby sentenced to pay a fine of Rs 500/- only for the offence punishable under section 448 IPC i.d. to suffer simple imprisonment for a period of thirty days.

All the six convicts namely A1) Matiur Mahim Chisti, A2) Rahul Amin Mahim Chisti, A3) Makkadar Mahim Chisti, A4) Niyaz Mahim Chisti, A5) Rafiqul Mahim Chisti and A6) Atiul Mahim Chisti. are also hereby sentenced to pay a fine of Rs 500/- only for the offence punishable under section 323 IPC i.d. to suffer further simple imprisonment for a period of thirty days.

The fine, if paid, shall be credited to the Government.

A copy of this judgment be furnished to the convicts free of cost forthwith.

Let a copy of this judgment be forwarded to the District Magistrate, Darjeeling in terms of Section 365 of the Cr.PC

The record be consigned to the District Record Room.

J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.4 dated 15-01-2026

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition filed by the accused Deep Sarkar and Pampa Sarkar. Ld advocate for the accused is present and has filed a petition seeking bail. Both the accused has surrendered voluntarily and taken into custody and remanded to J/C till the next date.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that such accused persons were not able to contact their LD advocate and could not take proper steps and for which W/A was issued.

It was also submitted that the accused shall diligently participate in the process of trial henceforth. Ld P.P in-charge has raised objection.

It appears that due to non appearance of the accused, W/A was issued against them.

Considering the voluntary surrender I find it proper to grant an opportunity to the accused to remain on bail and face trial. Hence, both the accused Deep Sarkar and Pampa Sarkar be enlarged on interim bail on furnishing bond of Rs.1000/- each with one surety subject to satisfaction of the Ld CJM Alipore. The accused to further note that the interim bail shall remain in force till 13-03-2026 and shall not be extended in their absence. If on bail to 13-03-2026 for appearance.

Todate.

Recall the W/A.

Order no.11 dated 09-01-2026

Today is fixed for for appearance and further order.

All the seven accused are absent.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that he has prayed for an adjournment as the accused persons had preferred a criminal revision before the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta and which is to be taken up today by the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta at 3.00 p.m. Ld advocate for the defacto complainant is present and raised objection stating that there is no order of stay.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

I have perused the orders as passed by the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta and on respectful perusal of such it appears that vide order dated 02-09-2025 the proceedings were directed to be stayed for a period of two weeks after reopening of the court following puja vacation. Such a period has elapsed. It also appears that the subsequent order was passed on 17-12-2025 but there was no extension of the order of stay. It has been admitted that at present there is no order of stay.

Hence, I find it proper to proceed with the stage of consideration of charge.

Order no 17 dated 08-01-2026

Today is fixed for evidence of CSW 7 and 8.
Both the accused are present with their Ld advocate.
Ld PP in charge is not present.
No witness is present.
No S/R received.

It has been submitted by the Ld members of the Bar that due to illness of a family member the Ld PP in-charge has not been attending court. It appears that the charge has been framed on 29-11-2023 but till date only 02 witnesses have been examined namely Sujata Das (CSW 2) and Sampa Das (CSW 3). This court had issued witness warrant against CSW 4 to 6 and also against Sanjay Das but in vain.

Before issuing summons upon the rest witnesses I find it proper to fix up a date for appearance as if Ld PP in-charge is not found present the witnesses shall attend court without any purpose.

To 27-01-2026 for appearance and further order.

A copy of this order be sent to the Ld Chief PP Alipore with a request that if Ld PP in-charge Sri Dipan Kumar Ghosh is found indisposed to participate, another Ld PP be appointed to conduct the prosecution.

Order no.7 dated 08-01-2026

Today is fixed for TCR.

Ld advocates for the revisionist has filed hazira along with an application seeking extension of the order of stay.

Ld advocate for the O.P.No.1 is present.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

The TCR pertaining to M 424 of 2022 has not been received from the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate, 9th Court, Alipore.

It appears that this court has repeatedly called for the TCR but for reasons unknown the TCR is not being sent.

The instant motion is ready for hearing but cannot be heard only due to absence of the TCR. It has been informed by the Ld advocates that such court is lying vacant.

Considering such a copy of this order be sent to the Ld CJM Alipore who is requested to forward the same to the Ld Judicial Magistrate in-charge of such court.

It is also expected that the Ld CJM Alipore shall oversee that the TCR is duly sent to this court.

Order no.2 dated 08-01-2026

Today is fixed for appearance and hearing.

Ld advocate for the appellant is present and fairly submitted that the appellant no.1 has demised and her legal heirs are already on record and a petition seeking to expunge the name of the appellant no.1 has been filed on 08-09-2025. A hazira has been filed purporting to be that of the respondent no.1 Alope Dutta but none has moved on calls.

The petition dated 08-09-2025 is taken up for hearing.

Heard Ld advocate for the appellant.

Perused the material on record.

Considered.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the appellant has stated that the appellant no.1 Smt Ashima Dutta has died on 15-08-2025 leaving behind her only daughter who has already been impleaded as the appellant no.2. It is further stated that there is no necessity for any substitution and for which the name of the appellant no.1 be expunged. There is no embargo in allowing such prayer. Hence, the petition stands allowed.

The appellant no.1 stands accordingly expunged.

It appears that it is only the respondent no.2 and 5 to 9 had appeared in the court of the Ld Additional District Judge, 18th Court, Alipore on 28-02-2023 and it is only such respondents who have been contesting the instant appeal. No steps have been taken by such respondents today.

Today is fixed for further cross-examination of PW 1.

The sole accused on court bail is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld. P.P. In charge is present with PW 1.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking an adjournment on the ground as mentioned therein.

Heard.

The ground that a Ld advocate is busy in other proceedings is not a ground that can be regarded as a cogent ground for an adjournment. However considering that the accused is present and it appears that closing the stage of cross-examination would prejudice him for no fault of his, I grant the accused only one further opportunity to come forth and cross-examine the witness. No adjournment shall be granted on the next date fixed.

The cross-examination must also be concluded on the next date fixed.

I fix up the date at a sufficient interval considering the plea of the witness that her mother is ill and she has to arrange for her treatment and her prayer for fixation of the date at a sufficient interval.

To 23-02-2026 for cross-examination of PW 1.

It would appear that the Session case emanated out of Kultali PS Case No.04(12) 1983. The accused persons are under the criminal litigation since such year. This court had framed the charge on 01-08-2025 and at fixed up a schedule but in vain. Neither the IO remained present with the witnesses nor the prosecution could bring forth any witness. The entire schedule as framed through the order dated 01-08-2025 had gone to waste. The instant case is also included in the action plan for arrear reduction. On completion of the schedule this court had again fixed two dates being 06-01-2026 and 07-01-2026 but on both such dates the prosecution could not bring forth any witness. It appears that the right to speedy trial is suffering a set back and is being mercilessly trampled upon. It is the undeniable truth that on submission of charge sheet the IO appears no further interested in the fate of the trial. In almost all cases, this court fixes schedule but such goes to waste only due to absence of proper service returns and also the inability of the concerned police to submit such returns. I fix up a fresh schedule for evidence. This court shall pass necessary order if it again appears that the schedule has gone to waste. The prosecution to take note of the order and file requisites for issuance of the summons upon the witnesses.

Order no.2 dated 06-01-2026

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

All the five accused persons are present today with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the record and the CD.

On perusal of the computer typed complaint it would appear that the defacto complainant had stated that on 07-05-2024 at about 11 a.m. to 11.30 a.m. the accused persons had trespassed into her house and began to verbally abused her and her mother and assaulted her and her mother. It was also alleged that the accused Arindam Deb had tried to assault her with a Katari and somehow she saved herself with her left hand and the blow fell on her left hand and caused injury. It is also alleged that the accused Arindam Deb pushed her to the floor and tried to rape her and clutched her private parts. The defacto complainant also alleged that the accused persons ransacked her house and threatened her. The complaint was registered as FIR and Rabindranagar PS case no.249 of 2024 dated 21-05-2024 was started and on completion of investigation charge sheet was submitted u/sec 448/323/325/376/511/354/506/34 IPC. Following commitment to the court of the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore, the case was transferred to this court for trial and disposal.

Ld advocate for the accused persons submitted that no charge can be framed u/sec 376/511 IPC and the rest of the alleged offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Ld PP in-charge raised objection and submitted that there are every material to frame a charge u/sec 376/511 IPC along with the other sections of law. First and foremost it would appear that even though the defacto complainant had alleged that the accused Arindam Deb had caught hold of the private parts of the victim and thereafter had tried to rape her, it would appear that the victim had refused to medico legal examination. It would appear that the victim had refused to give consent for medical examination as per the report dated 14-06-2024. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Himachal Pradesh V Rajesh Kumar and cited in 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 297 was pleased to hold that an adverse inference would be drawn against a woman who is alleged to be a victim in a rape case, if she refuses medical examination. In the instant case there is no document pointed out by the prosecution which can show that the victim had received any superficial injuries on her private parts. Further more it would appear that no wearing apparel which was worn by the victim during the alleged attempt to rape was seized during the course of investigation. It would also appear that no such wearing apparel could be seized as the victim had stated that she had washed the clothes worn by her during the alleged incident. This court should not frame charges alleging attempt to rape without such an allegation being supported by materials collected during the investigation. I find it pertinent to mention that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Tuhin Kumar Biswas @ Bumba V State of West Bengal and cited in 2025 LiveLaw (SC) 1159 was pleased to hold that "undoubtedly, there can be no analysis at the charge framing stage as to whether the case would end in conviction or acquittal, but the fundamental principle is that the State should not prosecute citizens without a reasonable prospect of conviction, as it compromises the right to a fair process". It was also held that "the police at the stage of filing of charge sheet and the criminal court at the stage of framing of charge must act as initial filters ensuring that only cases with a strong suspicion should proceed to the formal trial stage to maintain the efficiency and integrity of the judicial system". Therefore, considering all such, it appears that no charge can be framed under section 376/511 IPC. The rest of the offences alleged to have been committed by the accused persons are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Order no.11 dated 03-01-2026

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition filed by the accused Bishnuprosad Sarkar. Ld advocate for the accused is present and has filed a petition seeking bail.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the matter in dispute has been settled and prays for bail. It was also submitted that the accused shall diligently participate in the process of trial henceforth. Ld P.P in-charge has raised objection.

It appears that due to non appearance of the accused, W/A was issued against him.

Considering the voluntary surrendered I find it proper to grant an opportunity to the accused to remain on bail and face trial. Hence, the accused Bishnuprosad Sarkar be enlarged on interim bail on furnishing bond of Rs.2000/- with one surety subject to satisfaction of the Ld CJM Alipore. The accused to further note that the interim bail shall remain in force till 21-01-2026 and shall not be extended in his absence. If on bail to 21-01-2026 for appearance.

Ld advocate for the decree holder submitted that he shall not represent the decre holder from the next date and that he has given no objection to appointment of a Ld advocate and prays that in order to facilitate such appointment and to prevent any prejudice to the decree holder only one further opportunity be given.

It would appear that this Court had raised the question about the maintainability of the application for execution and enforceability of the award which appears to have been passed by an arbitrator appointed unilaterally. The decree holder has been granted adjournments on 10-9-2025 and also on 26-11-2025. On the earlier date the adjournment was allowed with a caution that no adjournment shall be granted on any ground whatsoever on today's date. It also appears that it has been mandated that execution petitions should be disposed off within six months. It appears palpably that the decree holder is bent to delay the proceedings. Considering the submission I fix up another date. This court shall straight away dismiss the execution petition if any adjournment is sought for on the next date. Also considering the delay caused I imposed a cost of Rs.2000/- upon the decree holder which is to be paid to the DLSA (District South 24 Parganas) within the next date fixed and such shall be condition precedent to further participation of the decree holder. Order no.15 dated 23-12-2025

Today is fixed for specific order from the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present and has filed a petition seeking an adjournment.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

On perusal of the petition filed by the accused it appears that the Ld advocate has stated that being aggrieved by the order dated 25-08-2025 the accused had approached the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta and which was registered as CRR 4858 of 2025 and that such would be taken up today for hearing.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld PP In-charge.

It would appear that the cross-examination of PW 3 has remained deferred since 25-08-2025. being aggrieved by the rejection of a prayer u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. the accused has approached the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta. The matter is lying stagnant since such date. Without specific stay order this court should not further delay the trial. Hence, I grant the accused only one further opportunity to bring specific order of stay from the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta within the next date fixed and in absence of which, this court shall proceed with the trial especially considering that the accused is suffering a custodial trial.

To 21-01-2026 for further cross-examination of PW 3. Any specific order from the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta be filed in the meantime.

