State Vs Rahul Halder

Order No 10

22.04.2026

Today is fixed for hearing the bail application filed on behalf of accused petitioner. It is taken up for hearing.

Ld Advocate for the accused petitioner has submitted that no bail application is filed / pending and / or disposed of or rejected by any Higher forum.

Accused Rahul Halder is produced from JC through VC.

A bail petition dated 18.04.2026 filed on his behalf is moved by Ld Defence Counsel engaged through SDLSC, Diamond Harbour.

Record indicates that another bail application was filed on his behalf on 09.04.2026. At this stage, Ld Defence Counsel has “not pressed” the bail petition dated 09.04/2026. So, the same is disposed of.

Ld PP in-charge has produced the CD.

Ld Defence Counsel moving the bail application dated 18.04.2026 has stated that the accused is innocent and falsely implicated in this case. So, he prays for bail.

Ld PP in-charge has raised objection on the ground that the victim has given her statement before the Ld Magistrate wherein the allegation of rape is fully described. Defacto-complainant has not appeared on record despite service of notice regarding the date of hearing the bail application.

Perused the case record as well as the CD including the contents of the written complaint, statements of the witnesses, medico-legal reports of the VG and the accused, seizure lists and other materials. Considering the specific allegation by the victim minor against this petitioner, bail petition stands rejected.

Accused be remanded to JC till 06.05.2026.
