

T. S. No. 24 of 2024
Regd No. 24/24

(JO Code: WB01068)

Later: dated : 29.02.2024

Record is placed before me.

Ld. Lawyer for the plaintiffs moves an application under order 39 rule 1 & 2 read with section 151 of C.P.C.

Heard the Ld. Lawyer for the plaintiffs.

Seen the note of Sherestadar from which it appears that no caveat is pending.

Perused the plaint and the application for injunction.

Considered.

This is a suit for declaration, partition and injunction.

After going through the record, it appears to me that there is no urgency in the matter to allow the relief claimed by the plaintiffs at this stage, moreover the matter may be well adjudged if heard in presence of all the parties.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to pass any order of ad-interim injunction against the defendants.

Accordingly, it is,

that the prayer for ad interim injunction is refused at this stage.

Issue notice upon the defendants calling upon them to show cause within 15 days from the date of receipt of notice as to why the plaintiffs' prayer for temporary injunction shall not be granted against them.

To date.

(J.O. Code-WB01068)
Later: dated : 29.02.2024

The learned advocate files a petition for withdrawal of the original documents filed by the plaintiffs.

Heard Ld. Advocate for the plaintiffs. Perused the petition and other materials on record.

It appears that the petition is duly verified. Accordingly, the petition is allowed.

Let the documents filed by the plaintiffs be returned through his learned lawyer on proper receipt and identification on condition to refile the same as and when called for.

The petition is thus disposed of accordingly.