Order no.10 dated 22-12-2025

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition filed by the accused Ramen Kumar Jha who has surrendered voluntarily before this court and is taken into custody and remanded to J/C till the next date fixed Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking bail. LD PP in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld PP in-charge.

Perused the record.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the accused was granted interim bail on 22-08-2025 but thereafter he did not appear personally and had sought for time on 31-10-2025 and which was rejected by this court.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that he had instructed his Ld junior to state about the illness of the daughter of the accused in the petition seeking time but due to an error such Ld junior did not insert such ground. It was submitted that if the accused is allowed to remain on same bond, the accused shall appear before this court on the next date fixed without fail.

Ld PP in-charge has raised objection.

Considering the submission I find it proper to allow the prayer of the accused.

However the accused is warned that if he is not found present on the next date fixed, this court might opt for a custodial trial.

The accused is permitted to remain on the same bond.

Order no.14 dated 20-12-2025

Today is fixed for filing written notes of argument.

The appellant is present and has filed another petition seeking an adjournment. It would appear that even though the appellant has again stated that he was represented by a Ld advocate, no proper Vakalatnama has been filed.

Considering such the prayer for adjournment stands refused.

The appellant has also filed another petition seeking deferment of the submission of written arguments through the Ld advocate who has not filed any Vakalatnama. The petition is rejected considering the opportunities given to the appellant.

It appears that the appellant has caused unnecessary wastage of time and could have easily proceeded with the hearing. This court has granted enough opportunities to the appellant considering that he was conducting the case himself but it appears that the appellant is bent only to procrastinate the proceeding. Considering all such I impose a cost of Rs.5000/- upon the appellant which should be deposited at the office of DLSA (District South 24 Parganas).

I fix up the next date for passing of judgment considering that the appellant appears to be adamant to not file written notes of argument.

To 27-01-2026 for judgment.

Order no.2 dated 08-12-2025

Today is fixed for evidence of CSW 1.

The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with the I/O. It has been submitted that such witness is out of station and therefore could not appear. Ld P.P in-charge prayed for fixation of another date for evidence of CSW 1. I allow such. It also appeared that the name of the accused person charge sheeted in column no.12 of the charge sheet stated the name of the defacto complainant. The I.O was directed to explain such and who submitted that due to an error he had stated the name of the defacto complainant as the accused. Such is rectified in open court on being consented to by the Ld advocate for the accused.

Today is fixed for judgment.

All the three accused persons are present by filing hazira.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

The judgment is made ready and the operative part is pronounced in open court. The operative part of the judgment is as follows:

that all the three accused persons namely A1) Jiban Naskar, A2) Mohan Naskar and A3) Ratan Mondal are hereby found “not guilty” of the offence under Sections 363/368/372/34 of the Indian penal code and accordingly they are acquitted from this case under Section 235 (1) of Cr.P.C.

Surety concerned stands discharged from their liability of the bail bonds.

In accordance with the mandate as spelt out by the Hon’ble High Court of Calcutta in 2022 LiveLaw (Cal) 101 [Sabitri Bhuniya v The State of West Bengal and Others] let a copy of the judgment be forwarded to the District Magistrate, District South 24 Parganas and the Ld Secretary, DLSA, South 24 parganas for due intimation to the victim.

The alleged victim be also hereby informed that she has the right to prefer an appeal against this judgment of acquittal and if necessary she can avail free legal assistance through the DLSA, District South 24 Parganas to prefer and prosecute the appeal.

File be consigned to the record room after due compliance.

Order number 2 dated 29-11-2025

Today is fixed for passing orders in respect of the application filed by the claimant/applicant under the provisions of order 47 rule 1 of the civil procedure code.

Learned Advocate for the claimant/applicant is present. Considered the submissions of the learned Advocate for the claimant/applicant and the materials on record.

On perusal of the application under consideration it would appear that a petition was being filed stating that claim petition was filed by the injured himself and for which there should not be any deduction of the personal expenses. Learned Advocate for the applicant had asserted that as in the instant case, the person claiming compensation was the injured himself, there should not have been any deduction of personal expenses. On such ground, the applicant has prayed for reconsideration of the award as passed by this tribunal.

First and foremost, I proceed to look into the provisions of Order 47 rule 1 CPC. Order 47 rule 1 CPC lays down as follows:

1. Application for review of judgment.

(1) Any person considering himself aggrieved-
(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed, or

(c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order.

(2) A party who is not appealing from a decree or order may apply for a review of judgment notwithstanding the pendency of an appeal by some other party except where the ground of such appeal is common to the applicant and the appellant, or when, being respondent, he can present to the Appellate Court the case on which he applies for the review.

Therefore, the power to review a judgement can be exercised if it appears to be an error apparent on the case of the record or for any other sufficient reason. The power of review to be exercised when an error stands apparent on the case of the record and does not require the reappreciation of evidence. A court to not take upon itself the role of an appellate court while exercising the power of review. In the instant case it does appear that even without reappreciation of the evidence adduced by the parties, a miscalculation has crept into the judgement as regards the deduction of personal expenses. Therefore it appears that the application filed by the claimant/applicant is with merit and deserves to be allowed.

Hence, on the aforesaid discussions and observations, it is hereby; that the instant miscellaneous judicial case being number Misc Judicial 18 of 2025 emanating out of an application under Order 47 rule 1 CPC stands allowed exparte.

To 08-12-2025 for judgment following review. The parties to submit in this Tribunal any certified copies obtained of the award preceding the review.

Order no.9 dated 01-12-2025

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

Out of 03 accused 02 Samsad Begam and Jaibunnesha are present with their Ld advocate while the accused Md Ayub Khan is absent and has prayed for time to appear.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the accused Ayub Khan has suffered from cardiac arrest and he is seriously is under medical treatment under a doctor at SSKM Hospital. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that one opportunity be given to such accused to recover and appear before this court.

Ld P.P in-charge has raised objection to the prayer for adjournment.

It appears that the instant case is one in which the charge sheet has been submitted u/sec 341/302/34 of the IPC on 09-11-2023. The case was committed to the court of the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore and thereafter 07-11-2024 was fixed for appearance before this court. Almost a year has been passed but till date the charge has not been framed. It would appear that it is primarily for the conduct of the accused that the charge has not yet been framed. Also even though the petition states that the accused is under medical treatment of a doctor of SSKM Hospital the copy of the medical document shows that such is under the letter head of Kothari Medical Centre. Such a document is also also dated 25-08-2025 and does not go to show that the patient was advised any sort of complete bed rest.

Considering such and also the previous orders, the prayer for time stands refused.

Misc case 01 of 2023 CIS 04 of 2023
Arising out of MACC 21 of 2017
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.16 dated 27-11-2025

Today is fixed for hearing and order.

Ld advocate petitioner/claimant is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the petitioner.

Perused the materials on record.

Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the petitioner was involved in a motor vehicle accident on 12-05-2017 and for which she sustained severe injuries and for such she has become permanently disabled and has lost her working capacity. The petitioner filed an application seeking compensation and which was registered as MACC 685 of 2017. Evidence was adduced by the petitioner but thereafter the petitioner refrained from participating and vide order dated 03-05-2023 the claim application was dismissed for default. To revive such the petitioner filed an application under order 9 rule 9 CPC read with section 151 of the same code and which gave rise to the instant Misc case.

On perusal of the application under order 9 rule 9 CPC read with section 151 of the same code it appears that the petitioner has stated that due to a misposting in the diary of the Ld advocate no steps were taken on 02-05-2023 and for which the instant case was dismissed for default. It would appear that the petitioner has further stated that due to the latches on the part of the clerk of the concerned Ld advocate the MACC case was dismissed. Ld advocate for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has difficulty in pursuing her day to day pursuits and prayed that the petitioner be given an opportunity to diligently proceed with her claim for compensation. On perusal of the record of MACC 21 of 2017 it would appear that the O.P.No.2 had also stopped participating in such proceeding. The instant case has also been ordered to proceed exparte vide order dated 13-06-2024. Therefore, if the present application is allowed, no prejudice shall be caused to the opposite parties who had refrained from participating in the proceedings emanating out of the claim application. Further more, considering the nature of the instant litigation, it appears that the petitioner should be given an opportunity to pursue her claim. However, the petitioner is directed to note that following restoration of the MACC case, this tribunal shall not grant any sort of adjournment except for reasons that might seen beyond her control.

Hence, it is, hereby

Order no.3 dated 28-11-2025

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition filed by the Ld advocate for the accused Promod Kumar Agarwal.

The sole accused has surrendered voluntarily and is taken into custody and remanded to J/C till the next date.

Ld P.P. in-charge is present.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the Ld advocate did not inform the accused inadvertently and for which the accused did not remain present on the previous date. Ld advocate further submitted that the Ld advocate got delayed on the previous date and could not take proper steps in time and for which the W/A was issued.

Ld P.P in-charge has raised objection.

It appears that the accused should be given one opportunity to participate in the trial while remaining on bail.

Hence, the sole accused be enlarged on interim bail till the next date fixed on furnishing bond of Rs.2000/- with one surety subject to satisfaction of the Ld CJM, Alipore

The interim bail shall not be extended in absence of the accused on the next date. Recall the W/A.

Order no.12 dated 17-11-2025

Today is fixed for appearance.

Out of 08 accused, the six accused on interim bail are absent and has prayed for time to appear.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking extension of the interim bail as granted to the accused persons vide order dated 10-11-2025. Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the accused persons could not appear as one of their close relatives had died. Ld P.P in-charge prayed for necessary orders.

On perusal of the record it appears that this court had granted interim bail to the six accused persons with a direction to remain present before this court today.

The accused persons were also directed to note that the interim bail shall not be extended in their absence.

In spite of such direction the accused persons have remained absent on the ground of demise of a close relative. There is no mention as to the nature of the relation with the deceased and also the name of the deceased and also there is absence of any date of demise.

Considering all such the ground is not a cogent one.

Hence the petition seeking adjournment stands rejected.

The interim bail is not extended any further.

Issue fresh W/A against the six accused. W/A issued against the accused Majed Gazi and Raju Gazi has not been executed. Recall the earlier one and issue W/A afresh.

Order no.14 dated 17-11-2025

Today is fixed for further cross-examination of P.W.3.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with P.W.3.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that being aggrieved by the order passed by this court refusing a prayer u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.c. the accused had approached the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta and today was also fixed for such proceedings before the Hon'ble High Court.

Ld advocate for the accused further submitted that one further opportunity be given to him to bring specific orders from the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta.

Ld P.P in-charge has raised vehement objection to the prayer seeking adjournment and submitted that the accused was not diligent in approaching the Hon'ble High Court and further submitted that P.W.3 was present and if the accused is not inclined to cross-examine such witness, the evidence of P.W.3 be closed.

It appears that through the earlier order this court had directed the accused to bring specific orders of stay. No such order has been filed. It appears that even though no such order has been filed, if this court proceeds with the cross-examination and thereafter the order passed by this court is interfered with, such would be against the principles of judicial hierarchy and would lead to an ambiguous position.

Considering such I find it proper to grant one further opportunity to the accused to bring forth specific orders.

It would appear that the appellant himself was conducting the instant case. Ld advocate who has filed the petition has not filed any vakalatnama representing the appellant.

Considering such the prayer cannot be allowed and stands rejected accordingly.

It appears that this court has given opportunities to the appellant so that he might be able to participate in the proceeding and assert upon his grounds diligently but the appellant appears to be bent on dragging the instant appeal.

Order no.33 dated 17-11-2025

Today is fixed for E/R of the witness warrant as issued against CSW 3 and 4 and evidence.

Out of five accused persons on court bail, 02 are present with their Ld advocate while the rest 03 are absent and are allowed to stand represented by their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

No witness is present.

The bailable witness warrants issued against CSW 3 and 4 has not been executed. This court was inclined to proceed with the cross-examination of P.W.1 but Ld P.P in-charge prayed for one opportunity and further submitted that the I.O be accordingly informed. Misc case 16 of 2025 CIS 16 of 2025
Arising out of Misc Appeal 342 of 2024
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.2 dated 15-11-2025

Today is fixed for hearing.

Ld advocate for the petitioner is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the petitioner.

Considered the materials on record and the submissions of the Ld advocate for the petitioner.

