

T.S 9 of 2014

Order No. 23

Dated 13.05.2015

Today is fixed for further chief of PW-1. PW-1 is present with his documents. Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff is present. Defendant is presently present and submits that out of two Ld. Advocates on record, one Ld. Advocate Abhimanyu Roychowdhury is busy in his personal affairs and cannot appear before this court today and prayed for an adjournment. This petition is not moved by any Ld. Advocate for the defendant and the defendant personally submits for the adjournment. Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff raised strong objection.

It appears to this court that there is another Advocate on record as per vakalatnama of the defendant namely, Sri Asim Kr. Dutta but he is not present or is not moving the petition.

Considering the objection by the Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff and readiness of the plaintiff to adduce further evidence and for ends of justice, This adjournment is granted to the defendant personally subject to the payment of cost of Rs.500/- to be paid to the plaintiff for the inconvenience. If on the next date, defendant is not duly represented by the Ld. Advocates on record and due to his acts, this court became unable to proceed in this suit, necessary order will be passed.

To 26.05.2015 for further examination in chief of PW-1.

D/c by me.
