

Order No.10.

Dated 02-08-22024.

Today is fixed for P.H.

Parties file hazirah.

On the prayer of the Ld. Advocate for the parties applications dated 13.02.24 submitted by respondent no.2 are taken up for hearing.

Perused. Heard both sides.

Submitting an application respondent no.2 has prayed for allowing her to contest the suit. Along with such application respondent no.2 has submitted petition showing her causes for not appearing and submitting written statement in time. Respondent no.2 has also filed her written statements along with the applications.

No written objection has been submitted by the petitioner against the applications.

Admittedly, respondent no.2 failed to appear before this Court and submit her written statements in time. However, considering the fact that respondent no.2 is interested to contest the suit and has already filed her written statements, I am inclined to accord an opportunity to her. Hence, the cause shown by the respondent no.2 is accepted and the order for hearing the suit exparte against her is vacated.

Both the applications dated 13.02.24 stands accordingly disposed.

To 26.11.24 for P.H.