Before proceeding to enter into the merits of the instant Misc case that emanated out of a petition filed by the petitioner under order 41 rule 19 CPC read with section 151 of the same code, I find it proper to dwell into the question as to whether the original respondents were required to be heard over the instant petition. It appears from the record that it was the respondent no.2 Suraj Ahamed who had appeared before the Ld District Judge, District South 24 Parganas on 18-10-2023 but inadvertently it was stated that it was the respondent no.1 who had appeared. It further appears that the respondent no.2 did not contest the instant appeal. When the respondent no.2 has not contested the appeal itself, there is no purpose to send any notice to such respondent no.1 as regards the instant Misc case. It also appears that the respondent no.1 and the respondent no.3 had not yet appeared in the appeal and for which no prejudice shall be caused to them if the Misc case is adjudicated upon in their absence. Therefore, I proceed to look into the merits of the petition under order 41 rule 19 CPC read with section 151 of the same code.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the appellant/petitioner has stated that the Ld advocate for the appellant had prepared the requisites but due to a mistake on the part of the Ld advocate's clerk the requisites were filed only has regards respondent no.1. Ld advocate for the appellant submitted before this court that it was his fault and not the fault of the litigant that the requisites were not filed and submitted that he has filed the requisites today and prayed that the appeal be restored and the ad interim order of injunction be revived accordingly. It appears that the Ld advocate for the appellant has taken upon himself the non fulfillment of the direction to file requisites. The appellant himself does not appear to be at fault and therefore should not be penalized. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Civil Appeal 4758 of 2023 (Ashoke Kumar VS New India Assurance Company Ltd) was pleased to hold that for the fault of the advocate a party should not be made to suffer. Therefore where the Ld advocate had himself come forth and had fairly admitted the fault, the litigant should not be made to suffer. Hence on such ground I find it proper to restore the instant miscellaneous appeal.

that the misc case emanating out of the petition under order 41 rule 19 CPC read with section 151 of the same code stands allowed. The miscellaneous appeal stands restored accordingly to its original file and number and the ad interim order of injunction also stands revived.

The Misc Case stands disposed off.

It appears that the W/A issued against Joynal Molla S/O Jenani Molla, Paschim Basanti, P.S Basanti has not been executed and neither any NER has been received. It also appears that through the earlier order the O.C. Basanti P.S. was directed to note that the W/A should be executed at the earliest and if such is unexecuted, he was directed to ensure that a proper NER is sent to this court. Even today neither the warrant has been executed nor any NER has been received.

The O.C. Basanti P.S. was also directed to note that if the W/A issued against Joynal Molla, S/O Jenani Molla, Paschim Basanti, P.S. Basanti is not executed, he must ensure that a proper NER be sent to this court I.d he shall be called upon to personally appear.

Hence, the O.C. Basanti P.S. to remain present personally before this court on the next date fixed. I also find it pertinent to state that in plethora of cases it appears that no returns are being sent from Basanti P.S. Such must be rectified as such is leading to stagnancy in the proceedings.

Later :

It is now 1.00 p.m.

The judgment is made ready and the operative part is pronounced in open court. The operative part of the judgment is as follows:

that the sole accused namely Ratna Modal is hereby found “not guilty” of the offence under Sections 365/368/370(2)/374 IPC and accordingly she is acquitted from this case under Section 235 (1) of Cr.P.C.

Surety concerned stands discharged from her liability of her bail bonds.

In accordance with the mandate as spelt out by the Hon’ble High Court of Calcutta in 2022 LiveLaw (Cal) 101 [Sabitri Bhuniya v The State of West Bengal and Others] let a copy of the judgment be forwarded to the District Magistrate, District South 24 Parganas and the Ld Secretary, DLSA, South 24 parganas for due intimation to the Defacto complainant and victim.

Order no.7 dated 1311-2025

Today is fixed for further examination-in-chef of P.W.1 Aloka Mondal.
Both the accused persons are present with their Ld advocate.
Ld P.P in-charge is present.

No witness is present.

It is absolutely not desired that the examination-in-chief of a witness shall remain partly recorded. This court had directed the O.C. P.S. Sundarban Coastal to ensure that a proper S/R is sent to this court but it appears that the police personnel has more urgent works to attend to than to aid the criminal trial. It appears that the investigating officers have forgotten the direction imposed upon them by the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in CRR 854 of 2011. It is expected that the I/O will take some time out of his busy schedule and adhere to such direction. The I.O S.I Sukumar Ruidas who had investigated the instant case being Sundarban Coastal P.S Case No.22 of 2019 dated 03-02-2019 is directed to remain present before this court along with the witness being Aloka Mondal wife of Ashutosh Mondal of 7 No Hetalbari P.S Sundarban Coastal on the next date fixed.

Copy of this order along with the summons be sent to the O.C. Sundarban Coastal P.S. for information to the I.O.

Order no.4 dated 13-11-2025

The record is put up before me on being moved by the Ld advocate for the accused.

Ld advocate for the accused is present with the accused himself and submitted that this court had passed an order directing the accused to remain present before the Ld ADJ, 8th Court, Alipore and she had went to the court but it was informed that the record was not sent.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

The Bench Clerk in reply to this court's query submitted that he had went to submit the record in the court of the Ld ADJ 8th Court, Alipore but the concerned staff had refused to accept the record and has also furnished a report stating such. Even though it is desired that the record should have been put before the Ld ADJ 8th Court, Alipore seeking proper orders but I find it proper not to dwell into such issue any further.

Let the instant record be transmitted to the court of the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore fixing 19-12-2025 for appearance of the accused before the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore.

The date is informed to the Ld advocate for the accused and the Ld P.P in-charge.

A proper forwarding letter be also sent to the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore along with the record.

Crl Appeal No. 232 of 2025 CIS 17 OF 2025
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.5 dated 13-11-2025

Today is fixed for appearance of the respondent no.1/State and and hearing.

Ld advocate for the appellant is present.

Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 is also present.

None has yet been appointed to represent the respondent no.1/State in spite of due information to the Ld Chief P.P Alipore.

Considering such and also considering that the present dispute is essentially between private parties, I proceed to hear out the instant criminal appeal.

At the very inception of hearing Ld advocate for the respondent No.2 has filed a petition seeking a direction upon the appellant to file the affidavit of disclosure of assets and liabilities. In reply to this court's query as to whether such a direction is necessary in the instant appeal, Ld advocate for the respondent No.2 submitted that in the instant appeal the appellant has not sought for an opportunity to contest the case before the Ld trial court following setting aside of the impugned order but the appellant has raised the assertion that the order was passed without taking into consideration the income of the petitioner and without ascertain the income of the appellant. Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 further submitted that the appellant has stated in the prayer that the impugned order be set aside by this court after being satisfied with the contention made by the appellant. Ld advocate for the appellant did not raise any specific objection to such prayer. It does appear that the appellant has raised the assertion that the impugned order was passed without taking into consideration of the income of the appellant. Further more in the instant case a question has cropped up as to whether the appellant is a doctor or a physiotherapist. Considering such it appear that a direction should be passed upon the appellant to submit his affidavit of disclosure of assets and liabilities. Hence I allow the petition as filed today by the respondent no.2.

I have also heard Ld advocate for the appellant over his grounds asserted in the instant appeal.

To 29-11-2025 for filing the affidavit of disclosure of assets and liabilities by the appellant and further hearing.

Today is fixed for cross examination of PW1 and PW2.

All the four accused are present with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with P.W.1 and P.W.2.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking an adjournment on the ground of illness of the Ld senior conducting advocate.

Heard. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the Ld senior conducting advocate was admitted at a hospital due to illness and has been released yesterday and for which he could not appear.

Ld P.P in-charge submitted that the witnesses have appeared from a far distance but considering the ground necessary orders may be passed. In reply to this court's query Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the Ld senior conducting advocate would not be able to appear on 13-11-2025. Hence I find it proper to vitiate the schedule.

Ld P.P in-charge was requested to instruct the witnesses present to inform P.W.3 and P.W.4 to not appear before this court tomorrow.

To 13-02-2026 for cross examination of PW1 and PW2

The prosecution to ensure the presence of such witnesses.

The date was fixed at a sufficient interval as it was informed to this court by the witnesses through the Ld P.P in-charge that they were required to go out of station and would return in the month of February. Order no 1 dated 07-11-2025

The record has been received from the Court of the Ld Sessions Judge, District South 24 Parganas at Alipore. Such is put up before me on the strength of a put up petition being allowed as preferred by the Ld advocate for the accused. Ld Advocate for the accused has also filed a fresh vakalatnama.

Ld advocate for the accused petitioner Chittaranjan Das has filed a petition praying that a report be called for from the IO as regards the seized vehicle as such accused petitioner intends to release his vehicle.

None is present today for the prosecution.

It appears that the accused petitioner through the instant petition has only prayed for calling for report from the IO. The investigation has ended in a chargesheet. Therefore, it is now within the consideration of the Court as to whether the vehicle is to be returned or not. It would also appear that the only reason as to why the vehicle was seized is that such was identified as being the vehicle used for committing the offence. There is no requirement to call for any report from the IO and hence the petition stands rejected.

It also appears that even though the IO is not required to be heard, the prosecution should be given notice of the prayer seeking return of the seized vehicle.

Hence, the accused petitioner is at liberty to file proper petition seeking return of the seized vehicle and after serving a copy of the same to the Ld Chief PP, Alipore and stating the date on which such petition shall be filed and moved before this Court so that the State might stand represented before this Court and raise objections, if any to such prayer.

Order no.14 dated 07-11-2025

Today is fixed for cross-examination of P.W.2 and P.W.3.
Out of 03 accused 02 Biswajit and Ishani Saha are present with their Ld advocate while rest 01 Parbati Saha is absent and is represented by her Ld advocate.
Ld P.P in-charge is present with P.W.2 and P.W.3 and who are cross-examined in full.
Ld P.P in-charge has filed a petition seeking to call for the medical witnesses to adduce evidence.
Ld advocate for the accused submitted that it would appear that the I.O out of an error had stated that the name of the sister of the victim as CSW1 and thereafter the victim has been examined as P.W.1.
It was further submitted that the sister of the victim is an interested witness and who should be examined first prior to the medical witnesses. It does appear that the sister of the victim should be examined prior to the medical witnesses considering the notion of a fair trial. Hence, issue summons addressed to the sister of the victim namely Ishita Saha D/O Prosanta Kumar Saha, 118 M.G Road Haridevpur,

Today is fixed for appearance of the accused Hafizul Molla who is on interim bail and E/R of W/A as regards the rest two accused namely Jelehr Molla and Chhunnat Molla.

The accused Hafizul Molla is present with his Ld advocate who has filed a petition seeking confirmation of the interim bail.

None has been appointed as yet to conduct the prosecution.

Hence, I have heard only the Ld advocate for the accused.

The interim bail stands confirmed.

Another accused namely Chhunnat Molla has surrendered voluntarily before this court and has filed Vakalatnama and a petition seeking bail.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused.

Considering the voluntary surrender, the accused be released on interim bail on furnishing bond of Rs.2000/- with one surety subject to satisfaction of the Ld CJM Alipore with condition that the accused must remain present on the next date i.e. 22-12-2025.

Order no.8 dated 31-10-2025

Today is fixed for appearance.

The accused Dhruba Mongal Das is present with his Ld advocate.

The accused Ramen Kumar Jha is again absent.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition seeking time.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the daughter of the accused has fallen ill and for which the accused could not appear.

Ld P.P in-charge has raised vehement objection to the prayer and submitted that the accused is on interim bail and was directed by this court to appear before this court today.

It would appear that the ground as verbally asserted does not find place in the written petition. Such a petition only states that the accused could not appear due to unavoidable circumstances.

No document in support of the ground as verbally asserted upon has been filed. Therefore, such an accused could not satisfy this court as to the ground which is so cogent enough so as to compel him to disregard a direction of this court.

Hence the petition stands rejected.

Order no.7 dated 27-10-2025

Today is fixed for judgment.

Both parties are present.

The judgment is made ready and the operative part is pronounced in open court. The operative part of the judgment is as follows:

that instant Criminal Appeal being Criminal Appeal No : 319 of 2024 (CIS: 05 of 2025) stands allowed, albeit not to the entire extent as prayed for by the appellant.

The order dated 30-10-2024 is hereby modified as regards the amount of interim monetary relief granted for the minor daughter and also the calculation of arrears.

The amount spelt by the learned trial court towards interim monetary relief of the aggrieved person is not increased in any manner. The interim monetary relief granted to meet up with the expenses with the daughter stands increased to Rs 30,000/- per month.

The order passed by the learned trial court specifying the date from which the order is sought to have effect remains upheld.

The direction as to payment of arrears is set-aside in part considering that the husband shall be liable to only pay the residuary arrears which are to be calculated by the learned trial court by deducting the voluntary payments (of which proper documentary proof has been put forth by the husband) from the entire accumulated arrears. Such arrears shall be made payable within the time as would be granted by the learned trial court after calculation of the residuary arrears required to be satisfied.

A copy of this judgment be sent to the Ld. Trial Court for information along with trial court record.

CRL Appeal No. 232 of 2025 CIS
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.3 dated 27-10-2025

The record is received from the court of the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore

Ld advocate for the appellant is present.

Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 is also present.

None has yet been appointed to represent the respondent no.1/State.

Ld Chief P.P Alipore is hereby requested to appoint a Ld advocate to represent the respondent no.1/State.

The TCR pertaining to AC 2726 of 2024 be also called for from the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate 10th Court, Alipore.

Ld advocate for the appellant submitted that the appellant had filed petition seeking stay of the operation of the impugned order.

The petition seeking stay is taken up for hearing.

Heard ld advocate for the appellant and Ld advocate for the respondent no.2.

Considered the submission and the materials on record.

Ld advocate for the appellant submitted that the appellant is employed as a masseur and does not have sufficient earnings to comply with the order passed by the Ld trial court. In reply to this court's query it was submitted that the case had proceeded ex parte before the appellant could have filed his own affidavit of disclosure assets and liabilities. Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 on the other hand submitted that the appellant had approached the court with unclean hands and submitted that even though the appellant had the occupation of a doctor, the appellant has falsely represented himself as being only a masseur. Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 has filed documents in support of such assertion. Ld advocate for the respondent no.2 further submitted that the appellant in his effort to hide his occupation did not mention such in the accompanying affidavits as filed along with the memo of appeal and also the petition seeking stay and also the application u/sec 5 of the Limitation Act.

It appears that only in the memo of appeal the appellant has stated that he works as a masseur earns about Rs.8000/- per month. At the time of hearing, the copy of the documents as relied upon by the respondent no.2 was not asserted to have been manufactured. Moreover, it appears that the respondent no.2 also has a minor child. It also appears that apart from the assertion that the appellant shall suffer irreparable loss if the order of stay is not granted, there is no other assertion as regards the grounds for praying such order of stay. It also appears from the copy of the orders that the appellant was given due opportunities to contest the case before the Ld trial court wherein he had appeared and thereafter had refrained from taking steps. Considering all such it does appear that at this stage it would not be proper to pass an order of stay. It also appears that cogent disputes have cropped up as regards the occupation of the appellant.

Considering all such, I am not inclined to allow the prayer for stay.

However, considering that the assertion of the appellant should be heard expeditiously and especially where no order of stay has been passed, I fix up the next date at the shortest interval.

The Ld trial court is requested to ensure that the TCR is duly sent to this court within the next date fixed.

To 06-11-2025 for TCR and hearing.

Let a copy of this order be sent to Ld Chief P.P Alipore and to the Ld Judicial Magistrate 10th Court, Alipore.

Order no.23 dated 22-09-2025

Today is fixed for further hearing upon the point of charge and order.

Out of 02 accused the accused Rakhi Dhapa is present with her Ld advocate while the accused Biswajit Das is absent and has prayed for time to appear through his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the materials on record and in the CD.

Considered.

On perusal of the written complaint it appears that the defacto complainant Abhijit Saha had lodged a complaint stating that he married the accused Rakhi Dhapa in the year 2011 and thereafter he came to know that his mother-in-law had a bad character. It is also alleged that his mother-in-law tried to force her daughter into prostitution and being instigated his wife used to leave the house without informing anyone and used to return back after many days. The accused Rakhi Dhapa became pregnant and hearing such her mother got enraged and began to pressurized the accused Rakhi Dhapa to opt for abortion. When the defacto complainant objected the mother-in-law and the other accused used to assault him. On 01-05-2012 the mother-in-law Pratima Dhapa took Rakhi Dhapa to a nursing home at Amtala and aborted the child. The defacto complaint went to the hospital and came to know that the abortion was caused by force. The written complaint was registered as FIR and which gave rise to Bishnupur P.S. Case No.356 of 2012 dated 05-05-2012 u/sec 312/313/120B/34 IPC and thereafter the investigation commenced and eventually charge sheet was submitted against three accused persons u/sec 312/313/120B/34 IPC. Among such three persons being the accused, the mother-in-law Pratima Dhapa had died.

Ld advocate for the rest 02 accused persons had submitted that there is no ground to frame a charge u/sec 312 or 313 IPC against the accused persons and for which such persons should be discharged. xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

CRL Motion 252 of 2023 CIS 34 of 2023

Order no.15 dated 22-09-2025

Today is fixed for TCR.

Ld advocate for the revisionist is present and has filed a petition seeking extension order of stay.

No steps taken by the O.P.No.2.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

In the instant case it appears that certain circumstances has arose that is required to be brought to the notice of the Ld CJM Alipore and also to the Ld District & Sessions Judge, South 24 Parganas.

The revisionist had filed the revision application and vide order dated 13-06-2023 the impugned order was stayed on interim basis. The operation of such impugned order has duly been extended till date. It would appear that since 05-12-2023 this court had called for submission of the TCR pertaining to M Case 780 of 2019 from the court of the Ld JM 9th Court, Alipore but till date the TCR has not been received. This court through order dated 08-04-2025, 11-06-2025 had even requested the Ld 9th JM Alipore to look into the matter personally and ensure transmission of the record but in vain. For almost three years the TCR has not been sent from the court of the Ld JM 9th Court, Alipore.

Surprising enough orders have been passed in such record by the Ld 9th JM Alipore on 05-03-2025, 03-05-2025 and thereafter the M case has been disposed of on 11-06-2025. Therefore it cannot be regarded that such a record was misplaced and for which such was not sent to this court. The non sending of record appears to be purposeful and such was not sent intentionally. Such occurrences must be put to rest.

Copy of this order be sent to the Ld District & Sessions Judge, Alipore and also to the Ld CJM Alipore.

A copy of this order be also sent to the Ld J.M 9th Court, Alipore and if such is vacant, the order should be placed before the Ld Magistrate in-charge.

Copy of the order should be sent to the Ld District Judge, Alipore along with a proper forwarding letter.

It appears that on the previous date the appellant was provided an opportunity to file written notes of argument as it appeared to this court that the appellant was unable to express himself with clarity. In order to avoid any injustice this court had suggested the appellant to file written notes of argument and had granted him opportunity to file such.

Today the appellant instead of availing such opportunity has filed an ambiguous written notes of argument for stay of all proceedings. It appears that repeatedly such prayer for stay is being filed and is being rejected by this court. It would appear that the instant appeal has been preferred against the order dated 22-08-2023 passed by the Ld 5th Judicial Magistrate Alipore in C 3492 of 2018. S.C.03(07)2023 CIS 05 of 2024
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.15 dated 15-09-2025

Today is fixed for passing order upon the petition as was filed by the accused Aftab Ahamed seeking discharge.

Out of 14 accused persons 13 are present with their Ld advocate while rest 01 accused namely Nadim Ahamed is absent and has prayed for time to appear.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard.

The prayer for time stands allowed.

I proceed to pass order upon the petition seeking discharge.

Considered the materials on record and the CD.

First and foremost I find it proper to state that the Ld advocate for the accused Aftab Ahamed had also filed series of documents in support of the prayer for discharge. A question arises as to whether at the stage of framing of charge the court can take into consideration the documents relied upon by the accused. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Gujarat VS Dilip Singh Kishoresinh Rao and cited in 2023 Livelaw (SC) 874 was pleased to hold that "at the time of framing of charge and taking cognizance, the accuse has no right to produce any material and call upon the court to examine the same. No provision in the code grants any right to the accused to file any material or document at the stage of framing of charge. The trial court has to apply its judicial mind to the facts of the case as may be necessary to determine whether a case has been made by the prosecution for trial on the basis of charge sheet material only. It is settled principle of law that at the stage of considering the application for discharge, the court must proceed on the assumption that the material that has been brought on record by the prosecution is true and evaluate the material to determine the facts emerging from the material taken on its face disclose the existence of ingredients necessary for the offence alleged". Therefore, the documents relied upon by the accused petitioner cannot be taken into consideration at this stage and at this stage the court has to remain confined within the contours of the materials produced by the prosecution.

Hence, I proceed to look into the question as to whether there are materials brought forth by the prosecution justifying the framing of a charge against the accused or whether the petition filed by the accused Aftab Ahamed is a cogent one. The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi was pleased to pass an order on 23-12-2014 and number of persons were appointed as local commissioner. The police team also assisted the local commissioners on 13-01-2015 during the raid at various shops situated at Fancy Market. During such raid a group of miscreants attacked and assaulted the local commissioners who were appointed by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi causing severe bodily injury. The police personnel also received severe injuries. It is alleged that all such shop owners and their men and agents had assaulted the raiding team to deter them from discharging their government duties. The investigation commenced and culminated in a charge sheet u/sec 147/148/149/353/332/307/34 IPC. The charge sheet was submitted against 14 accused persons including the accused petitioner Aftab Ahamed. The accused petitioner Aftab Ahamed filed the petition seeking discharge on 19-06-2025 stating that on the date of the incident he was taken to CMRI Hospital for treatment and on the next date i.e. on 13-01-2015 the petitioner had went to Woodland Hospital for treatment. It is further stated that the accused petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case and with such assertion the prayer for discharge has been preferred. It would appear that a TIP was held as regards such accused and the accused was identified by some of the witnesses as being involved in the alleged offence. I have also perused the statements as recorded of the witnesses and in such it appears that some of the witnesses have stated the name of the accused as being involved in the alleged incident. Therefore, there are sufficient incriminating materials against the accused petitioner Aftab Ahamed. At this stage if it is presumed that such evidence is true, such absolutely justifies the rejection of the prayer seeking discharge. Therefore, on the materials brought forth by the prosecution it appears that at this stage the accused cannot effectively seek discharge.

Ld advocate for the accused petitioner also asserted that the victim commissioner has not made any complaint and also asserted that the accused petitioner was arrested after a long two months from the date of initiation of the case. There is no mandate that the victim must file the complaint and any one witnessing the incident can come forth and assume the role of an informant. Further more, mere delay in arresting an accused cannot be a cogent ground to allow the prayer for discharge. Ld advocate for the accused/petitioner had also stated that the CCTV footage has been seized and such footage does not show the involvement of the accused/petitioner. At this stage, the court cannot conduct a roving enquiry and scrutinize the footage entirely to seek the presence of the accused.

Hence, it is hereby,

that the petition dated 19-06-2025 has filed by the accused Aftab Ahamed stands rejected.

To 17-11-2025 for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

Order no.2 dated 15-09-2025

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

All the eight accused persons are present today with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the record and the CD.

It would appear that it is the allegation that the accused persons have been trying to grab the property of the defacto complainant and on 07-11-2023 had verbally abused the defacto complainant and her husband and that also assaulted the defacto complainant and her son. It was further alleged that over such incident a specific case was started but the accused persons began to pressurize the defacto complainant withdraw the case. It is also alleged that on 29-06-2024 the accused persons had threatened the defacto complainant and thereafter on 02-07-2024 at about 7.00 p.m.the accused persons had verbally abused the defacto complainant and the accused no.1 and 2 had also tore the wearing apparel in order to outrage the modesty of the defacto complainant.

The complaint was registered and thereafter investigation proceeded and ended in the submission of the charge sheet u/sec 126 (2)/115(2)/79/76/351/3(5) BNS. It would appear that among such sections as stated in the charge sheet it is only section 76 BNS which is a sessions triable offence. Section 76 of the BNS lays down that whoever assaults or uses criminal force to a woman or abets such act with the intention of disrobing or compelling her to be naked shall be punished with imprisonment of either description which shall not be less than three years but which may extent to 7 years and shall also be liable to fine. Therefore one of the necessary ingredients of such offence is the intention to disrobe or compel the woman to be naked. It would appear that during the course of investigation nothing has been seized as torn wearing apparels. Further more, if the statements are considered it would appear that such does not brig forth the intention to disrobe the victim. At the most, such allegations might lead to the offence of outraging of modesty and which is an offence triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. There appears no ground to frame a charge u/sec 76 BNS against the accused.

that all the eight accused persons to appear before the Ld ACJM Alipore on 24-11-2025. The date is informed to the Ld Advocate in presence of the accused in open court.

The instant record be also sent to the Court of the Ld ACJM Alipre.

Order no.46 dated 10-09-2024

Today is fixed for hearing upon the petitioner as filed by the accused on 18-07-2025.

Out of two accused persons on court bail, only one accused Rafat Ali is present with his Ld advocate. The other accused Rejia Begam is absent. Ld advocate for the accused filed a petition u/sec 317 Cr.P.C. on behalf of the absentee accused Rejia Begam. Prayer is considered and allowed.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the accused persons has stated that the prosecution did not supply the medical reports including the reports of the hospitals being Khariberia Hospital and MR Bangur Hospital and for which a direction be passed upon the I/O to answer as to whether such documents would be relied upon by the prosecution.

Ld P.P in-charge raised objection to such a petition and submitted that prior to commitment all the copies were supplied to the accused persons on 16-03-2017 and such copies were received by the accused persons in presence of the Ld advocate as appears from the order sheet and even earlier the contention of the accused with regard to such medical reports was rejected by this court vide order dated 03-01-2025.

It appears that the prosecution was given the liberty to supply documents to the defence as was available to the prosecution. It would also appear that vide order dated 02-06-2025 this court had ordered that if during the course of trial the prosecution seeks to bring forth any further document the copy of such would stands supplied to the accused so as not to prejudice the accused. Further more the prayer in the petition is absolutely not a cogent one.

Hence, on the above discussion and consideration it is hereby ordered that the petition dated 18-07-2025 as filed by the accused persons stands rejected.

Order no.81 dated 10-09-2025

Today is fixed for E/R of the bailable witness warrant issued against the I/O being S.I R.K Chowhan and evidence.

Out of five accused persons 03 are present with their Ld advocate while rest 02 are absent and are represented by their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

No witness is present.

No NER received.

This court does not have enough words to condemn the role being played by the I/O S.I R.K Chowhan.

The I.O should ask himself as to what purpose an investigation shall serve if ultimately during the trial he himself remains absent to adduce evidence.

It would appear that the instant case was registered in the year 2012 and the trial is pending only due to absence of the I/O. The trial must be concluded at the earliest. This court had issue a bailable witness warrant against the I/O with a request to the Superintendent of Police Diamond Harbour Police District to ensure the presence of the I/O but in vain.

I provide the Superintendent of Police Diamond Harbour Police District to take note and it is expected that he shall ensure the presence of the I.O before this court on the next date.

It has become the regular affair that witnesses does not remain present and neither any S/R is received. The I/Os, unfortunately has forgotten the direction passed by the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in CRR 854 of 2011. Such is not only leading to stagnancy in trial but is also causing prejudice to both the accused and the defacto complainant.

Copy of this order be sent to the Superintendent of Police Diamond Harbour Police District through the e-mail being ddhpolicedistrict@gmail.com.

Copy of this order be also sent to the email being policewb@gmail.com and policewb@yahoo.com.

Order no.9 dated 09-09-2025

Today is fixed for E/R of the witness warrant and further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

All the five accused persons on court bail, are present with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with P.W.1.

Ld advocate for such witness has filed Vakalatnama and has also filed a petition seeking bail.

Heard.

Considering that the witness has appeared today, and also considering his submission that he could not appear due to his wife being in an advanced stage of pregnancy, his previous absence stands condoned.

The witness warrant be recalled.

The witness is further examined-in-chief and such is concluded.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that CSW 5,7 and 8 are the family members of P.W.1 and prays that the cross-examination be deferred till completion of the examination-in-chief of such witnesses.

No objection has been raised.

It does appear that such witnesses are the family members of P.W.1.

It also appears that the prayer should be allowed considering the guidelines of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as passed in State of Kerela VS Rasheed (Criminal Appeal 1321 of 2018). There was no assertion by the Ld P.P in-charge that the witnesses might be unduly influenced or might stand subjected to harassment or intimidation.

It also appears that no prejudice shall be caused to the prosecution if such a prayer is allowed.

Hence, I allow the prayer.

The witness P.W.1 is released without being cross-examined.

Order no.64 dated 20-08-2025

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition filed by the Ld advocate for the appellant.

Ld advocate for the appellant is present and submitted that an appeal was preferred against the judgment dated 11-02-2009 and the appeal was allowed and the appellats were acquitted. It was further submitted that the appellants were directed to deposit a sum of Rs.4.00 lakhs vide order dated 04-05-2010 by the Ld Sessions Judge, District South 24 Parganas and in accordance with such the appellants had deposited the sum in court.

It has been also submitted that no further appeal has been preferred against the judgment passed by this court and for which the appellants be refunded with such amount of Rs.4.00 lakhs.

On perusal of the record it appears that such payment was made as a condition precedent for stay of the judgment of conviction and thereafter such judgment has been overturned in appeal. Therefore the appellants are entitled to be refunded with such amount of Rs.4.00 lakhs which was deposited on 11-06-2010 in peremptory cash bearing receipt no.0803311. Hence, the judicial cashier is hereby directed to take proper steps to refund such money and deposit the same in the account of the appellants bearing account no.9426300005 and being maintained at Kotak Mahindra Bank, IFSC KKBK0002587.

Order no.13 dated 03-09-2025

Today is fixed for further cross-examination of P.W.3.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with P.W.3.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the order passed by this court on 25-08-2025 has prejudiced the accused and for which the accused is inclined to prefer a revision against such order.

Ld advocate for the accused further submitted that he has already applied for the certified copy and has also filed a copy of the counterpart. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that if such opportunity is not given, the accused shall suffer irreparable harm. Ld P.P. in-charge vehemently objected to the prayer and submitted that if the record is perused it would appear that considerable delay has been caused to the trial only for the accused. Ld P.P in-charge further submitted that the trial is being delayed through various modes undertaken by the accused.

It would appear that the instant case involves an offence u/sec 302 IPC along with section 324 IPC and also that the accused is facing a custodial trial. It cannot be denied that the charge has been framed on 02-12-2024 and till date only two witnesses have been examined in full. It also appears that much delay has also been caused due to the accused remaining unrepresented. Therefore, there is a dire-need to proceed with the trial without any delay. However, if the prayer for adjournment seeking opportunity to approach the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta being aggrieved by the order dated 25-08-2025 is refused the accused would also stand prejudiced.

Hence, I find it proper to allow one opportunity to the accused to assail the order passed by this court before the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta and to bring specific stay orders.

The accused to note that in the absence of specific stay order this court shall be compelled to proceed with the trial.

To 17-11-2025 for further cross-examination of P.W.3. Any stay order to be filed on such date or in the meantime. The witness is released without being examined. The date is fixed at a sufficient interval to provide an opportunity to the accused to bring forth specific orders.

SC 28(02)25 CIS 40 of 2025
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no 4 dated 01-098-2025

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

Out of the three accused persons 01 Argha Das is present with his learned Advocate, while rest 02 are absent and has prayed for time to appear through their Ld advocate.

Learned PP in charge is also present.

The prayer for time stands allowed.

Heard learned advocates over the point of consideration of charge. Perused the documents on record and the case diary.

Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the defacto complaint had filed a petition under section 175(3) CrPC and which was allowed by the Ld ACJM Alipore on 02-08-2024 and following such the petition was registered as an FIR and Regent Park P.S. Case No.187 of 2024 dated 17-08-2024 was started u/secs 329(4)/115(2)/76/54 of the BNS.

The investigation commenced and on completion of such charge sheet was submitted under the same sections against 03 accused persons. Cognizance was taken and thereafter a case was committed to the court of the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore and thereafter transferred to this court for trial and disposal.

Among the sections as inserted in the charge sheet it is only section 76 BNS which is a sessions triable offence. The rest of the offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Section 76 of the BNS lays down the offence of assault or use of criminal force upon a woman with an intent to disrobe. The section lays down that 'whoever assaults or uses criminal force to any woman or abets such act with the intention of disrobing or compelling her to be naked, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which shall not be less than three years but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine'. Therefore there must be an intention of disrobing a woman or compelling her to be naked.

I have perused the statement as recorded by the I.O. of the defacto complainant and also the statement of her husband and son. Such statements as recorded does not support the submission of a charge sheet u/sec 76 BNS. The statements brings forth the allegation of commission of offence u/sec 74 BNS along with the other sections stated in the charge sheet but not section 76 BNS. Furthermore, the intention is to be gathered from the circumstances revealed during the course of investigation. It would appear that no wearing apparel has been seized by the I.O during the course of investigation. The materials on record and in the C.D. does not support the allegations comprising offence u/sec 76 BNS and a charge cannot be framed under such a section in the instant case. The rest of the allegations comprises offence triable by the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Ld advocate for the accused persons submitted that the accused persons be provided the liberty to assert upon the prayer for discharge before the Ld Judicial Magistrate to whom the trial may be transferred.

I allow such.

The prayer for discharge as filed by the accused persons stands rejected as not pressed upon but with liberty to the accused persons to prefer a similar prayer before the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Hence, it is hereby;

ORDERED

that the case record be sent to the Court of the Ld ACJM Alipore. Ld ACJM Alipore shall proceed with the adjudication of the instant case either himself or by a Ld Judicial Magistrate.

The accused persons to appear in the Court of the Ld ACJM, Alipore on 17-11-2025.

Order no.60 dated 30-08-2025

Today is fixed for argument.

Ld advocate for the claimant is present and has filed an application seeking amendment. Ld advocate for the O.P.No.2/Insurance Company is present.

Heard Ld advocates over the application seeking amendment.

Ld advocate for the claimant submitted that the original claim petition was filed on 19-01-2016 and thereafter such was amended and the amended claim petition was filed on 10-08-2022 but in the amended claim petition due to an inadvertent error during drafting a sentence got erroneously inserted being 'the offender driver of the said Oil Tanker bearing Registration No.WB-11B-3860 was solely responsible for the said accident'.

Ld advocate for the claimant has filed the application to delete such a sentence. It appears that such a amendment is absolutely formal.

Hence, considering such, the prayer for amendment stands allowed.

The necessary amendment be made in the amended claim petition.

D.A to make the necessary alteration. As no opportunity has been sought forth by the applicant seeking to adduce any further evidence following such amendment and such opportunity has been prayed for by the Ld advocate for the O.P.No.2/Insurance Company, I fix up the next date for further D.W. if any.

To 29-10-2025 for further D.W., if any i.d. argument.

Order no.3 dated 30-08-2024

Today is fixed for further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

out of 03 accused 02 Pronab Das and Chaitali chatterjee are present with their Ld advocate while rest 01 Sankar Chatterjee is absent and is allowed to stand represented by his Ld advocate. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that if P.W.1 is cross-examined before the examination-in-chief of her parents, the defence of the accused shall stand disclosed causing prejudice to the accused and filed an application u/sec 231 (2) Cr.P.C.

The application u/sec 231 (2) Cr.P.C. is taken up for hearing.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge. Ld P.P in-charge has raised objection. It does appear that considering the nature of the case, CSW 2 and 3 are the witnesses who might mould their evidence if the cross-examination of P.W.1 is commenced prior to their examination-in-chief. Further more it appears that considering the factors to be considered as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Kerala VS Rasheed, the application deserves to be allowed.

Hence, the application u/sec 231(2) Stands allowed.

The witness P.W.1 is released without being cross-examined.

Issue summons addressed to CSW 2 and 3.

Ld P.P in-charge has filed a petition stating that the address of CSW 2 and 3 as stated in the charge sheet is not proper and the correct address was derived from P.W.1 and for which the prosecution be allowed to serve the summons upon such witnesses at the correct address. There is no embargo to allow such a prayer.

Hence, the petition stands allowed.

J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no 4 dated 28-8-2025

Today is fixed for opening case by the prosecution and consideration of charge.

All the five accused persons are present with their learned Advocate. Learned PP in charge is also present. Heard learned advocates over the point of consideration of charge. Perused the documents on record and the case diary. Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the defacto complainant filed a petition under section 156(3) CrPC and which was allowed and thereafter Basanti PS case no 19 of 2024 was started. The investigation proceeded and thereafter on completion of such chargesheet was submitted under sections 498A/406/354B/376/511/34 IPC. Cognizance was taken and thereafter such was committed to the court of the Ld sessions judge Alipore and thereafter transferred to this court for trial and disposal. The allegations as levelled is that the defacto complainant got married but after the marriage the father-in-law began to demand money and told her that if she was not able to arrange for the money, she should obey him. The husband used to work at Kolkata and taking undue advantage of such, the father-in-law used to make indecent proposals to her. the father-in-law also used to pull the hands of the victim and also had torn her wearing apparels and proposed to have sexual relations with her. The accused persons also inflicted cruelty upon her and has threatened her. Such is the crux of the allegations.

It would appear that among the offences as alleged to have been committed by the accused persons, it is only 376/511 IPC which is a sessions triable one. It would appear from the statements that they are disputes over property within the family and more so between the de facto complainant and husband on one side and the father-in-law and other family members on the other. It would appear that dealing process of investigation not a single wearing apparel has been seized by the investigating officer. There is a thin line of difference between the offence under section 354 IPC or 354B IPC and that of 376/511 IPC. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India while dealing with the term 'attempt' was pleased to hold as follows:

'Attempt' is the direct movement towards the commission after the preparations are over. [REF: State of Madhya Pradesh vs Mahendra Alias Golu | LL 2021 SC 590]. In the instant case, it can never be stated from the materials collected that the act of the accused, even if committed had entered the contours of 'attempt'.

In the instant case all the materials collected by the investigating officer during the course of investigation does not go to show that any charge can be framed under section 376/511 of the Indian penal code.

Hence, it is hereby;

ORDERED

that the case record be sent to the Court of the Ld ACJM Alipore. Ld ACJM Alipore shall proceed with the adjudication of the instant case either himself or by a Ld Judicial Magistrate.

The accused persons to appear in the Court of the Ld ACJM, Alipore on 29-10-2025.

Order no.12 dated 28-08-2025

Today is fixed for consideration of charge.

Out of four accused 03 are present with their Ld advocate while 01 Samrat Bag is absent and has prayed for time to appear.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

The prayer for time stands allowed.

Heard Ld advocates over point of charge.

Perused the record and the C.D.

Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the defacto complainant Subhas Patra made a complaint at Nodakhali P.S. alleging that on 03-07-2021 at about 1.00 p.m. the accused Samrat Bag began to verbally abused his mother and thereafter his elder brother Sujay Patra raised objection. Thereafter all the four accused persons began to assault Sujay Patra causing grave injuries and also bit the finger of Sujay Patra and severe a portion of such finger. The victim fell unconscious and thereafter he was taken to a Nursing Home where he was medically treated. On the basis of such complaint Nodakhali P.S. Case No.189 of 2021 dated 04-07-2021 was started u/secs 341/326/307/34 of IPC. Investigation commenced and thereafter such ended in the submission of charge sheet u/secs 341/326/307/34 IPC against the four accused persons.

A question that requires to be determined is whether the materials on record in the C.D justifies the framing of a charge u/sec 307 IPC. If the materials justifies the framing of a charge u/sec 307 IPC, the offence shall be triable by this Court. However, if it appears that there is no prima facie material to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC the present case shall be triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Hence, I proceed to look into such questions.

It would appear on perusal of the injury report of Sujay Patra it would appear that such states that the injured was suffering from secondary infection of right thumb. The victim appear to have sought for medical treatment on 20-07-2021 while alleged incident has been stated to have occurred on 03-07-2021. The injury report does not support the contention of the Ld P.P in-charge that charge can be framed under 307 IPC. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Shibamani & another VS state represented by Inspector of Police and cited in 2023 livelaw (SC) 1024 was pleased to lay down the factors which should be present as being ingredients of section 307 IPC. In the instant case the nature of the injury, place where such has been inflicted and the alleged mode through which such has been inflicted does not support the framing of a charge u/sec 307 IPC. The rest of the offences as alleged are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Hence, it is hereby ordered that the instant record be sent to the court of the Ld ACJM Alipore who shall try the offences himself or through any other Ld Judicial Magistrate. All the accused to appear before the Ld ACJM Alipore on 29-10-2025.

Order no.37 dated 28-08-2025

Today is fixed for TCR.

Ld advocate for the revisionist has filed hazira. Ld advocate for the OP No.1 and Ld P.P in-charge for the O.P.No.2 are also present.

The TCR pertaining to ACM 306 of 2016 (Mis Soumili Banerjee through Mrs Aditi Sarkar VS Subhadeep Banerjee) has not been received from the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate, 6th Court, Alipore.

The Ld Judicial Magistrate, 6th Court, Alipore was also informed that if the TCR is not received this court shall be compelled to seek intervention of the Ld District Judge, Alipore. It is absolutely unexpected and undesirable that in spite of such the Ld Judicial Magistrate 6th Court, Alipore has not sent the TCR and also has not prayed for any time to trace out the TCR. Before seeking intervention of the Ld District Judge, Alipore I find it proper to bring such to the notice of the Ld CJM Alipore.

A copy of this order along with the copies of the orders dated 11-02-2025, 05-04-2025, 16-06-2025, 23-07-2025 be sent to the Ld CJM Alipore.

Today is fixed for evidence of CSW5 and 6.

Out of five accused persons on court bail, 04 are present with their Ld advocate while the rest 01 accused Safi Alam is absent and is allowed to stand represented by his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

NO witness is present and no S/R received. Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the charge has been framed on 07-03-2020 and till date apart from P.W.1 not a single other witness has been brought forth by the prosecution. Ld P.P in-charge submitted that due to pendency of the warrant issued against the witnesses and also for the purpose of death report, the delay has been caused.

It appears that the prayer u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. seeking cross-examination of CSW 1, 3 and 4 after completion of their examination-in-chief was allowed vide order dated 01-02-2024 but since then only CSW 1 has been examined in chief as P.W.1. This court has issued bailable witness warrant against CSW 3 and 4 but in vain. The prosecution to note that if on the next date CSW 3 and 4 are not found present this court shall proceed to fix up the next date for evidence of CSW 1.

A copy of this order be sent to the concerned I/O being S.I Saibal Roy of Nadial P.S.

Order no.12 dated 25-08-2025

Today is fixed for evidence of CSW1.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with CSW1 and who is examined-in-chief in full and thereafter on conclusion of the examination-in-chief of CSW 1 as P.W.3, Ld advocate for the accused filed an application seeking deferment of the cross-examination of such witness till the examination-in-chief of Sk. Zeeshan, Md Imran, Md Kasif and Md Selim.

Heard Ld advocates over such application.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that such witnesses are the friends of CSW 1 and for which such an application has been preferred.

Ld P.P in-charge has vehemently objected to such prayer and submitted that if the application along with the charge sheet is considered it would appear that there are no witnesses enlisted in the charge sheet as Md Imran. It was also submitted that the prayer has been filed not only after the evidence of P.W.1 and P.W.2 but also after completion of the examination-in-chief of CSW 1. Ld P.P in-charge, with such submission, prayed for rejection of the prayer.

First and foremost it appears that in all most all cases such similar application are filed. The application u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. cannot be allowed as a matter of regular course but such can be allowed only on fulfillment of the conditions laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Kerala VS Rasheed (Criminal Appeal No.1321 of 2018). It would appear that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India had opined that there cannot be any straight jacket formula for exercising discretion u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. and such as to be taken up on a case to case basis. It would appear that one of the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India is that the prayer u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. must be preferably made before preparation of the case Calender. It was also opined that the guiding principle would be whether the accused would be prejudiced if the prayer for deferral is dismissed.

It would appear from the petition that the only reason as to such application being preferred is that the other witnesses are the friends of the defacto complainant.

There is no assertion that such witnesses might mould their evidence in their effort to seek a conviction of the accused. There is no reason brought forth as to why all such witnesses might choose to mould the evidence to bring-forth a conviction of the accused other than being friends with each other.

Considering all such, the prayer does not deserve to be allowed and stands rejected accordingly.

Considering the interest of justice and considering that the accused is being represented by legal aid, I fix up a date for cross-examination of P.W.3.

To 03-09-2025 for further cross-examination of P.W.3

The date is informed to the witness with a direction to remain present on the next date.

Order no.12 dated 25-08-2025

Today is fixed for evidence of C.S.W.1.

Out of six accused persons on court bail, 02 are present with their Ld advocate while rest 04 are absent and are allowed to stand represented by their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with CSW 1.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a petition u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

No objection has been raised.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the Ld advocate for the accused has filed such stating that CSW 1 to CSW 6 are all family members and they shall mold their testimony to aid the prosecution in order to convict the accused persons and for which such witnesses be examined in chief before commencing their cross-examination.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that if the accused proceeds to cross-examine P.W.1, the defence of the accused shall stand disclose. It appears that such witnesses are in fact near relatives. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of State of Kerala VS Rasheed (Criminal Appeal No.1321 of 2018) was pleased to lay down the factors which must be considered while deciding an application u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. It would appear that it has not been asserted by the prosecution that the witnesses might be unduly influenced or threatened. It also appears that there is no possibility that there might be any loss of memory. Further more, it does appear that considering the relation between the witnesses, non deferral might enable the witnesses to give evidence in a similar fashion by moulding their evidence.

Hence, the application u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. stands allowed.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with the I/O and who is examined and cross-examined as P.W.7. No further evidence is sought to be adduced.

Hence, P.W. stands closed.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed an application u/sec 311 Cr.P.C.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge . Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the witnesses being CSW1 is required to be confronted with an affidavit sworn by him stating that the dispute was amicably settled.

Ld P.P in-charge raised objection stating that such evidence sought to be brought forth through 311 CR.P.C is irrelevant and such a prayer should not be allowed.

I find myself in consonance with the submission of the ld P.P in-charge.

If the document is perused it appears that such only states the matter was compromised and does not state that the allegations were false.

Hence, such a document stating the compromise is irrelevant to a proper adjudication.

Hence, the application stands rejected.

CRL Appeal 209 of 2023 CIS 43 of 2024

J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.10 dated 21-08-2025

Today is fixed for hearing.

The appellant is present and is allowed to conduct the hearing personally.

Ld P.P in-charge representing the respondent no.2 is present.

The appellant has filed a petition seeking stay of to proceeding being C 3492 of 2019 and Mex. 691 of 2024.

Heard the appellant and the Ld P.P in-charge.

It would appear that this court has already refused the prayer for stay vide order dated 17-05-2025. It appears that even prior to such date the prayer of the appellant seeking stay was refused by the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore. Considering the proceedings sought to be stayed and the impact it might have upon the respondent no.1 and also considering the grounds as set forth for stay, I am not inclined to pass such order as prayed for.

Hence, the prayer for stay stands refused.

Heard the appellant in part over the instant appeal. The hearing stood deferred as granting an opportunity to the appellant to file written notes of argument.

To 15-09-2025 for further hearing.

The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with the defacto complainant being CSW 6 and who is examined-in-chief as P.W.1. Ld advocate for the accused has filed an application u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. stating that the defacto complainant and her two children be allowed to be cross-examined after completion of their examination-in-chief. Ld P.P in-charge has not raised any objection.

It appears that one of the alleged victim being the son of the defacto complainant namely Anshu Yadav has not been enlisted as a charge sheet witness.

Hence, I find it proper to invoke the provisions of 311 Cr.P.C and summon such victim as a witness. As regards the prayer u/sec 231(2) Cr.P.C. it would appear that it has been alleged that the incident took place in presence of the defacto complainant and her two children. Order no.12 dated 19-08-2025

Today was fixed for production of the accused Surajit Kabiraj.

The accused is produced and is remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld P.P in-charge is not present.

Ld advocate for the accused has filed a fresh Vakalatnama and a petition seeking bail.

As none is present to represent the prosecution, I have only heard the Ld advocate for the accused. Considered the submission of the Ld advocate and the materials on record.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that given an opportunity the accused shall not abscond and shall participate in the trial.

It appears that the accused is in custody since 25-07-2025.

Considering such period of detention and the submission of the Ld advocate, I find it proper to grant an interim bail to the accused.

Hence, the accused be enlarged on interim bail on furnishing bond of Rs.3000/- with one surety subject to satisfaction of the Ld CJM Alipore with condition that he must remain present on the next date fixed without fail.

If on bail, to 23-09-2025 for appearance and fixation of schedule.

If no bonds are filed the accused be produced on such date fixed.

Today is fixed for evidence of C.S.W.1, S.I Tathagata Pandey.

Both the accused persons on court bail, are absent and are allowed to stand represented by their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

No witness is present today.

It appears that a report has been received but from such residential address cannot be determined. Ld P.P in-charge fairly submitted that one further opportunity be given to the prosecution to bring-forth such witness.

I allow such.

The prosecution to take necessary steps to ensure the presence of CSW1 on the next date fixed.

Ld advocate for the accused also submitted that he shall ensure the presence of the accused on the next date fixed.

Considering such submission I refrained from taking any coercive steps against the accused to compel their appearance. The O/C Jadavpur P.S. is hereby directed to inform this court about the present address of CSW 1, S.I Tathagata Pandey.

Order no.1 dated 18-08-2025

The record is received from the court of Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore.

Ld advocate for the appellant and Ld advocate for the respondent are present.

The TCR pertaining to C case no.1804 of 2021 be called from the court of the Ld 9th J.M Alipore.

Copy of this order be sent to the Ld 9th J.M Alipore.

Ld advocate for the appellant has moved the application has filed on 13-05-2025 seeking stay of the operation of the impugned order.

Ld advocate for the appellant submitted that the respondent is a working lady having her own employment and also submitted that the minor son has been residing with the appellant since long. Ld advocate for the respondent fairly submitted that it is admitted that the minor son has been residing with the appellant and also submitted that a conditional order of stay may be passed. Considered the submission of the Ld advocates and the materials on record.

It appears that passing an order of stay on the operation of the order as regards the interim relief granted to the minor son would not prejudice the welfare of the son as it is the admitted position that the son has been residing with the appellant. As regards the prayer seeking stay of operation of the order granting interim monetary relief to the respondent/wife, it would appear that directing the appellant to pay interim monetary relief to the tune of Rs.4000/- per month as a condition towards stay of the operation of the impugned order would not prejudice the respondent and also would not be cumbersome to the appellant pending adjudication of the instant appeal.

Hence, the prayer seeking stay of operation of the impugned order stands allowed subject to the condition as imposed. The stay shall remain in force till the next date fixed.

The appellant must pay interim monetary relief to the tune of Rs.4000/- per month to the respondent as condition towards the stay and shall file the money receipts in this court along with any prayer seeking extension of the stay order. The amount shall be paid within the 10th day of each English Calendar month.

Order no.30 dated 31-07-2025

Today is fixed for evidence as final opportunity.

Ld advocate for the claimant has filed a petition seeking an adjournment on the ground as mentioned therein.

Ld advocate for the O.P.No.2 has filed hazira.

None has moved for the parties in spite of repeated calls till 1.45 p.m.

It appears that for the last two dates none has been appearing for the claimant.

The adjournments cannot be sought for as a matter of right.

Considering such the petition seeking adjournment stands rejected.

It appears palpably that the claimant is not will to proceed with the instant claim petition diligently.

Hence, the instant case stands dismissed for non prosecution of the same.

Order no.4 dated 31-07-2025

Today is fixed for evidence of CSW1.

The sole accused is present with her Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present with CSW1 who is examined-in-chief as P.W.1.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that CSW4 and 5 is the wife and daughter of CSW1 and if CSW1 is cross-examined today the defence of the accused shall stand disclose and prays that the cross-examination of CSW1 (P.W.1) be deferred till completion of the examination of CSW 4 and 5 and has filed a petition to that effect.

Ld P.P in-charge has raised no objection to such prayer.

It does appear that non deferral might enable the mere relatives to give evidence on similar facts by tailoring their testimony. Moreover, it was not asserted by the prosecution that allowing such prayer might bring-forth the possibility of undue influence or threat to the witnesses or might cause loss of memory of the witnesses. I have also taken into consideration the guidelines of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as passed in the case of State of Kerala VS Rasheed in Crl Appeal No.1321 of 2019. Considering all such the prayer stands allowed.

To 15-09-2025 for evidence of CSW4 and CSW5.

Order no.19 dated 31-07-2025

Today is fixed for E/R of the witness warrant and further examination-in-chief of PW1. The witness PW1 is present before this court.

Out of four accused persons 01 Ashok Naskar is present with his Ld advocate while rest 03 are absent and are allowed to stand represented by their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is not present.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that he had made an attempt to inform the Ld P.P in-charge over phone but the Ld P.P in-charge did not pick up the calls.

It is really unfortunate that the witnesses have to be returned without being examined due to absence of the Ld P.P in-charge.

It appears that even on the previous two dates the Ld P.P in-charge was not found present.

The unfortunate scenario should be brought to the notice of the Ld Chief P.P Alipore.

Hence, copy of this order be sent to the Ld Chief P.P Alipore.

The witness is released without being examined considering that there is none to conduct the prosecution.

To 12-09-2025 for further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

It is expected that another Ld P.P in-charge shall be appointed to conduct the prosecution if the present P.P in-charge Sri Roma Prosad Basu is unable for any reason to conduct the prosecution.

Today is fixed for further hearing.

Ld advocate for the revisionist and Ld advocate for the O.P.No.1 are present.

Ld advocates for the OP No.1 has sought for an adjournment stating that the Op NO.1 has filed an application u/sec 408 Cr.P.C. before the Ld District & Sessions Judge, South 24 Parganas with a prayer to transfer the instant proceeding from this court to the court of the Ld Additional District Judge, 17 th court Alipore.

Objections have been raised.

Ld advocate for the revisionist submitted that there was no order of stay passed by the Ld Sessions Judge, Alipore and that the matter was already part heard.

Ld advocate for the O.P.No.1 prayed for an opportunity to bring specific orders of stay.

It cannot be denied that the matter has already been part heard.

Further more, considering the direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as passed in the case of Sundarbhai Ambalal Deshai as regards return of seized articles, it is absolutely necessary that the instant proceeding should be disposed off without delay. However, as the O.P.no.1 appears to have sought for transfer of the instant case, I find it proper to provide an opportunity to the O.P.No.1 to bring specific orders of stay or any specific order of transfer on the next date, I.d. this court shall proceed with the further hearing.

Order no.68 dated 30-07-2025

Today is fixed for argument.
All the three accused are present with their Ld advocate.
Ld P.P in-charge is present and filed a petition u/sec 311 Cr.P.C.
Heard Ld advocates over such petition.
Perused the record.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that such has been filed stating that this scribe has not been examined and for which the written complaint bearing the LTI of the defacto complainant has not been admitted into evidence and marked as an Exhibit.

The Ld P.P in-charge submitted that the prosecution was being conducted by another Ld Public Prosecutor and it might be due to an error that such a witness was not called for to be examined.

Ld advocate for the accused has raised objection citing the long pendency.

It cannot be denied that the written complaint is a vital piece of evidence and non marking of such after proper proof can be fatal to the prosecution. Further more it cannot be denied that the power u/sec 311 Cr.P.C. can be invoked at any stage of the trial and even after closing of the evidence as opined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of KP Tamilmaran VS State and cited in 2025 Livelaw (SC) 493.

Therefore, I allow the petition as filed today u/sec 311 Cr.P.C.

The prosecution to take steps and ensure presence of the scribe before this court on the next date.

To 12-08-2025 for further evidence.

Misc case 01 of 2025 CIS 01 of 2025
Arising out of Arb. Exe. 642 of 2023
J.O Code :- WB01070

Order no.5 dated 29-07-2025

Today is fixed for passing order upon the question of maintainability.

Ld advocate for the petitioner is present.

Considering the materials on record and the submissions of the Ld advocate for the petitioner.

It would appear that the instant misc case emanates out of an application u/sec 47 CPC read with section 151 of the same code.

It would appear further that the petitioners had taken a loan from the OP for purchasing a transport vehicle and the petitioners had put their signatures on blank printed forms without informing them about the terms of the agreement. On 16-05-2018 an accident occurred causing damage to the vehicle and till date such was lying in the repairing garage and the claim for the damage was not paid by the Insurance Company. The dues accrued and an arbitration proceeding was initiated and thereafter an exparte award was passed by the arbitrator on 16-12-2021.

The petitioners come forth before this court with the prayer that such an award be declared as null and void and not binding upon the petitioner.

This court had put forth a question to the Ld advocate for the petitioners as to whether this court can set aside such an award made by the arbitrator. The question of maintainability of the application u/sec 47 CPC arose and which was thereafter heard. The primary contention of the Ld advocate for the petitioners is that the arbitral award was passed without proper service of notice upon the petitioner by the arbitrator. Section 2 (1) (e) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 lays down that in the case of an arbitration other than International Commercial Arbitration, the Principal Civil Court of original Jurisdiction in a District shall have jurisdiction to decide the questions forming subject matter of arbitration if the same had been the subject matter of a suit and does not include any Civil Court of a grade inferior to such principal civil court. Section 34 of the said act lays down that the grounds over which an application for setting aside arbitral award can be made. It lays down that the application for setting aside the arbitral award should be made only by an application in accordance with sub section 2 and sub section 3 of section 34. If sub section 3 is perused it would appear that the application for setting aside may not be made after three months have elapsed from the date of which the party making the application had received the arbitral award. The proviso lays down that if the court is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application, it may entertain the application within a further period of 30 days but not thereafter. In the instant case the award has been passed on 16-12-2021 and the instant application has been filed on 13-05-2025. It would appear that nowhere in the application the petitions have stated the manner in which they came to know about the arbitral award or any date on which they came to have knowledge about the existence of such arbitral award. I also find it pertinent to mention that section 47 CPC pertains to decrees passed by the civil court and an arbitral award cannot be regarded as being a decree. The question as to whether an arbitral award can be termed as a decree and whether an application u/sec 47 CPC would be applicable or not was taken up for consideration by the Hon'ble Allahabad High Court in the case of IOC Limited and another VS the Commercial Court & another and cited in 2023 AHC 176040 (source; Indiankanoon) and it would appear that the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad was pleased to hold that the arbitral award cannot be termed as a decree. Considering such the application u/sec 47 CPC cannot be regarded as being maintainable to set aside and exparte arbitral award.

Hence, it is hereby,

Ordered

that the instant Misc case stands dismissed as being not maintainable.

Order no.50 dated 29-07-2025

Today is fixed for E/R of the witness warrant and evidence.

All the three accused are present with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

It would appear that vide the previous order the copy of the order dated 29-03-2025 was sent to the DIG, CID, West Bengal, Bhawani Bhawan but in spite of such the witness being Inspector Narayan Chandra Bhatta has not remain present before this court and neither any NER has been received.

The instant case represents a scenario which does not give this court enough words to condemn.

It would appear that the instant case pertains to an heinous offence punishable u/sec 489C/120B of the IPC. Such an offence should be regarded as an offence against the nation itself. This court is amazed at the negligent manner and indifference being shown by CSW 1 Narayan Chandra Bhatta, Inspector CID West Bengal to appear and adduce evidence.

This court has issue not bailable witness warrant but in vain.

It is expected that the superior police personnel shall take note of the same and do justice to the post they hold and leave no stone unturned to ensure the appearance of such witness before this court.

A copy of this order be sent to the DIG, CID, WEST Bengal through email being contact@cidwestbengal.gov.in and also through the email being policewb@gmail.com.

Ld Advocate for the revisionist is present. Ld Advovcate for the OP no 1 and 2 is present. Ld PP in charge is also present.
Ld Advocate for the revisionist has filed the postal receipt and the consignment track report. It appears that such was returned with the report insufficient address. It appears that such OP no 3 along with the Ops 1 and 2 had initiated the proceedings before the Ld Trial Court. It was also submitted before this Court that all such Ops are sisters. It appears that such OP no 3 is purposely evading the service of notice and is also refraining willingly to appear before this Court.

Hence, it be regarded that proper notice has been served on the OP no 3.

I fix up the next date for hearing.

To 21-8-2025 for hearing.

Order no.16 dated 15-07-2025

Today is fixed for consideration of charge.
The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate.
Ld P.P in-charge is present.
Heard.
Perused the materials on record in the CD.
Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that on 17-12-2021 Sk. Fakiruddin was going to the house of the defacto complainant Rupali Mondal and when the accused restrained Sk. Fakiruddin and assaulted him with kick, fists and blows in front of Chakgopal Primary School and also tried to assault with a tube light. It is further alleged that when Sk. Fakiruddin tried to evade the assault, he suffered a bleeding injury on his hand.

The written complaint was registered as Budge Budge P.S. Case No.361 of 2021 dated 18-12-2021 and thereafter the investigation commenced and charge sheet was submitted u/sec 341/326/307 IPC.

During the course of hearing over the point of consideration of charge a question arose as to whether there are sufficient materials to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC. It would appear that even though it is alleged that the offence u/sec 307 IPC was committed by a tube light, no such has been seized during the course of investigation. The injury report also states that there was no repeated blows aimed at any vulnerable part of the human body. Further more the allegation is that the accused had committed the act with a tube light. Therefore, it appears that there is no material to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC. The rest of the alleged offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Hence, I find it proper to send back the record to the Ld committing Officer being Ld ACJM, Alipore.

Hence, it is hereby,

Ordered

Order no 2 dated 03-7-2025

Today is fixed for appearance and further order.

All the 09 accused are present with their Ld Advocate. Ld PP in charge is present.

The record is taken up for consideration of charge.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld PP in charge.

Perused the record and the CD.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that one Hasiba Parveen lodged a complaint alleging that she was assaulted by her husband and in-laws and had also attempted to kill her father Hasimuddin Mallick and had also outraged her modesty. It was also alleged that the accused persons had also threatened her and her family. Such was registered as Bansdroni P.S. Case no.561 of 2024 dated 14/07/2024 and on conclusion of investigation charge sheet was submitted u/sec 85/316(2)/115(2)/76/324(4)/109/3(5) of the BNS read with section 3 & 4 Dowry Prohibition Act. Section 85 BNS pertains to cruelty on a married woman and is triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Section 316(2) pertains to Criminal breach of trust and is also triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. Section 115(2) pertains to voluntarily causing hurt and is also Magistrate triable. Section 76 pertains to the offence of assault or use of criminal force on a woman with an intent to disrobe and is triable by the court of sessions. Section 324(4) is also a Magistrate Triable Offence pertaining to mischief. Section 109 of the BNS pertains to offence of attempt to murder and is triable by the court of sessions. Section 3(5) BNS is equivalent to section 34 of the IPC. Therefore, it is only section 76 and section 109 BNS which is triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate. As regards the alleged offence u/sec 76 BNS it would appear that there is only a blatant allegation that the accused persons had assaulted the mother of the defacto complainant and had also tore her wearing apparels. It would appear that no such torn wearing apparel has been seized.

I have also perused the statements recorded u/sec 161 Cr.P.C and such does not corroborate the allegations. There is absolutely no material considering which a charge can be framed u/sec 76 BNS. As regards the offence u/sec 109 BNS I have perused the statements and the injury reports. It was alleged that the accused persons had tried to strangle the father of the defacto complainant namely Hasim Mallick. I have perused the injury reports and it would appear that such does not stand in consonance with the allegations comprising section 109 BNS. This court should not frame a charge under the sections only relying upon the sections which has been mentioned in the charge sheet.

Considering such it appears that no charge can be framed u/sec 76/109 BNS. The rest of the allegations comprises offence which are triable by the court of the triable Ld Judicial Magistrate.

I also find it proper to state that the hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of SIVAMANI AND ANR. V. STATE REPRESENTED BY INSPECTOR OF POLICE, and cited in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 1024 was pleased to rely upon Jage Ram v State of Haryana (2015) 11 SCC 366 and wherein, the Hon'ble Apex Court had observed that while grievous or life-threatening injury was not necessary to maintain a conviction under Section 307, IPC, 'The intention of the accused can be ascertained from the actual injury if any, as well as from surrounding circumstances. Among other things, the nature of the weapon used, and the severity of the blows inflicted can be considered to infer intent.'

Hence, considering all such, it is hereby,

Perused the record and the C.D.
Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the defacto complainant Paresh Chandra Das lodged a complaint at Tiljola P.S. stating that on 08-05-2024 at about 9.00 a.m. his son Sourav Das was going for his office and during such the accused was driving a car turned left without giving any signal and such caused an accident in which the said Sourav Das got grievously injured.

Such complaint was registered as FIR and Tiljola P.S. case no.178 of 2024 dated 08-05-2024 was started u/sec 279/338/427 & thereafter during course of the investigation the I/O sought addition of section 308 IPC. The investigation continued and thereafter such ended in a charge sheet u/sec 279/338/308/427 IPC.

It would appear that among the sections included in the charge sheet it is only section 308 IPC which is a sessions triable offence. This court should not blind the frame the charge considering the sections stated in the charge sheet. A doubt arose as to whether it can be regarded that an offence u/sec 308 IPC might have been committed by the accused. 308 IPC lays down the provisions as regards attempt to commit culpable homicide not amounting to murder. The term culpable homicide has been defined in section 299 of the IPC and such lays down that the act should be done with the intention of causing death or with the intention of causing such bodily injury as is likely to cause death or with the knowledge that he is likely by such act to cause death. It would be preposterous to hold that a driver of a vehicle turning without giving a turning indicator would do so having knowledge by such act, he might cause death of a person. The offences alleged to have been committed would come within the purview of sections 279/338/427 IPC but cannot come within the purview of section 308 IPC. I find it proper to state that the Hon'ble Allahabad High Court was pleased to hold in the case of Ramji Prosad and four others VS State of UP & another and cited in 2023 livelaw (AB) 40 that in an allegation u/sec 308 IPC what is material is intention or knowledge and the circumstances in which the act has been done and not the injuries. Considering such it appears that no charge can be framed u/sec 308 IPC. The rest of the offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrates.

Hence, it is hereby,

ORDERED

That the instant record be sent to the court of Ld ACJM Alipore who shall proceed with the case either by himself or by any other Ld Judicial Magistrate. The sole accused must appear before the court of the Ld ACJM Alipore on 01-08-2025.

Order no.10 dated 25-06-2025

Today is fixed for consideration of charge.

The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate

Ld P.P in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge over the point of consideration of charge.

Perused the record and the C.D.

On perusal of the record, it appears that the defacto complainant had made a complaint which was registered as a FIR alleging that the accused being father-in-law has subjected her to physical and mental cruelty and had also outraged her modesty and assaulted her and also tried to kill her by manually strangulating her and also by smothering her with a pillow. The investigation commenced and such culminated in the charge sheet u/secs 448/354B/323/307/506 I.P.C. Within such alleged offences it is only section 307 IPC which comprises of a Sessions Triable Offence.

On perusal of the record it would appear that the Ld ACJM Alipore while granting the bail had opined that there was no incriminating material u/sec 307 IPC. I have perused the C.D and it appears that no such pillow has been seized and neither there is any medical document which can support the allegation of manual strangulation. I have also perused the Medico Legal Examination Report of the alleged victim and statement made by her to the attending doctor. It would appear that there is absolutely no ground to frame a charge u/sec 307 IPC. The rest of the alleged offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Hence, it is hereby,

ORDERED

that the instant record be sent to the court of the Ld ACJM, Alipore for trial and disposal.

Order no.14 dated 24-06-2025

Today is fixed for further orders.

The sole accused is present with his Ld advocate.

Ld P.P. in-charge is present.

It would appear that the examination-in-chief of the victim was commenced and thereafter such stood deferred due to non production of the seized articles. It would appear that the allegation is that the accused had sexual intercourse with the victim on false promise of marriage. It would appear that during the course of investigation only a printed purple and white coloured nighty was seized. As such was not produced the examination-in-chief has stood deferred since long. There is every question as to the relevancy of such an seized article. Further more if the prosecution deems that such an article is of importance to the instant case, the prosecution can seek recall of such witness for identification of the seized articles. There is no reason to keep the trial pending any further.

Hence, 24-07-2025 for further examination-in-chief of P.W.1.

Order no.6 dated 24-06-2025

The record is put up on the strength of a put up petition preferred by the appellant. Ld advocate for the appellant and Ld P.P in-charge are present.

Ld advocate for the appellant submitted that the appellant had sent a mail to him stating that he is willing to withdraw the instant appeal and following such the Ld advocate has filed a petition seeking to withdraw the criminal appeal.

Heard.

Even though a criminal appeal cannot be dismissed for non appearance of the appellant such can be allowed to be withdrawn.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India also appears to have been pleased to allow such prayers for withdrawal and more so in the case of Criminal Appeal No.4517 of 2024 (Deep Dixit and another VS State of Madhyapradesh and others). Therefore the appellant can be allowed to withdraw the appeal.

Hence, it is hereby,

Order no.7 dated 10-06-2025

Today is fixed for consideration of charge.

All the three accused persons on court bail are present with their Ld advocate.

Ld P.P. in-charge is present.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the record and the C.D.

Considered.

The facts of the case in a nutshell is that the defacto complainant Aroti Mondal had stated that following disputes over property her husband had filed a case u/sec 107 CR.P.C against the accused persons and following such on 11-04-2022 at about 7.00 p.m. the accused persons began to verbally abused her husband and also assaulted him with lathi and bricks. The accused persons assaulted her husband on his head causing bleeding injuries and he had to admitted at Basanti Hospital. The complaint was registered as an FIR and Basanti P.S. Case No.253 of 2022 commenced and on completion of investigation charge sheet was submitted u/sec 341/323/325/307/506 IPC. Cognizance was taken and thereafter following commitment and transfer the record was sent to this court for trial and disposal.

It would appear that among the offences alleged to have been committed by the accused persons it is only the one comprising an offence u/sec 307 IPC which is a session triable offence.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that if the injury reports are perused it would appear that no charge can be framed u/sec 307 IPC. Ld P.P in-charge fairly submitted that he leaves the matter to the discretion of this court. First and foremost it would appear that both sides had entered into a free fight causing injuries to members of both sides. Further more the injury report over which the section 307 IPC was inserted shows simple injury and only a cut injury on the scalp. There is nothing in a C.D. to show that there were repeated assaults over a vital part of the body and there is also nothing to show that if the local persons would not have intervened, the assailants was sure to cause the death of the victim. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Sivamani and another VS State represented by Inspector of Police and cited in 2023 live law (SC) 1024 was pleased to rely upon the judgment cited in (2015) 11 SCC 366 and was pleased to hold that the intention of the accused can be asserted from the actual injury and the surrounding circumstances. It was also held that the nature of the weapon used and the severity of the blows inflicted should be considered to infer intent. The entire C.D, if perused, would go to show that there is no manner in which the charge can be framed u/sec 307 IPC. The rest of the offences are triable by the court of the Ld Judicial Magistrate.

Hence, it is hereby ordered that the record be sent back to the Court of the Ld ACJM, Alipore.

All the three accused persons to appear before the court of the Ld ACJM Alipore on 07-08-2025.

The date is inform to the accused persons in open court in presence of their Ld advocate.

The prosecution to take steps and ensure the presence of the witness.

Ld advocate for the accused has moved the petition seeking bail.

Heard Ld advocate for the accused and Ld P.P in-charge.

Perused the record.

Ld advocate for the accused submitted that the accused was on bail but thereafter had misused the liberty and for which W/A was issued and such was executed and since such date the accused is in custody.

Ld P.P in-charge fairly submitted that considering the long detention, he leaves the matter to the discretion of this court. It does appear that the accused is in custody since 17-07-2024. Considering such I allow the prayer for bail. The accused be released on interim bail on furnishing bond of Rs.3000/- with one surety subject to satisfaction of Ld CJM, Alipore, on condition that the accused shall remain present on each dates fixed for the trial henceforth.

If on bail, todate for appearance, if bond are not filed, the accused be produced on the next date.

Order no.39 dated 05-06-2025

Today is fixed for further cross-examination of P.W.22.

The sole accused is produced from J/C and remanded to further J/C till the next date.

Ld advocate for the accused is present. The witness is cross-examined in full.

Ld P.P in-charge submitted that P.W.21 had seized the incriminating articles but such articles were not shown to the witness for identifying them and for which P.W.21 be recalled and has filed a petition to that effect.

Heard. It appears that the prayer is with merit and deserves to be allowed.

Hence, I fix up the next date for further examination-in-chief of P.W.21 on recall. The prosecution to ensure the presence of the witness and also the production of the seized articles on the date fixed.

Ld P.P in-charge has also filed a copy of the report of the FSL and prayed that such be admitted into evidence. Ld advocate for the accused fairly submitted that such may be admitted into evidence. Hence, the report is marked as Ext.P-18.

To 17-06-2025 for further examination-in-chief of P.W.21 on recall.

Order no.3 dated 04-06-2025

Today is fixed for hearing upon the petition as filed by the DHR under order 21 rule 12 CPC read with section 151 CPC and section 174 of the MV Act. Ld advocate for the DHR is present.

Heard Ld advocate.

Perused the record.

Considered.

On perusal of the petition under consideration it appears that the DHR has stated that the JDR was directed to issue two separate cheques within two months from the date of delivery of judgment failing which the award shall carry an interest of 12% per annum. It is further stated that the award was passed on 25-06-2024 and till date the direction has not been complied with. With such assertion the DHR has prayed that an amount of Rs.21,59,204/- be attached from the bank account maintained by the JDR. It has been stated on affidavit that the JDR has his bank account at Kotak Mahindra Bank, Rashbehari Avenue, Kolkata.

It could appear that the award was passed on 25-06-2024 and the application for execution has been filed on 10-01-2025. Therefore, considering the provision of order 21 rule 22 CPC, there is no requirement to call upon the JDR to show cause against the execution. Further more order 21 rule 30 CPC lays down that every decree for the payment of money may be executed by detention in the civil prison or by attachment and sale of property.

Order 21 rule 46 CPC lays down the manner in which property not in possession of the JDR can be attached. It would appear that the decretal amount and the interest should be attached. Hence, the Branch Manager, Kotak Mahindra Bank, Rashbehari Avenue, Kolkata-700029 shall withhold a sum of Rs.21,59,204/- of the account maintained by National Insurance Company Ltd being account number 520011042210. If the account number is found not of the account maintained by National Insurance Co. Ltd the Branch Manager shall inform such to this court without delay.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the concerned Branch Manager.

A copy of this order be handed free of cost to the DHR who shall serve the same upon the Manager of the Bank. The DHR is also directed to file the account number and bank details of the beneficiaries of such award on the next date fixed.

The Branch Manager shall also submit a report of compliance to this court on the next date.

To 25-06-2025 for report and furnishing of bank details of the DHR/Beneficiaries.
